

Community Life

News From Over CLACKAMAS COUNTY

GLADSTONE

Mrs. Frank Coates, of Troutlake, Wash. is the guest of her brothers, E. L. and J. L. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wells, of Portland, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Eby, Sunday.

Miss Alice Freytag is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McGelchic of St. Johns.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hayhurst and family left Saturday morning for Grants Pass, where they are to make their home.

Mrs. C. D. Legler and daughter, Mildred, were guests of friends in Portland, Monday.

More than 250 people attended the school election held at the school house Monday evening. Chas. T. Sievers was elected director by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Sievers' candidacy was unopposed. He succeeds Mr. Vedder, whose term has expired. Thomas F. Meeds was elected school clerk over William Rivers by a vote of 142 to 60.

The school budget was also adopted. It provides for an increase of ten per cent, the extra funds to be used for the purchase of more land adjacent to the present school property.

Misses Beatrice and Vivian Rauch had as their guests last week Miss Mar Zankler and Miss Evangeline Christensen, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Holt have as their guests Mrs. Holt's sister, Mrs. Georgia Whitsett and son, Richard, of Richland, Washington.

Mrs. O. L. Weddle is quite ill. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rauch had as their guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Arnold, of Portland.

CANBY

On Sunday afternoon Canby and West Linn played an interesting game of baseball, on the Canby diamonds. Both sides played well and the game was punctuated with enthusiastic yells from the large crowd in attendance.

The score was 4 to 9 in favor of West Linn.

At his home on the West Ebbey farm, about eight miles east of Canby, J. T. Winters was accidentally shot by Clyde Ebbey, young son of Wes. Ebbey.

The shot passed through the fleshy part of the right hip and being only a 22 caliber, was not serious. After attention by Dr. Dedman, Mr. Winters returned to his home.

Rev. Skilbred, pastor of the Lutheran church, at Canby, accompanied by his brother Chris Skilbred and wife, left Monday morning for Silverton, to visit friends. Mr. Chris Skilbred and wife are newlyweds and are here on their wedding trip, from Billings, Mont., and will return to their home at Billings in a couple of weeks.

Lee Eckersen was transacting business in Oregon City Monday.

Miss Mildred Hendrickson, one of the new graduates of the Canby High School, left Monday morning for Arlington, Oregon, where she is to teach school during the coming year.

Mrs. H. K. Tuerck of 53 N. Ninth St. Portland, who in company with her mother Mrs. L. Wick of Los Angeles, Calif., while driving to Mt. Angel Sunday morning was struck by a passing car, and knocked off the highway. The accident occurred at a point near the city limits north of the White garage. They were driving a Ford car, and was struck by the other car, a Dodge, from the rear. The Dodge car was owned by W. T. Leggett of Los Angeles, California, and was being driven by Mr. C. Walters of Portland. In the "mix up" Mrs. Wick who is an elderly lady, received an injured shoulder and bruises on the limbs, a five year old boy, son of Mrs. Tuerck, was slightly cut about the face when thrown through the wind shield of the car, and Mrs. Tuerck received a slight bruise on the knee. All received attention at Dr. Dedman's office and returned to Portland. The Ford car, was damaged to some extent and received attention at Whites garage.

Wes. Riggs and wife, former residents of Canby, after several days sojourn in our city, returned to their fruit ranch at Rowena, Ore., on last Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Allen, formerly of Canby now of Kalama, Washington, spent the week end in Canby, returning to her home on Monday.

W. G. Johnson of Portland was transacting business in Canby on Monday.

Mrs. Walter Leisman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hampton, is a Canby visitor this week. She expects to return to her home in La Grand.

Monday, George H. Grover, until recently a resident of the Canby Section drove up from Santa Ana, Calif., last week, to look after local interests here. He will return to his California home will return to his California home within a few days.

Mrs. Epsie is having a new and modern residence built on her farm one mile northeast of Canby. John Kohler, our up to date architect and builder, has the contract, for its construction.

Twenty-nine children, grand children and other relatives were present last Sunday at the home of D. C. Rones, one half mile east of Canby, to enjoy a family gathering and participate in the family festivities of the occasion. Among those present from outside of Canby were: E. Rones and wife and children of California; Mr. and Mrs. J. Greves of North Bend, Oregon; Mrs. H. R. Hoiler of Astoria and John and Fred Rones of Portland; Mr. E. Rones and family of San Francisco who came to Canby for the occasion, arrived last week, and will leave Canby on Tuesday for Tacoma, Wash., where they will visit friends and relatives before returning to their homes.

E. F. Hoy spent Sunday visiting friends in Portland.

Last week, the John Gibson farm of 45 acres on the Willamette river 1 1/2 miles from Canby, was sold to Mr. C. H. Dolson of Portland. Mr. Gibson will move to Portland and Mr. Dolson will move to his newly purchased farm. The deal was made through C. L. Bates, realtor of Canby.

An important school meeting is staged for Monday night, in the high school hall. The object is relative to the school affairs for the coming year, and will also settle some questions as to the proposed union high school movement. Full report as to same will appear next week.

The writer and wife drove to Vernona on Thursday of last week to Pacific City and return on Friday and back home by way of Dallas on Saturday night. At Dallas we were entertained by our six weeks old grand daughter and its father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mangis. At Pacific City, we were entertained by a wind and sand storm, and at Vernona, we listened to a song entitled "A New Year will be here in July," and were handed a boosting report as to a new saw mill to operate in that "Nick of the Woods", which would employ 2,500 men and saw 200,000 feet of lumber per day. Some "Boost" I'll say, and its all to happen this summer.

Clarence Eld, son of John Eld, of the Canby Hardware Co., is to be married tonight, (Tuesday) some where in Portland. Could not catch him today for a write up, but "Oh you bird", you will hear fro mus next week. And perhaps from the boys sooner, if they get their bells tuned in time.

It is reported the tan ax handle factory is being built at New Era. Well! I'll be bawled out! Good for New Era. Some day this enterprising city, basking on the banks of the beautiful Willamette might become the Chicago of Oregon. Who knows. Her resources are great. Why not.

CARVER

The Carver baseball nine lost to Logan, Sunday by a close score. The Carver team did splendid team work and expect to play a good game with Milwaukie next Sunday.

Miss Helen Gabrielsen of Portland was a Sunday guest of Miss Bessie Hattan.

Mr. and Mrs. Pick of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Newell of Damascus were visitors in Carver on Sunday.

Carver Canning Co. was a very busy place the past week. Hany had some 40 people employed. They purchased 22,705 lbs. of berries paying 6 cts. lb. putting 7,932 lbs. in barrels, these barrels hold 337 1/2 lbs. when filled are slightly sweetened and sealed and taken to cold storage later shipped to different parts of Europe beside canning 9,782 lbs. in cans, 3 dozen 2 lb. cans of preserves. Mr. H. S. Anderson has been employed to take care of the books. J. C. Miller secretary, R. L. Peake manager, will keep the business moving in din order.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Byers and two children of The Dalles, motored to Carver on Saturday to visit with the home folks. Mr. Byers has 16 acres of very fine farm land there raising vegetables, berries and melons. 35 acres of water melons and 9 of cantaloupes.

Mrs. Paul Murrpiner had for week end visitors her father Mr. Larkins of Marquinn and brother Grey Larkins, principal of Woodburn grammar school.

Mr. Al Lillis is having an addition of some 40 ft. added to his old barn, and a new barn built, 24x40x20 feet high. Charley Harvey who has been assisting in the building is leaving Monday to go to Woodburn to take charge of his uncle's berry field there.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dallas of Damascus and Mrs. O. W. Hattan were visitors at Oak Grove Sunday guests of Mrs. Swan.

Mrs. Frank Wheeler of Park Place visited with Mr. and Mrs. Sol Wheeler several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Munpower of Clackamas Heights were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Titus this week end.

CARSON HEIGHTS & CAPITOL HILL

The St. Claire Roman Catholic School of Capitol Hill held their closing exercises, Friday, June 9, in the evening. A delightful program was put on, including flower girls, singing, recitations. There were four pupils in the graduating class. A charge of 50 cents for admission was made, and the school cleared over a hundred dollars.

The teachers of Capitol Hill School entertained the class of graduates with a theater party and luncheon, in Portland, Friday, June 16, at 1:30 p. m. There were six in the class: Margaret Whipple, Betty Zilly, Elaine Spang, Harry Butcher, and Tod Gilmer and Armond Waltie.

Announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Greshorn, teacher of the fourth grade, Capitol Hill school, at an afternoon tea, held at the home of Miss Elphe K. Smith. Miss Greshorn expects to make a motor trip through Yellowstone Park during the honeymoon.

Mrs. Manning Spiker of Capitol Hill entertained the five teachers, Edith E. Pland, Elphe K. Smith, Miss Greshorn Miss Crane and Mrs. Blandford at her home with a luncheon, last Thursday.

The "Brownies" and Girl Scouts Bazaar, held last Monday at the Carson Heights, Community Church, was a great success. The girls had five booths prettily trimmed with crepe paper and flowers, and served tea, lemonade and cake. The affair was liberally patronized, and early in the day everything was sold out.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Watson, of Collins View, expect to leave shortly for a motor trip through Cello and The Dalles, for a few days.

Mrs. Bert Smith, is quite ill, and confined to her bed.

Mrs. R. A. Anderson, of Carson Heights, had a number of guests for dinner last Sunday. Among those present were her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Moody, of Tualatin; her uncle, J. F. Moody, and his daughter, of Shelton, Washington; and her brother, F. G. Little, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Aplanalp, of Carson Heights, attended the wedding of the minister of the Reformed Church of Hillsdale, which took place at 8:30 Wednesday evening, June 14. The wedding was quite a social event, and many relatives and friends were present.

Mrs. George Washington Lewis, of Grants Pass, is visiting her daughters, Mrs. R. Z. Anderson, of Carson Hts. and Mrs. Jack Maxwell, of Ryan Place. After an extended visit, Mrs. Lewis will go to California, where she will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Bates, of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Klem, and Mrs. Manning, Skipper, motored to Council Crest last Wednesday and spent a most enjoyable evening dancing.

Luciel Waltie, of Carson Heights, is seriously ill at her home.

Sunday, June 18, Mrs. R. A. Anderson will entertain her brother, Albert D. Moody and his wife, of Aberdeen, Washington.

Miss Marjorie Whipple of Capitol Hill is entertaining with a dancing party, Friday evening. Among those invited is her school friend, Elaine Spiker.

Mrs. B. N. Lafferty, of Aberdeen, Washington, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. R. A. Anderson.

Mrs. O. Steward, formerly of Collins View, is building an attractive bungalow, on Carson Heights and expects to move there shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Lawton of Capitol Hill have returned from Port Angeles, Washington, where they visited their niece and nephew. Mr. Lawton reports the fishing as first class, and they had a fine time.

Mrs. Royal A. Watson, is taking the course in dressmaking at Meier and Franks and finds it very efficient.

The picnic given by Luciel Thomas for her Sunday School class, was a happy event. All the children gathered at her home at 1 o'clock, Saturday, and piled into the car of Mr. George Hartman, which they filled to overflowing, and were taken to the Seaside Park where they spent the rest of the day eating and playing. In the evening Mr. Hartman brought them all up the hill, tired but happy.

Miss Elaine Spiker, Miss Helen Blair and Miss Elsie Flink are three of the girls who will participate in the Indian Club drill, in the Rose Festival Parade.

The pupils of Capitol Hill school, gave a flower power for their principal, Mrs. Blandford, Thursday. All the children took flowers and an American flag was formed upon the lawn; red and white roses for the stripes, with a blue background and white roses for the stars. Margaret Hartman crowned the teacher with a wreath of roses, after which she was showered with rose petals.

Mr. F. H. Dunn of Kilpatrick Collins has returned from a trip recently made, when he motored to Sacramento with his mother and grandmother.

As the school election is controlled by different statutes and works under different conditions from the general election, the School Board held a special meeting Wednesday evening in the auditorium of the Shattuck school in order to instruct the judges and clerks in the duties and functions of school election officials and the school election laws. There were over 300 judges and clerks present. Mr. R. H. Thomas and William F. Woodward gave a talk on the work of the board, and the District Attorney answered all legal questions.

A recital giving a Demonstration of Piano, Harp and the Dunning system, was given by the pupils of Miss Alice Genieve Smith, Friday evening, June 16, at the Fulton Park School Auditorium.

The pupils showed a thorough knowledge of the fundamental principles of music, and displayed a manner of grace and ease with excellent rhythm, and splendid time. Numbers were played using two pianos, three harps, violins, and the organ. Especially beautiful was a selection by Dubez played upon three harps by Ruth Osborne, Adeline Stropp and Florine Stone. An unusual feature was the demonstration of rhythm pictures. The program was well balanced and especially interesting to the audience of parents for whose pleasure it was arranged.

As the closing number, "America" was sung by the entire audience, with all the pupils on the stage, and the playing of four harps, two pianos, three violins and the organ.

WEST LINN

Miss Alethea Kidley is home for the vacation months from the Oregon Normal School. She had as her guest last Thursday and Friday, Miss Josephine Hammond of Oklahoma. Miss Hammond is also a student at the state normal.

Miss Addie Clark who has been visiting with her brother John Clark and family will leave for Boston in the near future.

Thos. C. Lovett is home from O. A. C. for the summer.

Mrs. M. Hawthorne of Hood River has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Shanks this past week. Mrs. Hawthorne is Mrs. Shanks' sister.

At the school election held Monday evening in the Sunset school, Carl Buse was re-elected as director and Clyde Hughes as clerk for the ensuing term.

Miss Margaret Clark is home for the summer months from the University of Oregon.

The Heddens and Lovetts with W. R. Deddic drove to Dallas last week. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Walker drove to Seaside last Wednesday for a few days.

Alethea Kidby, Josephine Hammond and Dennis Kidby were the guests of the Haddens over Saturday and Sunday at Seaside. They returned Monday by the Columbia Highway.

PARKPLACE

Mr. and Mrs. William Jordan are the parents of a son, born Wednesday of last week.

Robert Morris is on a business trip to Chicago and Boston.

Mrs. Bert Murray was shopping in Portland on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Rosebraugh motored to Salem on Tuesday.

Mrs. Chancer is assisting for the summer months in the Murray store.

Mrs. L. A. Read has had the misfortune to sprain her ankle, can now walk with the aid of crutches.

Mrs. William Hammond and children are guests of friends in Hood River.

Mrs. Mead Delightfully Surprised The friends of Mrs. F. H. Mead gave her a birthday surprise on June 14. A very enjoyable time was had. She received many gifts and a shower of flowers.

A basket lunch was served on the lawn to about forty. Those present were Mrs. P. H. Mead, Mrs. Burgoyne and little grandson, John Bush Jr., Mrs. Biggy and three children, Mrs. Veteto and daughter Mary, Mrs. MacArthur, Mrs. Cutser, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Brandt, Mrs. Daisy Dods and daughter Dorothy, Mrs. Ruth Mead and two children, Mrs. Spulok, Mrs. Chin, Mrs. Charis Chin, Mrs. Palmer and little daughter Peggy Jane, Mrs. Hummel, Mrs. Dundis, Mrs. Struble, Mrs. Strong, Mrs. Lelia King, Georgia King and son Philip King Jr., Mrs. Andres and two daughters, Mrs. T. W. Helland and daughter Ophelia Ray, and the Misses Helen and Emily Spulok, Ruth and Alice Chin, Viola Dundis and after spending a lonely day together all parted wishing Mrs. Mead many happy returns of the day.

Party Given Mrs. Crawford A delightful party was held at the home of Mrs. Clifford Strong near New Era, Friday, June 16. The ladies spent the day in visiting and sewing and at noon delicious diner was served under the trees on the lawn which overlooks the Willamette River. The guests present were: Mrs. Dods, Mrs. McArthur, Mrs. T. O. Kelland, Mrs. George Randall, Mrs. Veteto, Mrs. Andee, Mrs. Eird, Mrs. Hummel, Mrs. Struble, Mrs. P. H. Mead, Mrs. Fred Chin, Mrs. Walter Mead, Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Clifford Strong, Mrs. Spulak, Mrs. De Camp, Mrs. Charles Chin, Mrs. Stauber, Mrs. Williams and Misses Crowther, Alice Chin, Helok, Spulak, Dorothy Strong, Emily Spulok, Laura La Liberte, Dorothy Dods, Lucy Mead, Ellen Andee, Rodale Strong, Hazel Andee, Mary Veteto and Ophelia Mae Kelland.

BOLTON

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Nichols were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Senti at their home in Portland, Mrs. Senti was formerly Mathis Nichols.

Mr. Charles Raines is in the Oregon City hospital suffering from injuries to his knee which he received while employed at the Crown Willamette Paper mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Schoenhienz and daughter Loreen, have returned from the beaches where they have had an enjoyable outing.

Richard Nixon, a student of the Oregon Agricultural College, is home for the vacation. Nixon is a Junior at that institution.

Miss Audrey Hoover, another one of Bolton's popular young ladies is spending her vacation here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoover. Miss Hoover is a student of the Oregon Normal School.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Williams of Willamette were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bartzes on Thursday evening of last week.

Mrs. W. E. Goss of Troutdale, was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. McKillian, Sunday.

Mrs. F. C. Hall was a Bolton visitor last week.

OAK GROVE

May Campbell and daughter Eileen was visiting friends in Silverton Sun-

Travel with TRAVELERS' CHEQUES

They are self-identifying and can be cashed almost any place.

We Sell Them

4 PER CENT ON SAVINGS.

Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent, $2.50 Per Year and Up

THE BANK OF OREGON CITY OLDEST BANK IN CLACKAMAS COUNTY

Miss Margaret Connolly returned Monday from a three days visit in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldorf and children went to Oswego Saturday afternoon and came back Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and some of their friends are at the coast, now.

Iron Electrically

Every woman can save herself much work, time and money if she will invest in one of the modernly made Electric Irons we are now offering.

They beat the old method of heating your irons on a coal or gas range. To test them is to be satisfied. Equipped with the necessary cords and socket.

We carry the Hotpoint, American Beauty and Universal.

Portland Railway, Light & Power Co.

YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK

Nature's Most Wonderful Laboratory and Out-of-Door Paradise

The wildest geysers in the world, dancing amid thousands of boiling springs, their basins arrayed in gorgeous colors like gigantic flowers. Here, too, are hills of sparkling crystals, hills of sulphur, hills of glass, mountains of every style of architecture, icy or frosted, mountains boiled soft like potatoes and colored like a sunset sky.—John Muir the great naturalist.

THROUGH SLEEPING CAR DAILY

Portland to West Yellowstone

Operated by the Union Pacific System

First Car Leaves Portland 5:00 p. m., June 18th

Round trip rail fare from Portland to West Yellowstone $38.25. Sleeping car fare one way $10.50. This does not include the hotel or camp expense while in the Park, which will depend on length of stay.

J. H. O'NEILL, Traveling Passenger Agent, with headquarters at 701 Wells Fargo Building, Portland, will be glad to call personally on anyone wishing to visit Yellowstone and arrange all details. Drop him a card, or address

Wm. McMURRAY GENERAL PASSENGER AGENT PORTLAND, OREGON

OPEN AN ACCOUNT TO-DAY

We are not seeking a great bulk of business from all over the country, but rather prefer the patronage and confidence of the good people residing in our own vicinity, who desire to do business with an institution ever ready and glad to render them every reasonable accommodation and service. We would be glad to have you open an account any time, but why not today?

SAFETY DEPOSIT BOXES FOR RENT

Four (4) % paid on time deposits.

CARVER STATE BANK

Carver, Oregon

GRANT B. DIMICK, President THOS. E. ANDERSON, Vice-Pres. R. E. LOOMIS, Cashier