that brides appreciate are to be found in abundance at this store. Silver pieces, whose graceful appearance belies their substantial weight, and whose apparent value is far in excess of the price asked. Engraving that is thoroughly in accordance with the character of the establishment at no extra charge. There's a big satisfaction in sending gifts that are sure of a warm welcome and hearty appreciation.

Wilsonville Department

Mrs. Charels Wagner

Mrs. Stout returned from Portland Monday, at which place she has been under the doctor's care. Her many friends will be glad to know that she is convalescing rapidly.

Threshing in this vicinity is under full way and the number of outfits at work will make a short season. Some farmers report a better yield than expected owing to the very dry summer.

Quite a lot of adverse criticism was caused in this community by the summary dismissal of ferryman. Say without warning or cause other than the fact that the present ferryman offered to do it cheaper. Mr. Say contends that he should have been given an opportunity to meet the bid or reject it. A petition in Mr. Say's favor was circulated and plentifully signed, but "the powers that be" remained adamant and Mr. Emil Tauchmann is now the official ferryman.

Mr. Charles Taylor is erecting a two-story poultry house in the north end of town and evidently intends to be equipped in good shape. His enterprise deserves the commendation of the community.

Mr. Henry Aden and family returned Tuesday from a trip to Junction City and a week's vacation. Mr. Aden is contemplating the erecting of a new residence this fall on the site of the one burned some time ago. This will add considerably to Wilsonville's skyline which has quite a gap caused by the big fire.

The writer of these items is fairly well known and easily communicated with. The publishers of this paper are willing and eager to publish the news of Wilsonville. Why not hand in, or inform the local correspondent of any news in your neighborhood. Let's put Wilsonville on the map! What say?

Miss Pauline Bissell of Portland, is visiting her relatives, Sherman and Raymond Seely.

Miss Leah Wagner has accepted the chair of mathematics and general science at the high school of Lebanon. Miss Wagner, by painstaking study and close application, has fitted herself for high school teaching and her many friends wish her success in her chosen field of endeavor.

Among the important things to be disposed of at the next meeting of the Wilsonville Grange will be a chicken dinner. As this is a matter of general interest to all Grangers, it is to be hoped that a good attendance will be recorded. The Wilsonville Grange meets the second Saturday of each month and all visiting Grangers are invited.

Ye Festive Gravel Truck
We've an epidemic of trucks in this town,
And for rain we are hoping with trust,
As they noisily race up and down
And raise such a terrible dust.
They roar and back-fire as they travel,
And frequently something will "bust".
The county roads get all the gravel,
And Wilsonville most of the dust.
But the problems of roads they'll unravel,
As to having good roads—that we must,
If we had a little more gravel
We'd have a little less dust.

OSWEGO
Women's Club Picnic.
The Oswego and Oak Grove Women's Clubs held a joint meeting at Oswego Lake, Friday. The afternoon was spent in discussing business and social topics after the serving of a delicious picnic lunch. At the meeting, Miss Mathews, from Oak Grove, sent in her resignation as Vice-president of the County Federation and Mrs. G. Howard Pettinger of Oswego, was elected in her place. Four delegates from the clubs were also elected to study into the matter of transportation between Oregon City and Oswego.

Annexation Election.
Monday the voters of Oswego and South Town will vote on the incorporation of the entire district into the city of Oswego. In the last few years Oswego has become very progressive and has shown a very rapid growth and there is very little doubt but that the measure will carry. This will combine Old Town and Oswego.

Wood hauling is quite a "fad" in Carus. Mr. Kilgore and Mr. Gwilliam have succumbed to it.

Saturday, Gertrude Griffiths, Evelyn and Margaret Jones were customers at Beaver Creek and afternoon callers at the O'Leary home. Many of our

What Classified Ads Will Do

Everyone has something to buy, sell, rent or trade and in the classified section of the Banner-Courier you have a common meeting ground where the wants of all may be paired off, and each may get what he needs and get rid of what he does not need. Mr. H. E. Reynolds, Route 2, Oregon City, needed 5,000 cabbage plants. A small ad brought offers of over 60,000 plants. What are your needs. There is no better way to reach 2000 people than through Banner-Courier want ads. The cost is small, 1 cent a word with a minimum charge of 25c.
