

CARSON HEIGHTS & CAPITOL HILL
Mrs. Geo. Hartman

Parent-Teachers Annual Luncheon Mrs. Sidney Lathrop and Mrs. Manning Spiker of Capitol Hill, and Mrs. George Hartman, of Collins View, were the representatives of the Capitol Hill Parent-Teacher Association present at the annual luncheon given by the Parent-Teacher Council in the Arcadian Garden of the Hotel Multnomah, Friday, June 2.

The meeting was presided over by the retiring President, Mrs. William M. Bathgate, who in her address, spoke of the foundation and work accomplished by the association in the past, and of the aims and plans of the future. Mrs. Everts W. Charles, had charge of the program, and gave an interesting report on the national convention recently held at Tacoma. Mrs. E. B. Kelley, the newly elected president gave a short talk.

Other speakers were Mr. Frank Shull and H. C. Newell, of the school board, who laid special stress upon the necessity of the parents voting for the Bond Issue and the Tax Levy, at the school election, June 17; stating that Oregon has a national reputation of leading in the percent of pupils starting in the first grade and completing the college course.

Three minute talks were given by the presidents of the various organizations of Portland, as to their work accomplished during the past year.

Miss Norma Gross rendered piano solos, and Mrs. John Waldron led in the singing of the association songs.

The floral decorations were exceptionally beautiful. The Franklin High School presenting a lovely floral piece for the speaker's table. Mrs. George G. Root had charge of the decorations. Tickets were distributed to the different presidents to be sold for the dance to be held on the Swan, June 23.

National Parent-Teacher Association songs sung at the meeting held June 2. Oh, the breath of fragrant fir trees, The winding mountain trail, The rosy glow of sunlit peaks, Whose stories never fail, A friend that is tried and trusted, A song of larks at dawn, The soft refrain of falling rain, And that is Oregon.

Oregon, Oregon,
Land we love the best,
Fairer than the rest,
Oregon, Oregon,
That's where the tall firs grow.

Oregon, Oregon,
Land we love the best,
Fairer than the rest,
Oregon, Oregon,
That's where the tall firs grow.

POTTED HAM
Two cups chopped lean ham, 1/4 cup chopped fat ham, 1 teaspoon paprika, 1-8 teaspoon mustard.

Put chopped meat in a bowl and pound to a smooth paste, adding paprika gradually. Put the extra fat trimmed from the ham in a frying pan and cook slowly until all the fat is fried out.

Press the pounded meat firmly in a sterilized jar, strain over the fried-out fat. Let stand till cool. Cover the meat with the fat to the depth of at one-fourth inch. If there is not enough ham fat to completely cover the ham add lard. When cold cover tightly and store in a cold place. This ham is excellent for sandwiches.
