Young Miss Entertains
Helen Scott entertained a number of her friends at her home in Sandy on the afternoon of July 11th, from three until five, the occasion being her fourteenth birthday. A number of nice presents were received. Dainty refreshments were served to the following: Johnnie Shelley, Lucile Dodson, Richard Moroney, Loyed Maybe, Helme Dittler, Arthur Frace, Mabel Frace, James and Nora Kesterson, Margaret, Mildred and Ruth Barnett, Ruth Esson, Winnifred Glockner, Kenneth Scates, Laura Hoffman, Arietha Proctor and Helen Scott.

Entertainment Pleases
The Morris quartet, billed as "The Rocky Mountain Warblers", entertained a fair sized crowd at the M. E. church Thursday evening. This quartet, consisting of three young men and an older one, are able, versatile performers. The program, which consisted of quartettes, solos, readings and selections on various musical instruments was surely appreciated by the audience, and Sandy considers itself fortunate in being among the places favored by these entertainers. Should they ever have a return date, they will undoubtedly play to a capacity house.

Little Miss Beers At Home
Little Lois Beers was "at home" on the afternoon of July 12th at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Beers. Many little friends called during the afternoon bringing remembrances and best wishes on this her fourth birthday. A delicious cake bearing four candles, was the center of attraction. Ice cream and cake were served to the following: Sterps and Mary Eason, Donald, Vernon, Lester and Stanley Dahrus, Margaret and Pauline Bell, Arietha Proctor, Peggie Dodson, Amanda, George and Ruth Perret, Johnnie and Joe Hookes, Shelley, Betty Jean Schmitz and Lois Beers.

Couldn't Speak English.
"Edward," asked a teacher in a school on the East side, "why were you absent from school this morning?"
"Oh, some one stole me coat on me."
"What's that? Stole your coat 'on you?"
"Aw, teacher," interjected Edward's brother. "He's ignorant; he can't talk English. He means some one stole his coat off him."

EDITORIAL
FINANCIAL RESOURCES

The Financial Resources Of A Community Are The Barometer Of Its Prosperity.

Add to these resources and you quicken its advancement. Detract and you proportionately obstruct its progress.

This should evidence to all of us our individual responsibility toward our home town and its people. These people are your friends and neighbors. YOUR INTERESTS ARE KINDRED. Thus you should take no personal action in any community matter without taking into consideration just how it will affect all those living here.

You can safely bet, folks, that every Dollar you remove from the commercial and industrial life of Oregon City deprives just that much employment and vocation from someone who needs it. And when you remove employment and vocation, you will remove from our midst those individuals who are dependent upon it for the sustenance of their homes and families. THIS IS AN ABSOLUTE IRREFUTABLE FACT.

You may think we have enlarged upon this matter, folks, when we refer to your INDIVIDUAL ACTS as being so highly important to the welfare of Oregon City. To the contrary it should make plain the paths that are opened to all of us in extending the co-operation we owe this wonderful community.

To begin with when you need Merchandise or Service—BUY IT IN OREGON CITY. This simple procedure keeps your money at home, banks it here, pays the obligations of our people and thus finds itself on its way back into the channels of local commerce and trade—and even back into your own pocketbook from whence it came.

Stop and think a moment, friends, of the transactions involved in a procedure of this kind. THINK OF THE EMPLOYMENT MADE POSSIBLE in the handling of these Dollars and the business transactions ensuing as a result of keeping them among ourselves.

In contrast, picture in your minds the result of spending or sending these Dollars away from our city. By so doing you have side-tracked in a single action, a substantial portion of our commercial industry and transferred to some distant community assets that are a DISTINCT LOSS TO OREGON CITY AND ITS PEOPLE.

We claim the keeping of our money at home, friends, is the first step in the building of a "real city." And from the standpoint of yourself—should be the easiest. To begin with, MERCHANDISE AND SERVICE IS HERE IN ABUNDANCE. There is not a business man in Oregon City today but who is ready to serve you to your utmost satisfaction both in quantity quality and price.

BEFORE YOU TURN THIS PAGE we want you to glance through the list appended herewith and realize this is so. And they are only part of the entire number who are ready, not only to serve you, but also our community, Oregon City. Think it over.
