

Community Life

News From Over CLACKAMAS COUNTY

CLARKES Albert Gasser

Mr. and Mrs. George Hofstetter returned last Saturday from a trip to Tacoma, Wash., where they visited Mr. Hofstetter's brother. They report a very enjoyable trip.

John Leichewels and Albert Schieve transacted business in Oregon City last Friday.

Olto Hofstetter transacted business in Oregon City, Saturday.

Charles and Otto Gasser are picking prunes for Clarkes Bros.

Buola and Truman Hofstetter left recently for Ridgefield, Wash., where they will attend high school.

Miss Elmer has gone to Portland, where she will attend high school.

E. E. Berger was a Molalla visitor last Friday.

W. Clarkes and George Clarkes, and their respective families, were Oregon City visitors on Saturday.

F. and G. Dhooche and Charles Gasser were Molalla visitors on Saturday evening.

School days are here again and the boys and girls have resumed their daily march to the school house.

A number of improvements have been made to the school house, among them being the installation of a new furnace.

We have two new teachers and we hope they will impart to the children some of their wisdom.

Prune picking is in full swing now and will continue for some time.

Mrs. Goodman's mother and sister and sister's husband were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Goodman.

Silo filling has commenced and corn is in good condition for silage.

The regular milk test will be held on Saturday, Sept. 30th.

Mr. and Mrs. John Leichewels and Edward Leichewels were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Marshall.

Many slashings and logged-off areas have been burned during the past few days and this burned over land will be seeded down for permanent pasture.

W. H. Wettlaufer and W. H. Bottelmer were among those who recently burned slashings and seeded the land for pasture.

School is in full swing, but many of the children have been attending the Clackamas county fair.

FROGPOND Mary Liesman

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Oldenstadt and family spent Sunday at Willhoit Springs, where Mrs. Oldenstadt and daughter Mildred will stay a week.

Miss Eva Seeding and Nola Turner spent Sunday with Miss Myrtle Aden.

John Aden, who cut his ankle with an axe last week, is improving rapidly.

Mrs. Esther Toedemeir and family, Mrs. Chris Jones, Mrs. Mayes, Walter Sharp, Mrs. Sharp and Mrs. Thompson, spent Sunday at Mrs. Robbins.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Toedemeir, Alfred Sharp and George Robbins motored to Salem Prairie, Sunday, to visit old friends.

Don't forget the big dance to be given Saturday night in the Grange hall.

Miss Melba Baker and brother Lorin spent the week-end with their grandmother, Mrs. J. L. Kruse.

Mrs. Smith Turner and daughter Nola spent Saturday afternoon with Ernest Kruse.

William Richardson of Portland, spent the week-end with Willard Sharp.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Toedemeir and family spent the week-end with the latter's mother, Mrs. Mayes.

Mrs. John Turner and granddaughter Beryl, spent the week-end with the former's son, A. D. Bowers, of Sellwood.

John M. Turner was a Portland visitor, Saturday.

Myron Biswell, John Bruck, Theodore Burek and Victor Bruck, just returned from deer hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner and daughter Nola, Miss Myrtle Aden and Eva Seeding were in Oregon City, Sunday evening.

The farmers of this community are helping each other fill their silos.

MOLALLA Mrs. A. D. Cow

Mrs. John Aden and daughter Myrtle, spent Sunday visiting relatives in Portland.

Misses Dora, Myrtle and Mildred Oldenstadt spent Wednesday evening with Miss Nola Turner.

Those attending the dance at Tigard, Saturday night, from this community, were: Theodore Woolever, Weslie Woolever, Delbert Johnston, Norman and Howard Turner, Harold and Irvin Sharp and George Oldenstadt.

The school house is now finished, except for the painting, and school began Monday. The teacher for this year is Miss Margaret Thompson of Tualatin.

Mrs. Ed. Sharp and Erma Robbins spent Wednesday in Oregon City.

Miss Aura Robbins started at West Linn union high school, Monday.

Hop picking is now over and the hop-pickers are home again.

Miss Myrtle Aden spent Friday night with Miss Nola Turner.

Those who have been spending the week at the coast are: Mr. and Mrs. George Aden and family, John Aden, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Nicholson, and Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Wagner.

Miss Myrtle Oldenstadt spent Monday in Oregon City.

Those attending the freshman reception at the West Linn high from this community, were: Nola and Norman Turner and Theodore Woolever.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Barney and daughter Reta, visited at Ed. Sharp's, Saunday.

Mrs. Henry Toedemeir and family spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Mayes.

Mr. Messenger and Mrs. Warner spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Alfred Sharp.

WILLAMETTE Beulah Snidow

Mr. and Mrs. George Batdorf and daughter Marian, and Mrs. Jean Williams and daughter Naomi, motored to Willhoit Saturday morning and stayed until Sunday evening.

Mrs. C. O. Williams, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bay-singer, at McMinnville, for the past ten days, returned home last Thursday.

Miss Florence Morgan left Sunday for Beaver Creek, where she has accepted a position teaching school.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Greaves and children, Lydia and Harold, attended the state fair, Monday.

A silve tea was given at the home of Mrs. W. W. Davis, last Thursday, by the members of the Ladies' Aid. Those present were: Mesdames E. Carpenter, John Casey, Amelia Martin, Clem Dollar, F. Bennett, C. Montgomery, A. Fromong, J. Ream, C. B. Wilson, A. P. Taylor, J. L. Gray, N. Whitney, E. Leisman, H. E. Wallis, J. Ream, Sr., H. Leisman, J. H. Cox, J. Thornburg, G. J. Prahl, G. L. Snidow, A. McLean and Lucy Mathers, and Misses Helen and Mamie Wallis and Myrle Leisman.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Elliott and Miss Avis have returned to their new home in Oregon City.

Mitchell Pendo left Sunday for his home at Lead, S. Dak., after spending several weeks here visiting friends.

Mrs. Martin and Mrs. S. B. Shadle entertained at the home of Mrs. Martin Sunday, Sept. 17, the occasion being the birthday anniversaries of Joseph Martin, 82 years old, and of Elias Blair Shadle, Jr., who is five years old. The dining table was centered with red carnations and a large birthday cake. The children's table was decorated with pink geraniums and white candytuft. After the dinner games were arranged for the children and a happy time was enjoyed by all. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gary, Margaret and Everett Gary, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Shadle, Misses Letha, Catherine and Virginia Shadle, Mrs. Martin and the two guests of honor, Mr. Martin and Blair Shadle.

Mrs. Dale Skinner and children have gone to Dayton to visit Mrs. Skinner's mother.

Misses Anne and Grace Hendrickson of Astoria, and Miss Dorothy Ward of Estacada, visited Miss Audrey Tuor, Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley Denton visited Mrs. Hughes in Gladstone, last week.

Blair Shadle entertained his cousins at dinner on September 20th, the occasion being his fifth birthday. The remainder of the evening was spent in games. Those present were: Gerald and Dorothy Dady, Harold and Lydia Greaves, Kenneth Montgomery Leatha, Catherine, Virginia and Blair Shadle.

The primary department of the Sunday school extends an invitation to all children, from four to eight years old, to come to Sunday school, October 1st. The graded lessons are to be commenced then and the Sunday school is anxious that all the children benefit by the study of these lessons.

Miss Elva Snidow of Hot Springs, S. Dak., is visiting at the home of her uncle, G. L. Snidow.

CHERRYVILLE Parnell Averill

The rock crusher at Wild Cat Creek, three miles east of Cherryville, is now ready for operation.

William Lampen, who has been working on the Mt. Hood loop road for J. W. Dixon, recently underwent an operation for appendicitis. He is recovering nicely.

Jimmie Joinsrud, while returning home from the shingle mill recently, saw four deer. They were so unafraid that they stood and gazed at him for some time.

Dr. Dotkin recently captured a fine wild goose, which had been injured in one wing and was forced to alight at his place.

Mr. Davis and wife of Portland, were Cherryville visitors, last Sunday. While here they inspected their poultry ranch, which is in charge of Henry Gibson. They have at present over 300 Lehigh pullets and next year they expect to have over 1,000.

Dr. Walter Botkin and wife of Gresham, visited with relatives near Cherryville, last Sunday. Dr. Botkin's grandson, Harold Graham, of Portland, who has been receiving vocational training from the government, has been selected from a large number of disabled war veterans to go to New York city and continue his studies there. Harold saw extensive service, both in the world war and on the Mexican border.

Julius Lensch and family, of Portland, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beldenstein. Mr. Lensch is a Portland business man.

MOLALLA Mrs. A. D. Cow

The Molalla schools have opened with a good attendance. The growth of the school has made it necessary to add two new teachers—one in the grades and one in the high school. Three new rooms have been added and several other improvements made. A reception was held Friday evening, for the purpose of having the teachers become acquainted with the parents. A nice program was given and refreshments were served by the high school girls.

Mr. and Mrs. James, who reside near Salem, visited at the Claude Marsh home, Sunday.

The Canby fair was well attended by Molalla people, Thursday. School was closed so the children could attend.

Mrs. Albert Shomaker left for Grant's Pass recently, where she will reside in the future.

Several new houses are being built in Molalla—one by Grover Fredrickson, and Dr. Todd is erecting a small but attractive house, near his own residence.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Oglesbee of Suver, Oregon, spent the week-end at the home of George Blatchford. Both families motored over the Columbia highway, Sunday.

Ed. Wood and daughters, Doris and Esther, motored to Hood River, Wednesday, where they expect to work in the apple orchards this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Courter returned, Thursday, from the hop yards near Salem, where they have been for the past month.

James Kennedy returned from Salem, Saturday.

Rev. S. J. Kester has moved his family to a Crandall house, where they will reside until the parsonage at Clackamas is ready, where Rev. Kester will take up a new pastorate.

Lester Evon motored to Kelso, Wash., on a business trip, Monday.

R. P. Johnson and Chester Gibson motored to Salem, Wednesday, on a business trip.

Miss Alma Courter returned home from Salem, Saturday, where she has been for the past month.

Mrs. M. J. Walsh of Portland spent a few days the past week at the Prehn home.

Born, Thursday, Sept. 21, to Mr. and Mrs. L. Evon, a son.

Earl Davidson, who has been living in Molalla the past summer, moved to Portland, Monday.

Miss Hope Worley is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Worley.

Mrs. W. T. Ehard spent last week with her daughter, Mrs. Hugh Rundell, at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Reneses motored from Oak Grove and spent Sunday at the Newman home.

J. G. Smalling and Herbert Landers of Livingston, Mont., passed through Molalla last week on their way to California.

Albert Moshberger had the misfortune to cut the two front fingers of his left hand nearly off. Dr. Hume attended him and he is getting along nicely.

Miss Hazel Bowman, who was seriously hurt in a runaway accident recently, has come home from the hospital and is recovering nicely.

W. F. Avison has moved into the Miller residence, which he recently purchased from the F. C. Miller estate.

CANBY Dr. John Fuller

Among the first quality display of farm, garden and orchard products was that of the Warner Grange, the Rosemont Community Club and the community display of Canby and vicinity.

The floral display was perfectly beautiful and showed both skill and taste possessed by the contributing parties, and back of all, the thrift and genius of the growers; and still further, the wonderful climate and soil in which they grew. Judging the tree by its fruit, Clackamas county soil is O. K. when worked.

Miss Ted Gloss, who lives near Aurora, won first prize in the first running horse race, Thursday, receiving seventy dollars from the fair association stewards. Miss Gloss buys and trains her own horses for special occasions. Some stunt for a sixteen-year-old girl.

J. C. Kaupisch of Canby was, as usual, in his booth with his fine display of vegetable products from six city lots. He received forty-six blue ribbon awards on his products. The bulk of his stuff goes to Salem.

Under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church, Mrs. L. H. Wang, acting as chairman, directed a lunch counter service at the Clackamas county fair last week. She reports a good business with substantial financial returns to the society.

Canby grammar school was given a holiday on 1st Friday to give the pupils a chance to attend the county fair.

The largest hog ever seen in this corner of the earth, was the huge, 600-pound Duroc, called "Jumbo Sensation," on exhibition at the fair. This big brute is owned by Geo. De Bok and is about six feet long and as big otherwise as a hog could grow and have the truth told about it. It will be taken to the state fair to show those who are "from Missouri" that Clackamas county is on the map.

LOCALS

An interesting game of baseball was played on the Canby diamond last Sunday, in which Canby won over Stafford. The score was three to one.

Canby high school opened last Monday. The same teachers previously selected for the union high school were accepted as tutors for the coming year.

The union high school movement having received a temporary set-back because of some legal entanglements, will again be before the people for a final decision in the spring.

While riding in the motorcycle races at the county fair last Thursday, Fred Schimpf of Oregon City lost control of his machine and was thrown thru the outside fence, sustaining several cuts and bruises about the fact and arms. Medical aid was rendered by Dr. Dedman.

FLOURS AND FEEDS

Retailed at Wholesale Prices

Mulino Flour Mills Mulino, Oregon.

GLADSTONE

Alice Freytag

Mrs. Harvey Wilson and son Parker, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Legler and daughter Mildred, motored to Hillsboro, Sunday, where they were the dinner guests of Mr. Legler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Legler.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Riley and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Baxter spent the week-end in Salem and Monmouth. The trip was made in the Baxter machine.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Rowan had as their guests, last week-end, Mr. and Mrs. John Etter, Miss Vivian Etter and Glenn Etter, of Salem.

Mrs. Albert Roake of Oregon City was the guest of Mrs. Clyde Green, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. McGetchle had as their guests, Saturday and Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hammack and son Egbert, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Meyer, Mrs. Hattie Pecht, of Oregon City, Mr. and Mrs. R. Freytag and Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Freytag, attended the state fair, Tuesday.

F. B. Hayward and B. L. Beard returned Sunday from a four days' hunting trip near Tiller, Ore. Mr. Hayward shot a three-point buck the second day out.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Todd and son Junior, of Forest Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Todd, of Portland, were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Hayward and family, and Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Beard and family, attended a birthday dinner, Sunday, given in honor of J. Vigellus, father of Mrs. Hayward and Mrs. Beard. Other guests were: John Vigellus, John Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. William Vigellus.

The high school girls' sewing circle met at the home of Mrs. G. E. Williams, Monday evening. Present were: Dorothy Fox, Leona Fox, Mabelle Whitcomb, Grace Owens, Mildred Kyler, Verma Miranda, Matilda Hayward. The next meeting will be at the home of Grace Owens, next Monday evening, at 7:30.

The state library books are being packed and will be exchanged for new books as soon as all state books are returned. The librarians have requested patrons of the library to return these books as soon as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore, who have been residing on West Clarendon St., have purchased the Steiner home on East Arlington street.

Mrs. H. E. Cross entertained with a luncheon, Friday, in honor of Mrs. P. K. Hammond of Ashland. Mrs. Hammond is a guest at the home of her son, William Hammond. Mrs. Cross was assisted in entertaining by her daughters, Mrs. E. N. Good and Mrs. W. Dryden. Covers were laid for seven.

The boys of the Christian church met at the church, Friday evening, and organized an athletic club, which will be known as the Victory Boys' Athletic Club. Rev. G. E. Williams will be their leader. Officers elected were: Robert Ellis, president; Wayne Vedder, vice-president; Melvin Carothers, secretary; Floyd Carothers, treasurer. Other members are: Benin Niles, Elmo Eby, Theodore Langley, Lacy and Raymond Wallace.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Legler are entertaining at cards this evening. The guests are members of a card club of Portland. The invitation list included: Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Myers, Mr.

UPPER HIGHLANDS Mrs. C. C. Kandle

Our Sunday school accepted the invitation extended by the Lower Highlands Sunday school to meet with them Sunday, October 1st, so our program for Rally Day will be postponed until October 8th.

Mrs. Phil Wetmore and children are visiting relatives at The Dalles.

Miss Annie Schmidt, of Portland, spent the week-end at the home of her parents.

Mrs. L. Martin and daughter, Mrs. Joe Wallace, of Oregon City, motored to Prosser, Wash., recently, where they spent the week-end.

Joe Schmidt was a business visitor in Oregon City, Monday.

John Hanhart is nursing an injured finger, as a result of getting it crushed between some ties at the mill.

Geo. Andrews and Ellis Graves left last week for southern Oregon on a hunting trip.

Mrs. C. Delmas of Colton visited at the M. E. Kandle home, on Friday.

James Hanhart has purchased a new truck and is hauling lumber for the Skidmore sawmill.

C. W. Wanecka and son Frank were Portland visitors, Tuesday.

The Upper Highland literary society held a meeting Wednesday evening, and a fine program was rendered.

Mrs. H. Weiss and children of Portland visited G. Fonander and family on Saturday.

Mrs. Chestlik is spending this week with her mother, Mrs. Fonander.

Moonslime stills are responsible for not less than 25 per cent of the fires in the forests of the Pacific Northwest, according to reports. These stills are usually located in inaccessible places in the woods, where the dry timber and brush will take fire from the smallest spark and get beyond control before the fire-fighting forces discover the smoke. Unmistakable evidence of moonslime has been found in the newly burned areas.

The average life of a $5 bill is ten months through the country as a whole, and but eight months in dense centers of population.

MASON

HEAVY DUTY CORD

Oversize
30x3 1/2	$18.75
32x4	24.50
33x4	24.70
34x4	25.35

New Standard Size

30x3 1/2	11.30
Also 30 x 3 1/2 and 31 x 4	straight sides.

Goodrich motorcycle and bicycle tires.

North-West Tire Co.

Warren & Blodgett, Prop. 407 Main St. Oregon City

"Keep to the Right" on Pay Days--

EVERY pay-day brings you to a fork in the road, either you go right and save something or go wrong and spend it all. "Keep to the right." It's the regular saver—the fellow who puts by something from each month's pay envelope—who finally makes his mark. Why not put yourself on your own pay-roll and just as regularly as you get paid by your employer, pay yourself a salary in the form of a Savings Deposit?

STOKES MOTOR CO. ORGANIZED FORTY-ONE YEARS AGO

"Your Money Back and a New Pair of Shoes Free" To the Wearer Who finds PAPER in the Heels, Soles or Counters of a Pair of PETERS DIAMOND BRAND SHOES. SHOES WITH THE DIAMOND TRADE MARK ON THEIR SOLES

SOLD LEATHER SHOES.

We stand squarely behind each sale with a "money-back" warrant of quality because we know our shoes are Made Right and Sold Right— are solid leather throughout, and will give good, honest wear.

Why Take Chances When You Know Where You Can Buy Good Shoes?

High in Quality; Low in Price.

BANNON & CO., Sole Agents.

Solid Leather—Strongly Put Together.

'Say it with Flowers'

Announcing A Substantial Drop in Prices on Our Entire Line—

Overland		Willys-Knight
Roadster	$666	Roadster	$1455
Touring	$666	5-pass. touring	$1455
Coupe	$960	Coupe	$2075
Sedan	$1050	Sedan	$2235
Maxwell		7-pass. touring	$1675
Roadster	$1050	Chalmers
Touring	$1050	Roadster	$1395
Coupe	$1435	Touring	$1395
Sedan	$1550

These cars can be bought at 25 per cent down, balance 12 months. We carry parts for these makes of cars, and give SERVICE on same.

STOKES MOTOR CO. 1114 Main St. Oregon City Phone 750