CARSON HEIGHTS & CAPITOL HILL Mrs. Geo. Hartman

A wedding of interest to this community, that of Miss Dorothy Boyce, daughter of Mrs. Cloe Boyce, the sister of Mrs. M. Versett, of Collins View. The wedding which took place in Seattle, Washington, Friday, July 14, was a quiet one, with only the immediate relatives present, and afterwards the happy couple returned to Aberdeen, Washington, where the bridegroom has extensive interests in his father's shingle mill.

Mr. and Mrs. David Ewing, of St. Johns, are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a fine baby boy, who weighed 8 1/2 pounds, and who has already been named Conrad Vincent. Mr. Ewing is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ewing, of Collins View.

One of the jolliest parties of the summer, was that given by Mr. and Mrs. W. Wright, last Saturday afternoon, at their lovely home on the Palatine Road, when Mr. Wright, who is in charge of the Billing Department, at the Standard Oil Co., entertained his co-workers, with their wives and families. The afternoon was spent in dancing, music and games. Mr. Acheson rendering some very fine selections upon his saxophone. At five o'clock a sumptuous lunch was served of salad, sandwiches, "watermelon, ice cream, cake and punch. Everyone enjoyed themselves, and heartily endorsed Mr. Wright's resolution to make these gatherings an annual affair. There were about twenty present, and Mrs. Wright took photos.
