

LEGAL NOTICES

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Notice of vacation of portion of Third Street, Oregon City, Oregon.

NOTICE is hereby given that a petition signed by the owners of all the real property immediately adjoining the street hereinafter described and of the premises in the blocks next adjacent to said adjoining property, the accessibility to which will be lessened by the vacation of said street, is now pending before the Mayor and City Council of said city of Oregon City to vacate all that portion of Third Street for its full width and extending from the easterly side of Main Street to the easterly side line of the railroad right of way of the Southern Pacific Company as same extends across Third Street in Oregon City. Such vacated area to be subject to and the City of Oregon City reserving therefor and thereon, the right to lay, construct, operate and maintain the present water pipes, conduits, flumes hydraulic and other apparatus as well as new and other pipes, conduits, flumes, hydraulic and other apparatus within the limits but under the surface of said vacated street, at a sufficient depth so as not to interfere with the use of the surface of said vacated street, or with any reasonable use of said vacated area by the industries and property owners to whom the title shall pass on account of such vacation, and provided further that if any such industries or property owners shall make any excavation in said vacated area, the said water pipes, pipes, conduits, flumes, hydraulic and other apparatus shall be duly preserved, safeguarded and protected at the expense of the industry, or property owner making such excavation. Said petition and an ordinance vacating said portion of said Third Street will be considered by the city council of said city at a meeting thereof to be held in the council chamber on the 6th day of September, 1922, at 7:30 o'clock p. m. in a building on Main Street between 7th and 8th streets in said city where the regular meetings of said council are usually held.

Beginning at a point within said main street of road, which is 300 feet southerly from the monument at the intersection of the center line of main street with the center line of Third Street when measured on the center line of Main Street in the City of Oregon City, Oregon and which initial point is at the extreme south boundary or end of the hard surface pavement as the same is now laid on said Main Street; thence following the center line of said Main Street and of said street if extended including the road or highway extending from the southerly terminus of Main Street in a general southerly direction to the city limits of the City of Oregon City, and including the entire width of said street and road and extensions thereof, on each side of, parallel with and adjacent to said center line and from and including the east bank of the Willamette River to and including the easterly boundary line of said Main Street and road, and extending in said southerly direction as aforesaid, and including the entire length and breadth of said street and road as aforesaid to the said southerly boundary line of the city of Oregon City.

The vacation to be subject, however, to the right of the city to lay, construct, operate and maintain the present water pipes, conduits, flumes, hydraulic and other apparatus, as well as new and other pipes, conduits, flumes, hydraulic and other apparatus within the limits but under the surface of said vacated street and road, at a sufficient depth so as not to interfere with the use of the surface of said vacated street and road by the Portland Railway, Light and Power Company, its successors and assigns, or with any reasonable use of said vacated area by the industries and property owners to whom the title shall pass on account of such vacation, and provided further that if any such industries or property owners shall make any excavations in said vacated area, the said water pipes, pipes, conduits, flumes, hydraulic, and other apparatus shall be duly preserved, safeguarded and protected at the expense of the industry or property owner making such excavation, and that such uses reserved shall not interfere with the pedestrian travel over the same and upon and along the strip designated and dedicated for such purpose between Oregon City and the town of Canemah. Said vacated area shall also be subject to and there is hereby reserved unto the public wherein and thereon an easement of the necessary width to accommodate the passage-way for pedestrians only, however, to the present stairway which extends up the bluff and over the right of way of the Southern Pacific

Company to a connection with what is known as the War-Layton county road (which is the proposed scenic highway) at Oregon City, Oregon. The commencement point of such passage-way is on the easterly edge of the established walkway leading from Oregon City to Canemah, and approximately 200 feet southeasterly from the intersection of the center line of Third and Main streets in the city of Oregon City, Oregon. Provided, however, that the use of said passage-way by such pedestrians shall not be inconsistent with the other uses in this notice designated.

Said petition and ordinance vacating said portion of said street and road will be considered by the City Council of said city at a meeting thereof to be held in the council chamber on the 6th day of September, 1922, at 7:30 o'clock p. m., in a building on Main Street between 7th and 8th streets in said city where the regular meetings of said council are usually held.

This notice is published by order of the city council of said city of Oregon City made by resolution duly adopted by said council on the 2nd day of August, 1922.

Dated at Oregon City, Oregon, this 3rd day of August, 1922.

C. W. KELLY, City Recorder of Oregon City, Ore. 8-3-5t.
