Nigerian Products.
A Nigerian trade review shows that goatskins used in making the finest boots, go mainly to the American market. Palm kernels from the south, especially Yorubaland, are extracted from the shells by hand. Before the war most of the kernels went to Germany, whence in consequence Great Britain had to import a large proportion of the oil required for making margarine. The export of palm kernels is over 200,000 tons, while that of palm oil is over 100,000 tons. The oil supplies work for men, as the kernels for women. It enters into the manufacture of soap and candles. The value of the tin ore production is between one and two millions sterling. The distance of the tin fields from the coast is a handicap to the trade. Railway expansion has made things easier, the light railway to Bakura, built for the purpose, having proved most serviceable.

Old Man's Marital Philosophy.
A ninety-year-old bridegroom started his sixth honeymoon walking part way from Winona, Tenn., to Cincinnati, Ohio, with his twenty-six-year-old bride, as an example for other young married couples. "Ninety is a lot more sensible age to get married at than nineteen, like a lot of them young snips do," he said. "When a man is ninety he has good sense, so he don't make mistakes. I started marryin' when I was twenty-three. I'm sorta getting used to it by now. When you haven't had more than one wife you don't know anything." Mary Jape, his wife, said it was love at first sight. "He met and married me in an hour," she said. "He wanted some one to do housework and I said I would take the job. Then he asked me if I wouldn't marry him."

Sharing Honors.
Three-year-old George had long admired the huge American flag which was displayed across the street on the different gala occasions.

His father had now made him happy with one just like it and it floated out splendidly.

Out on an early morning call Miss S. of the house across the street was asked by George whether she did not think his new flag wonderful.

"Yes, indeed," said Miss S. "Do you know why your flag is up this week?" (It was G. A. R. week.)

Very earnestly, he replied: "You bet, because yours is."—Indianapolis News.

Mrs. Casey—"Molke did yez put out the cat?"

Mr. Casey—"Ol did."

Mrs. Casey—"I don't belave it"

Mr. Casey—"Well, if yez tink Ol'm a loiyer, gwan an' put her out yerself."
