

Community Life

News From Over
CLACKAMAS COUNTY

MOLALLA

Mrs. A. D. Cowie

Mrs. John Blitz returned from Portland Saturday.

Earl Shoemaker left Tuesday for Toledo, where he has accepted a position.

Eldon Park came home from California for a few days' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Park.

Mr. and Mrs. David Harmon of Portland, spent a few days last week at the George Blatchford home.

Last Saturday, while driving a team for the Syster Lumber Co., Ed. Utiger was thrown from the wagon and severely injured.

Mrs. Will Phillip and son John went to Oregon City on business, recently.

Miss Ethel Powell, who is employed in Oregon City, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Powell.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Martin, accompanied by their son Roy and daughter Violet were recent visitors at the home of J. F. Brewer. They live at Elma, Wash., and were on their way home from California.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rastal returned Tuesday from a trip through eastern Oregon. They report that the grain crop looks fine in that section.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Highdom, who have been visiting at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. James Love, returned to their home, Wednesday.

The Molalla football boys went to Oregon City, Friday, to play the high school eleven of that place. The score was 55 to 0, in favor of Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Dart returned home Thursday, from an extended trip through California. While there, they visited in Los Angeles and San Francisco. They made the trip by auto and in some places found the roads very bad. On their way home they stopped at Grants Pass and visited with the A. T. Shoemaker family.

Miss Opal Jones, who is working in Oregon City, spent the week-end with her parents.

Miss Neta Cole, who is attending Normal school at Monmouth, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cole.

Miss Reva Everhart, who is attending O. A. C. visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Everhart, over the week-end.

W. H. Everhart held a sale at his place, Oct. 13. He sold his farm machinery, also his stock. Mr. Everhart has rented his farm land.

P. M. Boyles was in Molalla on business a few days last week. He reports that the Cascade China Co. are making white ware with good success.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Leigh passed away at the family home, Friday, October 13. The death was caused by diphtheria.

Thomas Miller and wife have moved to town and rented the Nightengale house.

While painting the roof of the Liberal school house, Will Vick fell and broke a bone in his foot.

The Albright & Holman garage sold two new Fords this week. The purchasers were F. W. Rogers and Victor David, both of Elliott Prairie.

The city of Molalla now has a nice park. The city council, at its last meeting, bought several lots, which, added to those purchased by the Ladies' Civic Club, makes a total of five and a half acres.

Lee Howland has moved to the Miller place, which he has rented.

School was closed the latter part of last week on account of the institute, and the farmers took advantage of the time to dig heir potatoes, while they could get the help of the school children.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Sorenson, who were taken to the hospital at Salem, on account of injuries received in an automobile accident, have recovered sufficiently to return home.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Kinsheo, Wednesday, October 4, a daughter.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. George Settlemier, Tuesday, October 10 a daughter.

J. J. Newton and wife were Oregon City visitors, last Saturday. While there, Mr. Newton attended a regular meeting of Meade Post, No. 2, G. A. R., of which he has long been a member.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Saturday, October 14, a daughter.

PARKPLACE

Mrs. Clara Rosebraugh

W. A. Holmes of Parkplace is having the building near the postoffice and facing the highway remodeled into a bungalow, which will be a decided improvement to the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Brunner and their daughter Katherine made an auto trip, last Wednesday, to The Dalles, Oregon, to visit Mr. and Mrs. Fred Murray. The latter was formerly Miss Laura Brunner of this place.

Mr. Dauchy has erected a small building on the site of the recent fire.

and has resumed his work as blacksmith.

The teachers of Parkplace attended the institute held in Oregon City, last week.

Mrs. Sam Wyrick was a guest, last week, at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. J. Odell, of McMinnville.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Steinbach of Hubbard, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Reames, Sunday, the occasion being the 42nd birthday anniversary of Mrs. Reames.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Brunner have recently purchased twenty-two acres of land at Clackamas Highlands, where they will build a home in the future.

Mrs. H. O. Rosebraugh was a Portland visitor, on Saturday.

The Parent-Teachers' association was called to order for the first meeting of the year by the new president, Mrs. Clara Fraeger, on last Friday afternoon. Committees were appointed and the work outlined for the year. It was voted to tender a reception to the teachers, Saturday evening, Oct. 28.

The new play shed has been completed on the Parkplace school ground and a new flag pole raised.

Mrs. Gillman was a Portland visitor, Saturday.

The Hogg residence on Clackamas Heights is being extensively improved by a large addition and a sleeping porch. Electric lights and a water system will be installed.

Mrs. Stella Anderson of Clackamas Heights is visiting with relatives in Salem.

CLARKES

Albert Gasser

A large crowd from here took in the auction sale at Beaver Creek, last week.

Schreiber Bros. transacted business in Oregon City, last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Griffiths were Portland visitors, last Friday.

Claud and Tenant Bottemiller were Oregon City visitors, last Friday.

Ben Lindau, Otto and Albert Gasser transacted business in Oregon City, last Friday.

Sylvan Gasser visited the dentist at Oregon City, recently.

Thomas Pack of Vancouver, Wash., was a visitor here, last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Kafz visited in Oregon City, last Friday.

The improvement on the Gard road looks fine.

On Saturday last the farm bureau meeting was called to order by E. E. Berger. The regular business meeting was made as short as possible to give C. E. Spence a chance to talk on some of the measures which the voters will consider at the coming election. Mr. Spence explained the downfall of some of the measures which were taken off the ballot. He urged the people to vote on election day instead of staying at home. If every voter would take Mr. Spence's advice, we would soon be on the honest road to betterment.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodman motored to Eugene last Sunday, where they visited with friends.

Truman and Buola Hofstetter of Ridgefield, Wash., where they are attending high school, visited with their parents for several days last week.

FROGPOND

Mary Liesman

Mr. and Mrs. William Burkett were pleasantly surprised Friday night, when a large group of friends and relatives called on them. After a pleasant evening of games, refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. William Burkett, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elligsen, Mr. and Mrs. Steinko Peters and family, Mrs. Swensen, Mrs. Billie Elligsen, Mrs. Otto Peters, Mrs. Julia Peters, Mrs. Mary Selzer, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ridder, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Pamperine, Mr. and Mrs. Smith Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elligsen, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilke, Christina Elligsen, Lena Elligsen, Ruth Elligsen, Agnes Peters, Edythe Peters, Nola Turner, Norman Turner, Rosina Elligsen, Eddie Elligsen and George Oldenstadt.

Tim Murphy of Hamilton, Ore., spent the week-end at the home of Alfred Sharp.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Toedemier and family spent the week-end with the latter's mother, Mrs. Mayes.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Bowers and family of Portland, and George Enderoth, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Turner.

Mr. Woolener and daughter Clarice, spent a few days in Portland, reuniting home Sunday.

Miss Gladys Schawper of Oswego, spent the week-end as a guest at the home of Alfred Sharp.

Those attending Pomona Grange at Beaver Creek, Wednesday, were: Mr. and Mrs. Smith Turner and daughter Nola, Miss Myrtle Aden, Miss Ella Seedling, Mrs. Emma Sharp, Miss Eva Seedling, Irvin Sharp, George Oldenstadt and Dora Oldenstadt.

Emma and Anna Robbins spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Tiedeman. Irvin Sharp was a dinner guest at the home of Frank Oldenstadt, Sunday.

Mrs. Sharp and daughter, Mrs. Murphy, spent Thursday with Mrs. Mayes.

Mrs. Smith Turner and daughter Nola spent Thursday with Mrs. Ernest Kruse.

Friday afternoon a number of ladies belonging to the Grange, met in the Grange hall to decide on further arrangements for the coming bazaar.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elligsen spent Sunday afternoon with Grandma Sharp.

Mrs. Mandy Baker and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Ed. Sharp.

Those attending the Grange fair at Oswego, Saturday, were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elligsen, Mr. and Mrs. Smith Turner, Nola Turner, Myrtle Aden and Dora Oldenstadt.

Mrs. Sharp spent Sunday with Mrs. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Turner and Mrs. Woolener spent Saturday in Oregon City.

Those attending the dance given at Willamette, last Saturday, were: Mr. and Mrs. Smith Turner, Nola Turner, Norman Turner, Myrtle Aden, Gilbert Sharp and George Oldenstadt.

LOWER HIGHLAND

Mrs. Dan Fellows

Mr. and Mrs. Zeigler were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Jackson, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cota were Oregon City visitors, last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Staub were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Blackburn spent the week with their daughter, Mrs. E. S. Holmes.

Frank Rees made a business call at the home of R. W. Jackson, last Sunday.

Nellie Glover visited the Staub girls, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cole have been picking prunes for C. F. Grossmiller.

Jim Rutherford has purchased a Ford car, as has also Calvin Garinger. Dan Fellows was a Portland caller, last Sunday.

Rev. A. J. Ware preached at our church, last Sunday.

CARSON HEIGHTS & CAPITOL HILL

Mrs. Geo. Hartman

S. Graham and son Tommy, F. A. Doern and Mr. Williams spent last Sunday fishing in eastern Oregon, at Badger Creek, and had splendid success.

Mrs. H. House moved into her new home in Portland, last week.

Mrs. G. J. Murray, with her son, has left for an extended trip to Sacramento, where she will visit relatives, in an effort to recover her health.

Mrs. Hazel Lang spent last Sunday visiting her friend and former neighbor, Mrs. Weigel.

E. J. Howard, with his son, and Mr. Reeder, have recently returned from a hunting trip to Netarts, in Tillamook county.

Dick, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Z. Anderson, has been confined to his home by sickness and unable to attend school.

Mrs. George Lewis, who has spent the summer visiting her mother, Mrs. R. Z. Anderson, leaves Sunday for an extended visit to San Francisco, where she has a daughter, two brothers and a sister.

It is with deep regret that the Capitol Hill parent-teachers' association circle learn that their president, Mrs.

Manning Spiker, is about to resign. Mrs. Spiker is obliged to give up the work on account of serious illness in her family.

Elaine Spiker enjoyed a visit from her playmate and friend, Josephine Mayer, of Rose City Park, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Harris, who left Kilpatrick Tract to ranch in Tillamook, have returned to their former home.

Mrs. G. Phillip of Portland is visiting with Mrs. Sims at Collins Vltw.

The following officers were elected at the last meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, for the coming year: Mrs. J. V. Patton, president; Mrs. George Smith Brown, vice-president; Mrs. Thomas, secretary and treasurer.

Mrs. Paul Meyers of Capitol Hill is seriously ill, and has been taken to Lents to be under the care of her mother.

The father of Harry Stillwell has been visiting with relatives in Portland for several weeks, and will return to his home in Butte Montana, Saturday.

A meeting of the Capitol Hill parent-teachers' association circle has been called for next Monday afternoon, to make arrangements for a program by Prof. Emil Enna, of Portland, to be given at the school the evening of October 20.

The Girl Scouts, "Dogwood" Troop, of Carson Heights, will hold a cake and candy sale at the Carson Heights church on the afternoon of Tuesday, October 17, from 2 to 5 o'clock. The proceeds will be used to buy uniforms for the troop.

Mrs. Baxter of Northrup Acres, is attending the Benson Polytechnic school taking up the course in millinery.

The Carson Heights Community church is busy planning a musical social for Friday evening, October 27. The Girl Scouts and "Brownies" will participate with ritual work and a splendid program is promised. Fortunes will be forecast by the gipsy fortune teller. Refreshments will be served and all are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Ed. Schwab and her daughter Geraldine, were the guests for the day of Mrs. George Hartman, recently.

The quartet of Mr. Baxter, Mr. Dryden, Mr. Brown and Mr. Patton are rendering some very fine music at the Carson Heights church, and have been invited to sing at the Centenary Willbur, in the near future.

Dr. H. T. Greene, of the Centenary Willbur church, will preach at the Carson Heights church Sunday morning, October 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Klemm, of Carson Heights, are anticipating great pleasure from the purchase of a new motor car.

Mrs. Clarke of Ryan Place, who left a year ago to live at Salem has returned, and is planning on buying a home in Portland, to be near her son.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Graham entertained with a fish dinner, recently. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. F. Hardwick and son, Mr. and Mrs. F. A.

Doern and son, and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Finke.

The state parent teachers' president, Mrs. J. F. Hill, is spending her entire time in the field, speaking before the county teachers' institutes. On October 17, she was the guest of the Morrow county institute at Heppner, where the county superintendent called a mass meeting of all in the county interested in parent-teachers' work.

Everyone throughout this community is rejoicing over the fact that the surfacing of the Boones Ferry and Taylors Ferry roads has been placed on the budget for 1923, by the county commissioners.

WEST LINN

Dennis Kidby

Mrs. George Rutley of Chatham, Ontario, Canada, has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Shanks for a few days. The Rutleys will make their home in Portland in the near future.

Mrs. Chris Crusius arrived home this week, after a visit with relatives in New York.

Miss Zannah Lytsell was unable to attend school Monday, due to a slight illness. She is now better.

Mrs. L. R. Montgomery will stay with relatives in Portland during the coming winter.

Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Johnson are now occupying their new bungalow, near the standpipe.

The Pacific Telephone Company has started work on the laying of the underground conduit, which is to convey the phone and telegraph lines across the new bridge.

JENNINGS LODGE

Mrs. W. W. Woodbeck

R. E. Wagner, residing on Riverview drive, has taken a six months' leave of absence from his position as engineer with the S. P. & S. railway, for the purpose of investigating an official position tendered him by the Denver & Rio Grande railway.

The members of the Christian Endeavor society are planning a Halloween social.

The members of the parent-teachers' association will meet at the school house, Friday afternoon.

W. F. Myers went to Albany last Sunday, on a hunting trip for Chinese pheasants.

The members of the Luncheon Club are planning a reorganization and resumption of their activities.

The Community Club held their monthly social Wednesday evening. Cards were enjoyed by those present. Refreshments were served.

We do printing of all kinds at the Banner-Courier—the best workmanship at lowest prices.

SPECIAL SUBSCRIPTION OFFER

To New and Present Subscribers of
The
Portland Telegram
OREGON'S BEST AFTERNOON PAPER
BY MAIL ONLY

To
The
BANNER-COURIER
CLACKAMAS COUNTY'S BEST PAPER
BY REGULAR DELIVERY

Both Papers

$3<sup>75</sup>

One Full Year

Here is what The Telegram and The Banner-Courier offer to their readers:

NEWS OF THE WORLD AND NATION
NEWS OF THE GREAT NORTHWEST
NEWS OF PORTLAND AND VICINITY
FEATURES OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

SERIAL STORIES
LIVE EDITORIALS
LAUGHS
SPORTS

CLACKAMAS COUNTY NEWS
COURT NEWS AND PROCEDURE
NEWS OF OREGON CITY AND VICINITY
SPECIAL AGRICULTURAL FEATURES

This Offer is Good for This Month Only

Now is the Time to Renew, to Subscribe

ALL THE NEWS---Wholesome, Helpful, Entertaining Reading for Every Day of the Year. Send in your Subscription NOW. This offer applies to new, as well as to present subscribers.

Clip and send in the Coupon opposite with your remittance

Special Bargain Offer Blank

THE BANNER-COURIER,
OREGON CITY, OREGON.

Enclosed find $3.75 for which send me by mail The Portland Telegram and Banner-Courier for one full year.

Subscription begins _____

Name _____

Post Office _____ R. F. D. _____

County _____ State _____

This Offer Is Good Only During This Month