MT. PLEASANT

We are certainly enjoying this fine weather—makes us feel like we will have springtime again.

Our nurseries are all home—just thinking why we didn't get that deer.

School is all ready for the happy children, and next Monday you will hear their joyous voices. They always sound good to me.

Sure we will all go to the fair.

Mt. Pleasant was well represented at the "jersey picnic" at Cole's on the Molalla Saturday.

Peter Tanzer has traded his place here for a large place at Grant's Pass and will move soon.

Douglas King, who has been employed on coast tankers between Portland and San Pedro, has returned home for school. He will go to Pacific University.

Mt. Pleasant presents a busy place at present, with the road work—four trucks from five in the morning till eight at night, besides one or two hauling cement, one hauling coal and oil and a crew of 40 or 50 men running the mixer and on other work. We certainly feel proud of our good road, and many thanks to the County Court that we are so favored.

Just one word in regard to Mt. Pleasant being the starter of that recall of the county judge. Please don't lay that to Mt. Pleasant. There are only two sore-heads in Mt. Pleasant. Shame on them, and they are backed by one who was recently defeated for county commissioner.
