

SCRAPPING OF SHIPS PROCEEDING SLOWLY AT PRESENT

United States Busily Engaged Breaking Up Battleships Halts In Surprise

With the rumblings of war in the far east and the possible entry of Europe, the subject of armament involuntarily forces itself upon public attention.

Universal service maintained by the government is the medium thru which it has become known that neither of the other nations, parties to the "war holiday" program, have kept pace with this nation in the destruction of ships.

This information has brought to a halt the activity of this country and thru the war department the information has been obtained to the effect that American ships already scrapped were of no vital effect but rather a hindrance to the navy.

The Japanese have taken off guns from some ships scheduled for scrapping, but have not dismantled them. Several of the ships under the agreement with the other powers are to be transformed into other than war-purpose ships.

Great Britain has sold some of her ships scheduled to come under the disarmament plan and placed some others out of commission.

The whole matter of disarmament seems now at a standstill.

PORTLAND CENTER U. OF O. OPENS YEAR

The Portland Center of the University of Oregon commenced its work Monday with a larger and more varied program of courses than heretofore. There are 80 courses in 36 different subjects, and the classes, with a few exceptions, will be held in Lincoln high school.

The College of Literature, Science and the Arts will offer courses in American, English and general literature, economics, theology, health education, history, philosophy, psychology, citizenship, public speaking, sociology, etc. Of particular interest this year are the many language offerings, among them French, Spanish, Italian, Russian, Hebrew, Greek, Danish, Norwegian, Swedish and German.

The School of Architecture and Allied Arts offers courses in history of art, crafts, methods, representation, sculpture, drawing, graphic statics and structural design. Music will include classes in harmony, composition, history and appreciation, public school methods, practice teaching and directing.

Courses in education, science and business administration will also be offered. The university office, 652 Courthouse, will send catalogues upon request.

NATION'S APPLE CROP INCREASE OVER 1921

The commercial apple crop of the country for this year is estimated at an increase of 50 per cent over that of last year.

An unusual amount of worm damage, small sizes and "brown spot" have, however, materially reduced the crop in Oregon. These defects are attributed to the character of the growing season. The warm nights thru a long season were favorable to the codling moth and "worm stings." The hot season affected the crop also.

In the "Rogue River district" this is the "off year." Hood River has only about 90 per cent of last year's production, while in most of the other apple counties the crop is also lighter than last year.

UNION HIGH SCHOOL

The football game, Friday, between Union High and Hillsboro, was an event of interest to all who attended. Although both teams fought hard, no score was made by either side. Hillsboro substituted players several times, but could not score against good old Union High. The next game will be played at Hillsboro, November 11.

After the game, Friday afternoon, the first year cooking class served the players on both teams with a sumptuous feed.

Friday, the girls' physical training classes decorated the grandstand in blue and white, Hillsboro's colors, and in green and gold, Union's colors. The result added to the looks of the ball grounds.

The following students, who at some time have attended Union High, were present at the ball game Friday, to do their share of the yelling for West Lin: Dempsey, Cowell, Woodson, Smith, Vena Barnes, Dorris Ellis, Blanche Junken and Mrs. Gordon Hammerle, formerly Genevieve Fromong.

The Boys' Glee Club was organized Wednesday, under the instructions of Miss Leathers. About thirty boys turned out. The Cardinal Glee Club will have to work if they don't want to be left in the dust.

Arleigh Reed, former student at West Lin, left Friday for the University of Oregon, where he will resume his studies.

The English V class was sorely disappointed and blue Monday morning, when the sad news came around that Hugh Molton and Harold Rudolph were absent.

Miss Leathers is having her room remodeled and fixed up a bit. Two new showers have been added to the girls' basement rest room. The girls are looking forward the time when some varnish will be applied to their lockers.

As it is the work of the junior class, they are taking the responsibility of the work on the Amplifier. Newspaper work, so the classes have found, is a very interesting study.

To make children familiar with the basis of all real and incontestable prosperity, the city of Wichita, Kansas, is establishing, in its environs, a 30-acre farm, on which high school pupils will be instructed in agriculture.

The production of more than 5,000,000 bales of cotton was prevented by the boll weevil last year.

ETHICS OF TRADE UNION MEMBERSHIP

THE LEGION AND LABOR

(BY THE CO-OPERATIVE EDUCATIONAL LABOR CAMPAIGN ASSOCIATION.)

The question of relationship between the American Legion and American Labor at first blush, would cause one to inquire, how could there be a relationship between the Legion and the American Federation of Labor is an economic and legislative organization? But when one analyzes the purposes of the American Legion and the purposes of the American Federation of Labor, it is not difficult to immediately understand that there does exist a community of interest between the Legion and Labor. Both are essentially fundamental and have much to do with the promotion, as well as the safeguarding of the Republic of the United States, and of the spirit of real Americanism.

The American Legion has said that it proposes to contribute its collective influence and organization strength in the furtherance of education. It has declared that it will not be satisfied so long as there exists one illiterate person within the Republic of the United States. In taking this position the Legion has endorsed one of the most important planks, if not the most important, in the platform of the American Federation of Labor, because the latter organization has been one of the moving spirits for nearly half a century in the promotion of education and in the struggle to eliminate illiteracy in America. The American Federation of Labor is the father of the free school system, the compulsory education law and the free school book program. Thus it will be observed that these two great American institutions—the Legion and the Federation—are brought into contact and community interest as a result of their joint approval of the great campaign for better educational facilities for all of the people of our Republic. This relationship is stable and is one that will endure against any efforts to divide them.

A MESSAGE TO LABOR

After pursuing the past history of our government and observing its present operation, one's faith is unshaken that the workers of America in all walks of life have it in their hands to save this country and to preserve its free institutions for the benefit of all the American people. Unless the present generation miserably fails, the cause of true representative government is as secure in this crisis as in the times of Jefferson, Jackson and Lincoln.

In this struggle the workers' weapon is the ballot. It is an effective and all powerful weapon. Welded with intelligence for a righteous cause, it cannot fail to win.

We must shun, as we would the plague, all who counsel resort to force and violence. The overthrow of government by violence will gain the worker nothing but additional hardship and suffering for himself and family. If the American people do not have sufficient intelligence to secure and hold control of government thru the ballot, they would not have the intelligence to retain the control of government if they were to secure that control by force.

The ballot can be used as effectively today as it was used in the other great crises of our history. Now, as never before, the masses of the American people enjoy the greatest opportunity for effective political action. The problems confronting our country—monopoly control of industry and credit, the granting of special privileges through excessive tariffs, ship subsidies, railroad guarantees and gratuities, the sheltering of tax dodgers by vicious legislation, the bestowal of special favors and exemptions upon corporations at the hands of the courts, the denial to masses of men of the fundamentals of liberty—one and all may be rightly settled in an orderly and effective manner only through political action.

If we, the workers of this country, will live up to our traditions and use the political power in our hands, these problems will be settled and settled rightly, in full accord with the underlying principles of our government.

THE LABOR MOVEMENT

That so long as a man shall live and have his living, so long as there shall live in the human heart a desire for something better and nobler, so long as there is in the human mind the germ of the belief in human justice and human liberty, so long as there is in the whole make-up of man a desire to be a brother to his fellow man, so long will there be the labor movement.

It expresses all of the struggles of the past, all the sacrifices and bitterness that the human family has tasted in its experiences. The movement embraces all the tenderness of the human family, all of its hopes and all its aspirations for the real liberty of mankind.

The labor movement is founded on the bedrock of opposition to wrong. It is based on the aspiration for right. We must each and all of us co-operate with the best that is within us to make the labor movement strong and powerful and influential, and that it may grow day by day. And the day that comes shall see for it a better and brighter path than the day that has gone, and open up a vista of light and life and happiness for the house and fireside and the wife and children. And that the burdens of labor shall be lighter and man shall be a brother to his fellow man.

Congress Helps Oregon

The 67th Congress, among other things, has passed the following acts that are of direct benefit to Oregon, reports Senator Robert N. Stanford. Early in the present congress the life of the war finance corporation was extended and its powers enlarged to permit loans for the benefit of the agricultural interests.

Under this enlarged power of the war finance corporation made advances to Oregon financial institutions as follows: To banks and other financial institutions, $2,334,101.00. To livestock loan companies, $2,738,539.00. Total, $5,072,640.00. The advances or loans relieved the banks from a severe strain on account of paper that could not be paid by the makers at maturity, because of the demoralized condition of the markets, and carried the farmers over to another crop year. These advances, without doubt, saved many banks from closing their doors and many farmers from bankruptcy, if they had been forced to pay their notes at maturity.

How Many Will Give One Dollar? WALTER M. PIERCE is making a gallant fight, almost single handed, to be elected Governor of Oregon. He has no funds to pay the expense of his campaign. The issue he makes is Reduced Taxes, and he promises, if elected, to use every power vested in the Governor to lessen the taxation that now rests so heavily upon the backs of the people. No powerful corporations are behind Pierce; nobody but the plain people. His election depends upon them alone. Don't you feel it your duty to help him in his worthy fight by contributing One Dollar to his expenses? It isn't much for any one to give, but there are many plain people, and if you help a little the battle will be won. It will make a clean campaign and elect a clean man. Please send your dollar today, together with your name and address, and the contribution will be acknowledged by return mail. Putting Pierce in means putting your taxes down! Help Pierce Win!
