Eid-Bladom Wedding

At 8 o'clock last Tuesday evening at the home of the brides parents, 44.7 East 21st Street, East Portland, the wedding bells rang out with melodious tones, announcing the marriage of Clarence Eld of Canby, and Miss Charlotte Bladom of Portland.

Attending the bride were Miss Mildred Boon of Portland and Miss Florence Gill of Gresham. The groom's attendants were his brother, Melvin Eld, and the brides brother, Herbert Bladom. The wedding march played by Mrs. L. V. Crain of Portland festooning tower offering by Miss Carol Crain of Portland, an impressive ring ceremony by Rev. Stanford Moore of Salem, son of Rev. Boyd Moore of Canby, and the song "Oh Promise Me" by Avon Jesse of Canby, constituted the program which united in marriage these promising young people, who, after a few days spent at Seaside, are to return and make Canby their future home.

At the close of the ceremony the guests were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bladom, parents of the bride; in a bounteous repast. A large number of friends and relatives, were present, to kiss the bride and congratulate the groom, and wish them a long and happy sojourn together through their united kingdom of married bliss. Young Mr. Eld is a son of John Eld of the Canby Hardware Co. of Canby, and is one of our hopeful young men. He is an ex-service man, our city recorder, and engaged with his father in the hardware business of our city. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bladom, prominent and respected citizen of East Portland and was one of our respected teachers in the Canby Grammar School last year.

The Canby citizens wish for them, a happy life, plenty of good hard, wholesome work, abundant success, and a long useful career.

CANBY AFTER THE BUSES

The Canby city council has passed first reading an ordinance providing for charge of franchise fee for all buses stopping in Canby. The amount of the fee has not yet been set, but action in this connection will be taken at the next meeting of the council board July 3.

Forty Years Clerk of Canby Schools This is the record of Mr. William Knight, honorable citizen of Canby, now eighty five years of age, who let his "Mantle" fall upon his young nephew, Mr. A. H. Knight, at the school board meeting last Monday night. It is a record of which any citizen might well be proud.

Mr. Knight was born in Alleghany County, Penn., April 17, 1839. Came to Oregon by Ox train, in company with his parents and a large colony of home seekers in 1863. He arrived in the Willamette valley in 1865 and moved onto a preemption claim, at a point now called Canby.

Mr. Knight improved his homestead and had his continuous residence upon it up to this time. He served four years as sheriff of Clackamas county, was post master, store keeper and railroad agent. He has seen Canby grow from a farming section to a city of paved streets and modern equipments.

In 1870 he was elected clerk of the Canby school and except for a period of ten years while engaged as County sheriff, merchant and R. R. agent, has served the community, in this capacity continuously.

He was married in 1875 and has raised a family of five children, all of whom passed through the Canby school during the years of his clerkship.

Sandy Has Many Fine Books in Library

Sandy has a well assorted collection of library books from the state library, seventy-five in number, consisting of adult and juvenile fiction, works of travel, biography, etc. They have been placed in Scales' store and are in charge of the Woman's Club. The library will be open every Tuesday from two until five in the afternoon and from 7:00 until 8:30 in the evening. A competent woman will be in charge and any one may procure books at that time, or at other times by applying to a member of the Woman's Club.

"I am the recorder of the ages. I speak every language under the sun, and enter every corner of the earth. I bring information, inspiration and recreation to all mankind. I am the enemy of ignorance and slavery; the ally of enlightenment and liberty. I am always ready to commune with man, to quicken his being, to spur him on, to show him the way. I treat all persons alike, regardless of race, color or creed or condition. I have power to stretch man's vision, to deepen his feeling, to better his business and to enrich his life. I am a true friend, a wise counsellor and a faithful guide. I am as silent as gravitation, pliant and powerful as the electric current, and enduring as the everlasting hills. I am the book."

The Junior pupils of Mrs. Donna Eason gave their last recital of the season on Wednesday afternoon, June 21. Mary Junker-Clinefelter, soprano soloist, assisted.

The program consisted of twelve memory selections played by the little folks. Mrs. Clinefelter sang "By the Waters of Minnetonka" and an encore "Which", composed by Mrs. Eason, and words by Mrs. J. M. C. Miller. Lucille Dodson and Kenneth Scales played two selections composed by themselves. These selections were the result of a years course in notation and elementary harmony.
