

Community News

News From Over CLACKAMAS COUNTY

FROGPOND

Mary Liesman

The Halloween social at Wilsonville was a huge success. Among those attending from this community were: Miss Myrtle Aden, Mr. and Mrs. Smith Turner, Nola Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bruck, Mr. and Mrs. John Bruck, Theodore Bruck, Victor Bruck, Mrs. Bruck, Otis Robbins, Johnnie Sharp, Irvin Sharp, Mrs. Emma Sharp, Miss Dora Oldenstadt, George Oldenstadt, Miss Mildred Oldenstadt, Hugh Moulton, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moulton, Mr. Harry Gesser, and Westie Wovlener. Mr. Smith Turner was a visitor at the home of Mr. Richard Oldenstadt, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moulton spent the week-end in Portland, attending the Stock Show, returning home Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Scherner and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Turner, and Thomas Turner were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith Turner, Sunday evening.

Mr. Ervin Sharp held a shooting match at Fred Baker's place. The affair was a large success. Mr. Borland took some geese to the shooting match and raffed them off with Mr. Sharp's turkeys and geese. John Turner is planning on having a shooting match Sunday, November 19.

Miss Anna Robbins and sister, Erma, visited at the home of Hilda Reiners, Sunday.

Those attending the dance at Willamette from this community were: Mr. and Mrs. Smith Turner, Nola Turner, Myrtle Aden, Norman Turner, George Oldenstadt, Mr. John Turner, and Harry Gesser.

Miss Myrtle Oldenstadt spent Monday in Oregon City.

Mrs. Adeline Ball, who has been visiting her friends, and relatives of this neighborhood returned to her home near Butteville, Oregon, Saturday evening.

Mrs. Annie Robbins visited at the home of Mrs. Minerva Mayes, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith Turner spent Monday in Oregon City.

Miss Dora Oldenstadt started working for Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Parker, of Portland, last Saturday. She intends to be in their employment about one month.

Mrs. Fritz Scherner and children, of Willamette were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Smith Turner.

CARUS

John Lehman

Maude O'Leary and Erma Caseday were shopping in Portland one day last week.

Greetings are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Erva Lewis on the arrival of an eight pound son, November first. Best wishes to Richard John.

Erma Caseday spent a few days with Maude O'Leary last week.

Not much damage was done on Halloween excepting a few gates missing.

Richard Ginnilliam, Melvin Stewart, John Blas and Adrian Jones are showing their fine pigs at the Stock Show in Portland.

Mrs. Harold Magness who has been residing in Portland for a time, is now home again.

Mrs. Bob Beattie Jr., made a business trip to Oregon City on Friday.

On November third John Lehman was tendered a surprise by his friends. Thirty young folks attended the party.

Ruth Fisher was transacting business in Oregon City on Saturday.

CORRAL CREEK

By Corral Creek School.

Blanche Brown, Teacher.

Miss Claire Say, who has been attending school at Monmouth, is home for a visit. She will return to Monmouth about Monday.

Harry Fisher, of Calgary, Canada, is going to spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Minor.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jones entertained about thirty young people at a Halloween party at their home Tuesday evening. A lunch was served after which the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games. Every one reported a fine time.

There is a new bridge under construction at the bottom of Say's hill. It will probably be finished in a short time.

Roy Baker who had the misfortune to break his arm while cranking his Ford, is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Graham and daughters, Helen and Thelma, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Say attended the Grange program and dance in Wilsonville Tuesday night.

The mother's Club gave a reception at the school house Friday night for the teacher, Blanche Brown. A dinner was served, and a fortune-telling booth and games furnished entertainment for the evening. About sixty people attended.

Aubrey Wood, who was injured a few weeks ago while working at the rock-crusher, has recovered sufficiently to resume his work.

Mrs. Blanche Brown spent the week end with her parents in Hazella.

Misses Margaret, Betty and Menga Butalga of Wilsonville visited Mrs. Misses Nellie and Jessie Angus entertained some Wilsonville ladies with a "500" party at their home last Friday evening.

Misses Eleanor Say and Helen Graham visited Miss Audrey Wood Sunday evening.

Ed Baker is hauling gravel on the Wood's Hill from Graham's Landing. The Corral Creek school is serving hot lunches at noon nearly every day.

Mrs. May Snider and Mrs. Eva Turner were home for the week end visiting their mother, Mrs. Ed Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jones and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Wiley at Beaverton Sunday.

Mrs. Rob Graham is spending a few days in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baker who have rented a home near Multnomah, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Allison Baker.

STAFFORD

M. A. Gage

The people of Stafford have had the opportunity of hearing two very interesting political talks in the past two weeks. Judge Cross spoke Tuesday, October 31, and his opponent, Mr. Edmundson, spoke Friday, November 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Wouldridge and daughter June, called on the Chapman family, Sunday, November 5.

The Misses Vera, Lela and Leta Tiedeman of Monmouth, spent last week at their home in Stafford. The normal school at Monmouth was closed because of the low water supply.

Messrs. Joe Rabick and Bill Oldenstadt attended a party, Friday night, November 3, given at Jergen's Park by the Misses Mae Silberger, Florence and Margy Vieanne.

Edwin Woodworth and family visited relatives in West Stayton, during the week-end.

Miss Lena Lehman spent Sunday at the home of Eva Chapman.

Walter Schatz made a business trip to Oregon City, last Thursday.

Phyllis Tiedeman accompanied her sisters to Monmouth, Sunday, returning the same evening.

There will be a basket social at the Stafford school house, next Friday, November 10. The proceeds are to go to the Athletic Club. Everyone is welcome to come and are requested to bring a basket. A very interesting program is being arranged by the school.

N. S. Oldham moved a piano from Riders to Multnomah, Sunday, November 5.

The Misses Lydia Delker and Cynthia Nussbaum visited Mrs. Earl Davis, Sunday.

Wm. Schatz and family have moved into the house recently vacated by N. S. Oldham.

Stanley Oldham and Harley Whitten, accompanied by Adeline Oldham and Millie Marshall of Portland, made a business trip to Tualatin, Sunday.

JENNINGS LODGE

Mrs. W. W. Woodbeck

W. W. Pollock has traded his home on Addie street for the Seventh street hotel property in Oregon City, owned by J. H. Mattley. Mr. Pollock moved to his new home Tuesday, and the Mattleys are moving to this place.

A farewell reception was tendered Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Snider, at the church parlors, Monday evening. Mr. Snider was the former pastor of Grace church and was obliged to resign his charge on account of undergoing a severe surgical operation.

W. A. Rush, who is attending the normal school at Monmouth, spent the past week at his home here. He returned to resume his studies, Monday.

Mr. Rush will complete his special course in six weeks.

Jerry Madden has been ill and confined to his home the past week.

Mrs. Carl Starker will entertain the Luncheon Club at her home on Hull avenue, Tuesday.

J. B. Ubrand of the river road met with an accident last week at the plant of the Central Sash & Door Co. where he is employed, losing the end of his finger in a mitre machine, which he was operating.

W. A. Hopkins and Thomas Hopkins and J. A. Atchley, were among those from Oregon City attending the Democratic rally, Saturday evening.

Dr. J. L. Scripture of Portland was a guest at the Hugh Roberts home, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Tagley, former residents of the Lodge, have returned from an extended visit at their former home in Bemidji, Minnesota. They were accompanied west by their daughter, Miss Jennie Tagley, a recently graduated nurse. They came out from Portland, where they are making their home, the latter part of the week, as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ross. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schatz have returned to their home in Adams, Idaho, after a four days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Shelton Bechtel.

Mrs. Mabel Miller visited her sister, Mrs. W. I. Blinestone, last Friday and Saturday. She was enroute to her home in The Dalles, after visiting her mother, Mrs. Lucy Allen, at Corvallis.

Rev. Ruel Snider conducted the services at the University Park church in Portland, last Sunday evening.

The Parent-Teachers' council met at Milwaukie, last Thursday. The speakers were Judge Jacob Kanzer and W. S. Uren, both of Portland. Luncheon was served at one o'clock. Their next meeting will be at Woodstock. A delegation from Jennings Lodge was in attendance.

A number from Jennings Lodge attended the Oak Grove dance, last Saturday evening.

CLARKES

Albert Gasser

Next Saturday evening, Nov. 11th, the regular farm bureau meeting will be held. A large attendance is expected.

Julius Schiewe transacted business in Oregon City, last Friday.

Mrs. and Mrs. John Leichtwels were Oregon City visitors, last Friday.

S. Elmer was an Oregon City visitor last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Oldenburg, his brother Emil and Charles and Albert Gasser, transacted business at Liberal last Saturday.

Mr. Schulman of the Woodstock nursery transacted business here last week. He took orders for several thousand trees to be planted in the near future. Clarkes will certainly be a prune and berry country before very long. Our soil is most favorable for successful fruit growing.

The Oldenburg prune crop will be sold under the "Mistland brand label. Oldenburg Brothers have a modern prune dryer and are staunch members of the Oregon Growers' Co-operative association.

Fred Lindsay and Mr. Martin were in Oregon City last week.

G. Hoffstetter lost a valuable cow last week.

Carl Stromgreen motored to Oregon City last Saturday.

The election is over. Wonder if taxes will stop from now on? No candidate offered to build good roads without money.

Plows and wagons lost on hallowe'en night, have been found again.

Last Sunday at 2 o'clock p. m., services were held for Miss Freda Berger, at the home of her step-father, F. Miller. Interment in the family lot at Schubel.

WEST LINN

Dennis Kidby

Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Johnson spent the week-end in Portland, visiting friends.

Misses Helen Phipps and Frances Andrews, of Oregon City were the guests of the Misses Zannah and Julia Lysell, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Montgomery are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a baby daughter.

The Rosemont Community Club realized a net profit of over fifty dollars from the basket social held at the Sunset school, last Saturday night.

The West Linn approach to the new bridge is on its way. The fill is being made ready to pave in a week or two.

Miss Aletha Kidby returned to the Oregon Normal, Sunday, after a few days' visit at her home. Owing to the fact that the water supply for Monmouth was closed, due to a break in the supply main, the state normal was closed until water could again be secured.

PARKPLACE

Mrs. Clara Rosebraugh

Mrs. Frank Gallaghers and daughter Genevieve of Silverton have been recent guests of Mrs. Bert Goodpasture.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Butts have moved into the house owned by Mr. Roen. The regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers' association will be held in the school building, Friday afternoon, Nov. 10th.

Mrs. Widwell is improving from a recent illness.

Mrs. Bert Goodpasture was a Portland visitor, Friday.

The funeral services of the late A. L. Richardson, formerly of Parkplace, who was killed by a train at Kalama, Wash., were held Wednesday afternoon from the Moose lodge rooms, of which order the deceased was a member. The interment was in the Clackamas cemetery.

Mrs. Marvel Malo is ill in the Oregon City hospital, and is under the care of Dr. Mount.

CARVER

Mrs. J. J. Hatton

Paul Mumpower and H. Miller have each had a fireplace built in their homes. W. E. Mumpower and son Clark did the work.

Little Dorothy Nolan, who has been having typhoid fever, is very much improved in health.

S. O. Link, who is employed in Washington county, spent the week-end here and stayed over for election with the home folks.

Mrs. Henry McFarlan, who has been nursing in Portland, visited with the home folks over the week-end.

Miss Kirschner, primary teacher, and pupils, gave a surprise party for the upper grades on October 31, at the school house. The school, under the management of Mrs. Swartz, principal, is maintaining a high standard.

Mrs. James Cole and children of Rabner, Oregon, are visiting with her brother and family, C. L. Stewart. Mrs. Cole before her marriage spent several years in this community.

The W. C. T. U. met Thursday at the church. Several new members have been added recently and the society feel that they will be able to increase their efforts in this community.

Dorothy Mumpower, grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mumpower, had the misfortune, while at school, to fall and break her arm in two places.

George Hess and Luther Mumpower of Cascade Locks are down for a few days, visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mumpower. Mrs. Mumpower and Mr. Hess are brother and sister.

Bessie Hattan, who is attending state normal school, was home during last week. She returned to Multnomah, Sunday.

Mrs. Swartz, principal of the Carver school, was quite ill Tuesday, and unable to perform her duties at the school.

No print is too large and none is too small to receive Satisfactory Service and Best Quality printery.

EAGLE CREEK
Mrs. R. B. Gibson

W. J. Evans, who has been in Canada during the harvest season, returned home, last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodie and son Leslie were guests of Ray's sister, Mrs. Joe Rickey, of George, the other day.

Tom Smith received a message that his mother was quite ill and left for Salem on Saturday, to see her.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Murphy returned last Thursday from Hood River, where they have been working during the apple-picking season.

Mrs. Ray Woodie gave a quilting bee at her home, last Wednesday. The following ladies were present: Mesdames Viola Douglas, L. A. Woodie, W. J. Evans, Linda Hoffmeister, Rosa Baker and R. B. Gibson. A delicious luncheon was served.

Mrs. Tom Smith gave a party last Saturday evening. There were about sixty present and all report a good time. The evening was spent in social chat, dancing and playing cards. Just before supper some slips of paper, having written on them a stunt for each one present to do, were passed around, and everyone requested to take one. Some of the stunts were very funny and caused much merriment. A delicious supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas and Miss Florice, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas, motored to Portland Monday, to attend the livestock show.

Mrs. Bestul and son Kermit, and Mrs. Paddison, were Portland visitors one day last week.

CLACKAMAS COUNTY
Mrs. R. B. Gibson

W. J. Evans, who has been in Canada during the harvest season, returned home, last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodie and son Leslie were guests of Ray's sister, Mrs. Joe Rickey, of George, the other day.

Tom Smith received a message that his mother was quite ill and left for Salem on Saturday, to see her.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Murphy returned last Thursday from Hood River, where they have been working during the apple-picking season.

Mrs. Ray Woodie gave a quilting bee at her home, last Wednesday. The following ladies were present: Mesdames Viola Douglas, L. A. Woodie, W. J. Evans, Linda Hoffmeister, Rosa Baker and R. B. Gibson. A delicious luncheon was served.

Mrs. Tom Smith gave a party last Saturday evening. There were about sixty present and all report a good time. The evening was spent in social chat, dancing and playing cards. Just before supper some slips of paper, having written on them a stunt for each one present to do, were passed around, and everyone requested to take one. Some of the stunts were very funny and caused much merriment. A delicious supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas and Miss Florice, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas, motored to Portland Monday, to attend the livestock show.

Mrs. Bestul and son Kermit, and Mrs. Paddison, were Portland visitors one day last week.

CLACKAMAS COUNTY
Mrs. R. B. Gibson

W. J. Evans, who has been in Canada during the harvest season, returned home, last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodie and son Leslie were guests of Ray's sister, Mrs. Joe Rickey, of George, the other day.

Tom Smith received a message that his mother was quite ill and left for Salem on Saturday, to see her.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Murphy returned last Thursday from Hood River, where they have been working during the apple-picking season.

Mrs. Ray Woodie gave a quilting bee at her home, last Wednesday. The following ladies were present: Mesdames Viola Douglas, L. A. Woodie, W. J. Evans, Linda Hoffmeister, Rosa Baker and R. B. Gibson. A delicious luncheon was served.

Mrs. Tom Smith gave a party last Saturday evening. There were about sixty present and all report a good time. The evening was spent in social chat, dancing and playing cards. Just before supper some slips of paper, having written on them a stunt for each one present to do, were passed around, and everyone requested to take one. Some of the stunts were very funny and caused much merriment. A delicious supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas and Miss Florice, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas, motored to Portland Monday, to attend the livestock show.

Mrs. Bestul and son Kermit, and Mrs. Paddison, were Portland visitors one day last week.

CLACKAMAS COUNTY
Mrs. R. B. Gibson

W. J. Evans, who has been in Canada during the harvest season, returned home, last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodie and son Leslie were guests of Ray's sister, Mrs. Joe Rickey, of George, the other day.

Tom Smith received a message that his mother was quite ill and left for Salem on Saturday, to see her.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Murphy returned last Thursday from Hood River, where they have been working during the apple-picking season.

Mrs. Ray Woodie gave a quilting bee at her home, last Wednesday. The following ladies were present: Mesdames Viola Douglas, L. A. Woodie, W. J. Evans, Linda Hoffmeister, Rosa Baker and R. B. Gibson. A delicious luncheon was served.

Mrs. Tom Smith gave a party last Saturday evening. There were about sixty present and all report a good time. The evening was spent in social chat, dancing and playing cards. Just before supper some slips of paper, having written on them a stunt for each one present to do, were passed around, and everyone requested to take one. Some of the stunts were very funny and caused much merriment. A delicious supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas and Miss Florice, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas, motored to Portland Monday, to attend the livestock show.

Mrs. Bestul and son Kermit, and Mrs. Paddison, were Portland visitors one day last week.

We use CALOL FLUSHING OIL AND ZEROLENE Look for the Sign!

Modern Crankcase Cleaning Service helps to keep your engine in prime condition. Safe—thorough—correct.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY (California)

Service Counts—

on your Winter Journey to CALIFORNIA

Observation Care with comfortable chairs, wide windows and broad rear platforms; Through Sleeping Cars with latest travel luxuries; Unexcelled Dining Car cuisine, and picturesque scenery will add to the pleasure of your journey.

THROUGH STANDARD SLEEPING CARS
Via the Scenic Shasta Route to
San Francisco and Los Angeles

For low round trip fares, sleeping car reservations, train schedules, or picture books, inquire of agents, or communicate with

JOHN M. SCOTT,
General Passenger Agent, Portland, Ore.

See Larsen and Co.

for Cabbage for Sauerkraut
$1.00 per 100 lbs.

Fresh vegetables are unusually plentiful at this time and have never been better in quality. We also have a complete stock of seasonable fruit—grapes, apples, pears, quinces, etc.

Larsen & Co.

Grocers
Hay, Grain, Feed, Poultry and Supplies
10th and Main Phone 70 Oregon City

If you want to buy or sell a farm or home let our little Want-Ad help you.

There is no other way to reach 2,000 Clackamas County people at so small an expense.

There's a Fire every minute of every day in this country

The next minute may bring fire to your home. This always being possible, it behooves you to keep your important papers safe. Our Safe Deposit Boxes cost very little and they offer to you an absolutely safe place for valuable papers.

BANK OF OREGON CITY

Oldest Bank in Clackamas County
Organized Forty-one Years Ago.

TRY THE BANNER-COURIER WANT ADS

'Say it with Flowers'

Expert Repair Work Accessories
Genuine Ford Parts Hardware
Storage Pacific Highway GARAGE Tires

"Equipped to serve YOU BEST"
At Elevator Oregon City, Oregon Phone 390

Brunswick

November Records On Sale Today

Every class of music represented in the brightest selection ever recorded under the Brunswick label.

For Your Convenience—Clip This List

Artist	Popular Dance Hits	Selection	No.	Size	Price
Isahm Jones' Orchestra	The World is Waiting for the Sunrise—Fox Trot	Blues—Fox Trot	2212	10	$.25
Isahm Jones' Orchestra	Are You Playing Fair—Fox Trot	Say It While Dancin'—Fox Trot	2214	10	.75
Bonnie Krueger's Orchestra	Blue—Fox Trot	Haunting Blues—Fox Trot	2215	10	.75
Carl Fenton's Orchestra	I'll Build a Sairway to Paradise—Fox Trot	Truly—Fox Trot	2216	10	.75
Carl Fenton's Orchestra	Paradise Bay—Waltz	Three O'Clock in the Morning—Waltz	2217	10	.75
Isahm Jones' Orchestra	Dancing Fool—Shimmy One Step		2211	10	.75

Artist	Songs—Operatic	Selection	No.	Size	Price
Gineppe Danico Baritone	Zaza—Zaza, piccolo singer (Zaza, Little Gypsy) (Leon Cavallo) in Italian	Zaza—Brunna Zaza (Dear Zaza) (Leon Cavallo) in Italian	15025	10	1.50

Artist	Songs—Concert and Ballad	Selection	No.	Size	Price
Theo Karle—Tenor	Snowy Breasted Pearl (Robinson)	Off in the Silly Night (Moore-Stevenson)	12054	10	1.25
Dorothy Jarlin Soprano	Rachem (Mercy) (Brown-Maria-Zucco) in Yiddish	Yom Kippur (City of Atonement) (Suberstein-Silbert) in Yiddish	25012	10	1.50
Richard Bonelli Baritone	Danny Deever (Kipling-Dan-Foch)	Clang of the Forge (Vaughan-Rodney)	5166	10	1.00
Elizabeth Lennox Contralto	Ellink (Oh Rest in the Lord) (Mandelstam)	Messiah (He Shall Feed His Flock) (Handel)	5165	10	1.00

Artist	Instrumental	Selection	No.	Size	Price
Leopold Godowsky Pianist	On Wings of Song (Mondina-Robb-Liszt)	Tarantella Venezia e Napoli (Liszt)	50016	10	2.00
Vessella's Italian Band Concert Band	Cavalleria Rusticana—Selection (Mascagni)	Fantasia—Soldiers' Chorus (Act IV, Scene 1) (Gounod)	5169	10	1.00
Freddie Franklin Violinist	Lovely Lucerne (Leigh-Goldin)	Three O'Clock in the Morning (Terris-Robledo)	2222	10	.75
Don Carroll and Marie Perry—Violin and Accordion	Irish Reels—Medley No. 2	Irish Jigs—Medley No. 2	2218	10	.75

Artist	Popular Songs	Selection	No.	Size	Price
Marion Harris Comedienne	Dixie Highway	Brother-in-Law Dan	2236	10	.75
Margaret Young Comedienne	Way Down Yonder in New Orleans—From "Spice of 1922"	The Blue Sam	2239	10	.75
White Way Male Quartet	Come Along—From "Ziegfeld Follies of 1922"	My Buddy	2220	10	.75
Charles Hani and Elliott Shaw Tenor and Baritone	Call Me Back, Pal O' Mine	My Dear	2221	10	.75