CHERRYVILLE

There will be a basket social at the school house next Saturday night. Between Cherryville and Sandy the road is all newly planked. Rev. Bernman will hold preaching services on Sunday at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at the church. On account of rain the regular meeting of the Woman's Club at the bungalow was postponed two weeks. The funeral of Mrs. Wedie, a former resident of this place, was held at the cemetery last Thursday. Her death occurred in Portland at the home of her daughter. She was in her 82nd year. The services were largely attended by relatives and friends here and in Portland.

BOLTON

Mrs. Floyd Hogan of Gladstone spent Wednesday and Thursday with Miss Ruby Hogan. The Bolton Community Club held its weekly meeting last Tuesday evening at the fire-hall when the evening was spent in cards and dancing. Among the new members present at this time were Mr. and Mrs. Schuber. Although the club has just been organized, much interest has been manifested by the people of Bolton in planning work for the coming winter. At the next meeting plans are to be discussed for the purpose of raising money with which to buy dishes for the hall. Mrs. H. Doremus of Oregon City spent Monday with her daughter, Mrs. N. McKillean, who is suffering from an attack of bronchial pneumonia. Word has been received here of the marriage of Miss Juanita Clapp of Bolton and Clarence Andrews of Portland. The ceremony was performed a week ago at the home of the groom's parents in Portland but the young couple have kept it a secret and the news came as a surprise to the many friends of Miss Clapp. Arthur Kohler arrived home Monday, having received his honorable discharge from the U. S. Navy. Since leaving here four years ago, Kohler has been in many different parts of the country although most of his time was spent in Florida. Miss Mildred McKillean spent Tuesday evening in Gladstone as the guest of Mrs. Ruth Belleme, who is here from an extended visit, from Astoria. Gordon Hammerle had the misfortune to have his ankle dislocated while practicing with the Union High School football team Monday evening. He expects to be back on the team again in time for the game with Oregon City High School which is to be staged Friday. At the regular meeting of the firemen which was held last Thursday evening, a genuine weenie roast was held. About forty were in attendance and it was discovered that nearly every one was an expert chef. It was decided to hold these "feeds" oftener than has been the case. Among those who attended the O. A. C. U. of O. football game at Corvallis Saturday was Miss Addie Wright. Harold Jones of Portland spent Sunday with friends here. Mr. Jones occupied one of the cottages at Margories Park during the past summer.

Billy Schepner is spending the week at Mr. and Mrs. Smith Turner's. Miss Aurs Robbins Mrs. Annie Robbins, Mr. E. W. Born, Otis Robbins and Erna Robbins spent Monday evening at E. Sharps.

WILLAMETTE

Next Saturday at one o'clock at the Union Hall there will be held a meeting to vote a special tax to improve our roads. Every tax payer should have in mind the benefit of good roads and he must know that without money we cannot build good roads. We have several roads which might stand considerable improvement, so let us all vote for extra taxes to improve our roads. Taxpayers should remember that they can work this special tax out and that therefore it need not be a very heavy burden. Saturday, the 25th, will be regular milk-testing day at the hall. Mr. Brown, of the Oregon Growers' Association, was here last week on official business. The Association got a start here and no doubt will grow very rapidly. Mr. and Mrs. R. Mr. and Mrs. R. Griffiths visited in Portland last Saturday. Mr. Holcomb and family have moved to Southern Oregon for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Marshall have moved to the Holcomb place. Theodore Sager has joined the Benedicts by taking Miss Bernice Gard as his wife. The newlyweds took a honeymoon trip and were home to friends last Saturday. They stopped at Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ringo's place. Mrs. Ringo is a sister to Mrs. Sayer. During the evening friends and neighbors dropped in on them by the wholesale, coming with cowbells and other nice things. But the newlyweds were not taken by surprise. They were ready with large baskets full of fine lunch, etc., which with music and singing helped make a good time for all. After good wishes to the newlyweds the crowd left for home.

going his way, another car coming from the opposite direction, struck and knocked him to the pavement. He was taken by an ambulance to the hospital at Oregon City. Chas Fisher died at his home near Bolton, last Friday and was buried in Zion cemetery near Canby last Sunday morning at ten o'clock. Services were conducted by Rev. Boyde Moore of the Canby M. E. Church. Mr. Fisher leaves a wife, 4 sons and one daughter to mourn the loss of this good husband and father, and a large circle of neighbors and friends who will miss him in the community where he lived. A whole brood of autos came to gather in a friendly mixup one half mile east of Canby on last Friday evening. Five auto and one truck took part in the game of wapping fenders breaking windshields, wheels, and radiators, and scratching the paint off each others surfaces. No one was hurt but the drivers are reported scratching their heads and looking at each other with disgust. The speed cop took their pulse and wrote the prescription to the auto hospital.

Woman's Club Meets The Woman's Club of Sandy met last Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Edna Esson. Some time was spent in discussion of book week. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Informal Evening Pleasant One of the enjoyable evenings of the season was that spent at the home of Mrs. Edna Esson last Monday evening when several friends dropped in for an evening of music. Mr. Lyman Warnock gave generously of his pleasing voice, accompanied by Miss Gertrude Pierce.
