CANBY

Dr. John Fuller
County I. O. O. F. Convention
On Saturday, October 21st, was held in Canby, the fourth semi-annual district convention of the several I. O. O. F. lodges of Clackamas county. The morning and afternoon sessions were devoted to the transaction of business connected with the organization, and exemplification of the first degree work by competing lodges. Estacada Lodge, No. 175, was presented with a beautiful silver cup, having rendered the most perfect degree work. The cup was presented at the evening session by A. H. Knight of the county lodge. The evening session was held in the high school gymnasium and was an open session. After enjoying special music by the Garrett orchestra, the audience listened to a good and appropriate address by L. C. McShane of Hubbard, formerly of Canton, Ohio. Avon Jess and Miss Loraine Lee sang solos to the delight of all who heard them and a quartette—A. B. Chindgren, H. H. Chindgren, R. Abraham and R. Hibbard, of Molalla, were as good as ever heard in Canby. These young men have a meadow lark song, a cascade tenor, a grand canyon bass and a highland alto. With proper training and a beautiful voice, they will someday put Molalla on the map. A reading by Miss Maud Peaty was a diversion on the program, exposing the folly of phone gossip, and was a splendid lesson for the over-anxious talker. A most amusing reading injected into the program, and a surprise to the large gathering, was by H. H. Chindgren of Molalla, entitled "A Deer Hunt," with a Swedish brogue. It brought down the house.

LOCALS

At the close of the exercises the public was invited to the I. O. O. F. hall, where more than three hundred visitors and citizens of Canby were treated to refreshments. Irwin Wheeler sold his farm, consisting of twelve acres, last week, to J. R. Nelson of Denver, Colorado. The place is located one mile south of Canby. Consideration, $2,000. Mr. Nelson and family have already taken possession and Mr. Wheeler has moved into Mrs. Ogle's house, one block east of the highway in Canby. Mrs. Anna Cantwell received word, last Tuesday, from the secretary of pensions at Washington, D. C., that she had been granted a pension of thirty dollars per month, with back pay to the time of her husband's death. S. G. Sanford of Roseburg, Oregon, is in Canby this week, representing the federal bank land loan system. A score or more applications have gone in for federal loans and Mr. Sanford is here as an appraiser. Charles Keeley, eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Keeley, broke his arm, Tuesday afternoon, October 23rd. Dr. Dedman reduced the fracture.

SANDY

Blanche K. Shelley
Mr. and Mrs. James McKillican and daughter Opal, spent a day last week at the home of David McKillican, at Gresham. Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Wright had as their guests, Sunday, Miss Agnes Engelbrecht of Oregon City, and Luther McAnulty of Corvallis. John Lowry left for Portland the first of the week, where he will be engaged for a few days completing some carpenter work. Mr. and Mrs. James McKillican were guests of honor at a dinner party last Thursday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. McKillican. Autumn leaves and dahlias of harmonizing colors were used as decorations, while in the center of the table was the large white wedding cake. Dinner guests included: Mr. and Mrs. N. McKillican, Miss Agnes Engelbrecht, Frank Hogan, Glenn Irish, John Founda, Dan Larion and the guests of honor. Later in the evening the following guests were also entertained at cards: Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McLarty, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shoehunz, Mr. and Mrs. John Lowry, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Reinke, Ella Reinke and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Doty. The couple have a host of friends in this community and many functions are being planned in their honor. Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Donovan and small son were guests of relatives in Willamette, Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Fromong and Miss Florence Fromong of Willamette, were guests at the Hammerie home, Sunday evening.

LOWER HIGHLAND

Shelley, Herman Brunns and R. E. Esason, attended the I. O. O. F. ceremonies at Oregon City, Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Emma Hozelwander Newman and children are visiting the home folks for a couple of weeks. Ms. Hornieker went to Portland, Tuesday, to do a little building on his property there. If the weather is favorable Mrs. Hornieker will go in Friday. Madames Seales, Gray, Harris and E. Beers motored to Portland, Monday, returning Tuesday evening. Mrs. Wm. Fisher, who has been convalescing at the Seales home, has recovered sufficiently to go to her own home near Sandy.

OBITUARY

William Lamper
This community was saddened when the news came that William Lamper had passed away at the Good Samaritan hospital at five o'clock, Sunday morning. About five weeks ago he was taken to the hospital suffering from appendicitis. He was operated on, but from the first very little hope was entertained for his recovery. He was twenty-one years old and was born and raised on the farm near Firwood. Few young men of today have the reputation for honesty and steadiness of character that he did. Since the death of his father several years ago, he did his best to fill that father's place in the family. He leaves a mother, Mrs. Anna Lamper, five brothers and two sisters. The funeral was held at the M. E. church, at two o'clock, Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Knott of Portland conducted the services. The many beautiful floral tributes bore silent testimony to the esteem in which he was held. The body was laid to rest in the Sandy cemetery.
