

Community Life

News From Over CLACKAMAS COUNTY

CARVER

Mrs. J. W. Watts and Mrs. E. K. Dart of Molalla were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Hattan Thursday.

FROGPOND

Everybody remember the masquerade dance at the Grange Hall, Thanksgiving Eve. Prizes will be given for the best costumes.

UPPER HIGHLAND

The Highland Literary society met November 24. A program and kangaroo court served as entertainment.

The cafeteria lunch and grab bag netted fifteen dollars, the proceeds being used for the benefit of our school.

Miss Esther Moser called on Mrs. B. Aehy and Mrs. Percy Jones, Saturday afternoon.

O. Hoffman motored to Portland, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith and son Willie visited at the M. E. Kandle home, Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Cornwell were Oregon City visitors, Friday.

Mrs. C. C. Kandle spent Sunday and Monday visiting friends in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Wehrman spent the week-end at the L. Martin home.

Mrs. G. Fonander went to Portland, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Waneck have returned from their visit with friends in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Jones and children were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Graves, Sunday.

The party given at the Martin home was well attended and everybody reports a fine time.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

The Sunday evening service held by Rev. J. A. Ware of Oregon City was well attended.

Mrs. J. A. Byers has been ill the past few days but is feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Nan Mumpower and son Vergil of Portland, Mrs. Schmit and Miss Schmit of Sunnyside were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mumpower Sunday.

C. J. Larson went to Portland and Vancouver last week-end on business.

Mrs. L. Duchet went to Oregon City on business, last week.

Miss Mabel Lundell of Portland is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Fred Fredrickson.

Mr. Duckett of Yakima, who is visiting his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. L. Duckett, in Molalla, went to Silverton Wednesday and spent a few days there with friends and relatives.

Mr. Slope was so unfortunate as to get his hand against the saw at the mill. He was taken to a Portland hospital, where it was found necessary to amputate the second finger of his right hand.

Monday was turkey day at Molalla, as on that day several farmers ship their turkeys to southern Oregon.

Thanksgiving trade. The price received was around thirty-five cents a pound.

Rev. A. Purden, who has been away on a business trip, returned last Wednesday.

Miss Doris Wood returned Thursday from Underwood, Washington, where she has been packing apples.

Emil Itchner, Wort Cockrell and Joe Case left for Klamath Falls, Wednesday.

Chen Marsh is very sick at his home near Molalla.

Miss Ethel Renney, a teacher in the Molalla High school, visited her parents at McMinnville, last week.

Lawrence Masterton, S. J. Vaughn, Wayne and Donald Bauer, Alvin Ellis and Walter Taylor motored to Corvallis Saturday, and attended the football game.

Carl Deardorf, who has been working in Leroy, Oregon, for the past few months, returned home last Wednesday.

Mrs. F. J. Clemo of Ontario, Oregon, spent a few days the past week with Rev. and Mrs. Clemo.

Gordon Taylor has purchased the Daily Pottery Products Company's land in the Shaver addition.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Holman motored to Corvallis last week to attend the football game.

Emory Worth and Vern Furie motored to Corvallis one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Osburn were Portland visitors a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Corner and son of Portland spent a few days last week at the Clarence Osburn home. They were on their way to southern Oregon.

Mrs. Anna Gallinger of Oregon City visited at the home of her mother, Mrs. H. D. McLarty, Saturday afternoon.

Gordon Mannerie had his ankle put in a cast last Friday afternoon, after an x-ray picture revealed a broken bone at the side. The injury was sustained while practicing football and it was thought at first that the ankle was only sprained.

Miss Mildred McKillican had as her guests, Saturday, Mrs. Frances Laros of Oregon City, and Mrs. Ruth Bellvue of Knappa, Ore.

The Bolton Community Club, which has been organized but a short time, is making rapid progress and is doing much toward the improvement of the fire hall. At the last meeting Mrs. N. McKillican, Mrs. J. McKillican and Miss E. Schoenheinz had charge of a "fish pond," at which about six dollars was realized. This is to be used in the purchase of dishes for the hall.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Schoenheinz entertained during the past week-end a party of friends from Portland.

Dr. H. T. Green and wife met with the Sunday school teachers at the Carson Heights Community church, last Wednesday afternoon, for a social, helpful talk on Sunday school work. Beginning Sunday, the Sunday school will begin at 10:30 a. m. There is to be a prize for the class having the greatest attendance over six Sundays.

The entertainment to be given by Mrs. Hugh Gruwell at the church, under the auspices of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society promises to be something especially good. The date set is December 8, Friday evening. Mrs. Gruwell is an eloquentist of note and we are fortunate in obtaining her services.

R. A. Watson has left for The Dalles, where he has found congenial employment for the winter.

Robert Meyers spent the week-end at Camp Brookway, where a number of the old-time Boy Scouts were invited to a get-together social time.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brothel are receiving congratulations over the birth of a fine baby girl, November 27.

Mrs. Sandidge and daughter Ruth, formerly of Collins View, now residing at Tillamook, are visiting old friends and neighbors, being the guests of Mrs. W. Mack.

Miss Josephine Troutwine returned home last week, after nearly two years spent in Honolulu, the Hawaiian Islands and Arizona.

Mrs. M. F. Hardwich entertained her Sunday school class with a party, last Friday evening. As each pupil was allowed to invite a friend, it was a large, jolly crowd of girls who filled the home.

A special meeting of the Boy Scout Troop No. 105, Carson Heights, was held last Friday evening at the church, for the initiation of Robert Meyers, who was made assistant scout master. George Brown and Mr. Whitmore, as committeemen, assisted. The troop presented their scout master, Robert Bruce Horsfall, with a scout button. Mr. Meyers has received his registration papers from New York.

Another meeting of the property owners on Seventh street, Carson Heights, was held last week to facilitate work on their road. Mr. Coffin, who has charge of the work, broke his truck, causing a delay.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Price and son Trevor, visited the barracks at Vancouver, Wash., as the guest of the chaplain and his wife.

There is a movement afoot among his old neighbors, to surprise H. K. Luce with a radio phone. Mr. Luce has been bed-ridden as a paralytic for over a year. Mr. Probst has promised to furnish some of the material and to make the radio. Anyone wishing to make donations towards the expense may leave same with George Brown or Mrs. George Hartman. The days seem long when one lies helpless all the time.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Harper, who left some time ago for a ranch at Beaverton, are returning to their old home in Collins View.

Mrs. Phillips underwent an operation at the hospital last week, and her little daughter Jean visited with Mr. and Mrs. Sim.

The regular meeting of the Portland Council of the Parent-Teachers' association will be held Friday in Room A, Central Library, from 10 a. m. until 4 p. m.

On account of Thanksgiving falling on the date set for the session of the social service department, the meeting will be deferred.

Miss Alice Genevieve Smith was hostess to her students at the Ellison-White studio, last Friday evening.

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1, it was decided to call the troop "Hill Brownies," because they live on the hill, and for their symbol they chose the fern. The Hill Brownies will participate in the rally to be held December 2, putting on their "Grand Salute."

At the meeting last week of Brownie Troop No. 1