Funeral Service Of Newell Niles.

The funeral services of Newell Niles were held at the Christian church Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock, with Rev. G. E. Williams, resident pastor, officiating.

Garland Hollowell sang, "That Sweet Story of Old" and "Asleep in Jesus." "Jesus Loves Me," which was Newell's favorite song, and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," were sung by the children of the Sunday school.

The pall-bearers were Richard Miranda, Kenneth Ross, Wilbur La Salle, and Robert Fox. Flowers were in great profusion. Interment took place in Mt. Scott Park, near his grandfather, the late W. E. Niles, who died November 5th, 1921.

Newell was born in Gladstone March 11, 1916, just six years and six months previous to his death. Because of his sunny disposition, he was a general favorite of the community and leaves scores of friends to mourn his death. He had attended school one week and was deeply interested in his work.

His death occurred Monday evening shortly before seven o'clock, following injuries received when he was struck down and crushed by an auto on the Pacific Highway, near the P. R. L. & P. bridge. The accident occurred shortly after four o'clock Monday afternoon. He was taken to the Oregon City hospital with Dr. Frank Mount in attendance.

He leaves to mourn his loss his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Niles; three brothers, Ernest, Franklin and Berlin; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Gebbe, of Maniwac, Wis.; grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Niles; three aunts and two uncles in Wisconsin; four aunts, Mrs. A. E. Anderson of Kankakee, Ill.; Mrs. B. L. Hagermann of Milwaukee, Ore.; Mrs. R. M. McGeehle, Gladstone; Mrs. J. E. Ham-mack of Portland, Ore.

The southern pine forests since 1900 have supplied more than 50 per cent of its soft wood used in America also nearly all the turpentine and resin. Only one-fifth of the original yellow pine forests remain but if reforestation is begun at once on the proper scale the south can supply America for all time.

DAMASCUS WILL HOLD HARVEST FESTIVAL

A new and interesting feature of the activities planned by the Damascus Farm Bureau this year is an all-day harvest festival, which is to be held on Friday, September 15th at Damascus, in the C. S. Mudge hall.

Splendid exhibits, representing the products of the community, will be on display. Many varieties of grains and grasses, both shelled and in sheaves, fresh and canned fruits, dairy, poultry and household products and many other things of the farm will be tastefully displayed.

The festival will begin at ten o'clock in the morning. Charles L. Woodrum, managing editor of the Oregon State Farm Bureau News, will be the chief speaker, followed by other addresses by prominent speakers and amusements of various kinds.

That characteristic Victrola quality

You get it in these new models. The fact that they are Victrolas insures their musical excellence. The first consideration is faithfulness of reproduction, and the design of these models is determined by their musical requirements—which have been learned through almost a quarter-century devoted solely to the talking machine art.

Come in for demonstration. You owe it to yourself to hear these new Victrolas as well as to see them.
