

JENNINGS LODGE

Mrs. W. W. Woodbeck

Little Katherine Meons, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Miller who has been confined to the house with an attack of scarlet fever is improving.

Mrs. Ora Coffman of Tacoma is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Newell.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hinds and three children of Ben, former residents of this place were Sunday visitors at J. W. Dains. They are camping at Gladstone Park.

Aurdey Tillman daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tillman, was presented in a piano recital in Portland Monday afternoon by Mrs. Anna Holcomb.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitworth and Miss Helen Whitworth were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Jones, Monday.

Mrs. Ella McHargue went to Brownsville last Thursday to attend the Pioneers reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace G. Hampton of Muneie, Indiana, are visiting the formers brother, A. L. Hampton of Hull Avenue.

Mrs. Olive Kessi made a business trip to Corvallis, the past week returning Friday.

Colonel Douting of Garfield, Washington, visited S. H. Bechtel the past week.

C. R. Holloway has been engaged as instructor at a private summer school in Irvington Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Asel Taber have taken possession of their new home at Glen Echo.

Wesley Baker and Robert Russell members of the Oregon National guards have gone to Camp Lewis for a two weeks training course.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Stone and Leyon Etherton visited at the home of Mrs. Bess Pruechert last Sunday.

Mrs. A. Monad of Kansas, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Jones of Hull avenue was the honor guest at a family reunion held at the Jones home last Sunday. Mrs. Monad is 84 years of age and made the trip to the west alone.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Blinestone and family accompanied by Mr. Blinestone's brother Clyde who is here from Sparta, Wisconsin, visited Salem last Thursday returning home Saturday evening.

Mrs. A. B. Smith and the members of the Girls chorus of Grace Community Church enjoyed a picnic at Sellwood Park last Friday.

The families of Orton Randall, John Roberts and George Card, made up a picnic party spending last Sunday at Clear Creek park.

Mrs. Robert Jobling and children accompanied by Miss Mann left last Saturday on a motor trip though California.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Shepherd and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Madden and H. Kolb, motored to Cascade Locks last Sunday to attend the dedication of the Bridge of the Gods.

Mrs. W. J. Stevens was elected school director for a three-year term at the annual school meeting held Monday evening. Robt. D. Rogers was re-elected clerk. Following the school meeting W. J. McLaren, social welfare worker of Portland, addressed the patrons of the school on law enforcement in Clackamas county. Following this refreshments were served by members of the Parent-Teacher association.

EAGLE CREEK

Mrs. R. B. Gibson

Mrs. Ray Woodle, son Leslie, and Mrs. R. B. Gibson were calling on Mrs. Roy Douglass last Tuesday afternoon.

H. S. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gibson, Mrs. Fred Hoffmeister and son Victor, were Estacada visitors last Wednesday.

Eagle Creek Grange held its regular meeting at the Grange hall last Saturday. But, owing to the busy season, there was a very small attendance. After partaking of a fine dinner, a short business session was held, the topic, "Peski", was discussed during lecture hour.

Henry Udell and family and Mrs. Iva Parks were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoffmeister Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Douglass and children and Robert Moehuke motored to Shuebel, Sunday and spent the day and Robert Moehuke motored to Mr. Moehuke's birthday and his children came home in honor of the occasion.

Mrs. Viola Douglass, Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglass, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglass, daughter Florice, and Ed. Chapman, Fred Hoffmeister and family attended the strawberry festival given by Mr. and Mrs. Will Bell of Sandridge, Saturday evening and all reported a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Haley and Mr. and Mrs. Pleas Douglass were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoffmeister, Sunday.

Mrs. Nora Reid and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wilcox and children were calling on H. S. Gibson Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Viola Douglass, Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglass, Ed. Chapman and Mrs. R. B. Gibson were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglass Sunday.

The school meeting of District No. 50 was held at the school house Monday night, to elect a clerk and a director. H. S. Gibson, clerk and Fred Hoffmeister, chairman of the board, going out of office.

Mrs. Roy Douglass was elected clerk and R. B. Gibson was elected director.

LOWER HIGHLAND

Mrs. Dan Fellows

Mrs. E. S. Holmes and daughters are visiting in Washington for a few weeks.

Mrs. Amanda Creason has returned home from for the summer. She has been working down near Astoria.

Miss Van Hook is visiting with the Voks family.

Miss Helen Staub is staying in Portland for a few weeks at the home of her grand mother, Mrs. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cola visited with Mr. and Mrs. Rambo last Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Fellows and son Stephen and Mrs. Amanda Creason and daughter Blanche called on Eli Fellows last Sunday.

Wool Shipment Commenced

On Thursday, June 22, all members of the Pacific Wool Growers Association delivered their wool at Beaver Creek to be taken by truck to the company's ware house in Portland.

The stork flew over our heads last week and landed at the Oregon City hospital, leaving a son for Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Grossmiller. Both mother and son getting along nicely.

CLARKES

Albert Gasser

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marshall left for an extended visit to Canada. They had a farewell party Sunday before their departure. Everybody wishes them a good time and safe arrival home again.

Mr. Marshall came from Canada more than 30 years ago and settled in our neighborhood.

He made a success here in farming. The aged couple had a longing to see their old homes again and so their long felt wishes are to become a reality.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Cummings and family from Hillsdale, Oregon, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schewie last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodman from California visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Goodman last week.

Jake Gard visited Oregon City last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Berger and son, also Mrs. Lizzie Rinzo transacted business last Friday at Oregon City.

Mr. Fred Lindan was a Portland visitor last Friday.

Claude Bottemiller is driving truck for Molharke Bros.

Mrs. Libbie Lee visited her sister Miss Grace Sager last Sunday.

Alva Gard from Eastern Oregon is visiting his parents John L. Gard and family for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Elmer and Mrs. Brookes visited W. H. Bottemiller and family last Sunday afternoon.

A. L. Amerine is working on W. H. Bottemiller's new barn.

Walter Lee and Miss Dora Wallace of Oregon City were out in Clarkes last Sunday.

Albert D. Lee from Oregon City is visiting at the home of Geo. Rogers and family for a few days.

A. L. Amerine and son Richard were in Oregon City last Friday.

Born to the wife of Chas. Ralph, a baby girl on June 6th, Mrs. C. Ralph was formerly Miss Ida Bottemiller of Clarkes.

Chas. and Theodore Marshall are working for their brother John Marshall in the sawmill.

Kenneth Bottemiller was in Oregon City last Friday.

Herman Buche is working for Hult Bros. of Colton in the sawmill.

B. Sullivan made a business trip to Portland last Friday.

Potato Demonstration Held

County agent, Holt was out here last Monday morning explaining potato diseases. A large crowd was present and learned something they will not forget. The demonstration started at Mr. Marshall's place.

Albert Gasser and sons Otto and Silvan were at Oregon City and Carver last Monday.

STAFFORD

M. A. Gage

A fire started in Mr. Kellar's woods and burned about 40 cord of his wood but by strenuous effort the fire fighters saved as much more and prevented it doing further damage.

Charles Thompson was buried in the Stafford cemetery on Tuesday

CARUS

John Lehman

Friday afternoon, about 4, Mr. A. R. Sheppard and family met with very hard luck. Their home was completely destroyed by a fire that started in the flume. The furniture and articles were mostly all saved from the raging flames.

Melinn Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stewart of Carus, has gone to O. A. C. where he is attending summer school for two weeks. This year he won first prize on his stock hog, entitling him to this trip. Melvin has been doing splendid work in the Boy's and Girl's Club.

Fred Spangler is improving his home with a new roof. Tom Davis of Beaver Creek is helping.

Mr. E. C. Brown, one of our prune kings, has made a trip to Iowa where he is going to visit relatives and friends. Mr. Brown will not return until after harvest.

Reed Jagger of this community was a Beaver Creek customer one day last week.

The Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. Erich Fisher last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Seni Russell and daughter, Myrtle from Portland attended the Childrens Day program and were guests at the Weiser home.

The following were Oregon City customers last week: Miss Gertrude Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. Beach, Mr. Tom Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fisher, Mrs. Spangler, daughters Virginia and Helen and neice Jane Yergen and Mr. Carl Caseday.

A pelasant surprise was tendered John Stier last Wednesday evening when a group of his friends called unexpectedly at Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fisher's home. The following were there: Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Fisher, Mrs. Stier, Mrs. Herman Fisher, Paula, Lena, Ruth and Ray Fische, John Lehman Gertrude and Emily Griffith, Richard Guillian, Earl Davis, Adrian Jones, Delores, Doris and Lester Witherbe, Katherine and Hugie O'Leary, Arvel Beach and Mr. and Mrs. Achilles and daughters Mildred and Marion.

Last Sunday Carus played ball at Clackamas with Clackamas. The score was 16-7 in favor of Carus.

Mr. John Evans Sr. of Hazeldale, died at his home Saturday morning. Mr. Evans has been residing in Hazeldale for many years also has been ill for a long time. The services were held at the Carus M. E. Church, Tuesday and the remains were taken to Canby for burial.

last. He had been our Deputy County assessor for many years and his kindly presence is missed by many old residents of this part of the county but his mantle has fallen we trust upon a worthy successor in the person of his son who has been appointed in his fathers place.

Harry Elligsen of Stafford and Miss Maud Davis of Oregon City were quietly married at the Methodist parsonage on Tuesday the 13th and took a trip to Tillamook beach, returning on Saturday evening and relatives and friends to the number of 50 met at the home of the groom's parents and gave them a hearty reception. Music, readings, good advice to the happy pair filled the evening. Ice cream and lemonade were served.

A. M. Brook, who lived alone, on the old Evans place, was found dead in his house. He will be buried on Tuesday.