SOCIETY

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Scheubel, on fifth and Madison streets, when their second daughter, Miss Roberta Margaret, was united in marriage to J. Burrows Caldwell by Rev. H. G. Edgar. The impressive ring ceremony was used. Miss Helen Case of Portland was maid of honor to the bride and the groom was attended by F. Evans Carr of Oconto, Wis. Little Misses Roberta, Claire, Bequeth and Marcel Thomas of Portland, dressed in flame colored organdie, acted as flower girls. Miss Florence Garret of Hillsboro sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," accompanied by Miss Ruth Scheubel, who also played the wedding march.

The Scheubel home was very beautifully decorated with Scotch broom, potted ferns and palms. Refreshments were served with Mrs. W. Gilbert Beattie, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Cora Roberts presiding at the table. The bride's Alpha Phi sorority sisters, including Genevieve Loughlin, Lucile McCorkle, Gretchen Colton Lois Macoy, Eugenia Page and Christine Page, assisted in serving and also in receiving the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell left for a short trip a part of which will be at Rhododendron. They will make their home in Portland. Mrs. Caldwell is a graduate of the University of Oregon, where she was very popular. Her husband is from Chicago and is advertising manager for the Oregon State Farm Bureau in Portland.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Shaw on Friday afternoon of last week when their eldest daughter, Sedonia, was united in marriage to John Jackson of Portland. The ring ceremony was used by Rev. A. J. Wars, uncle of the bride.

The ceremony was performed under a canopy formed of California poppies, buttercups and sweet brier. Only immediate relatives of the bride and groom attended the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson have gone on their honeymoon which will be spent at Crater Lake. They will reside in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chinn entertained at dinner on Sunday of last week at their home at Central Point. The occasion was in honor of Mrs. Chinn's birthday. Mrs. Roberts mother of Mrs. Chinn baked the birthday cake.

Places were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chinn and daughter Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Chinn and Mrs. Schwartz of Central Point, Mr. and Mrs. Eoyore Roberts and son Buddie and Miss Ruth Roberts of Oregon City.

At a luncheon given last Friday afternoon by Mrs. Eugene Good at her home in Gladstone, the engagement of Miss Frances Cross to Winfield J. Dryden of Los Angeles, California, was announced. The wedding to take place on June 10th. Miss Cross and her mother left this week for California. She is the youngest daughter of Judge and Mrs. H. E. Cross of Gladstone.
