CLACKAMAS COUNTY

CARSON HEIGHTS & CAPITOL HILL

Mrs. Geo. Hartman

All children between the ages of six and fifteen years, from Collins View, Kilpatrick and Northrup Acres, are requested to meet at Knox hall, Saturday afternoon, December 15, to practice singing songs for the Community Christmas tree, which will be held at Knox hall, Sunday afternoon, December 24, between 3 and 5 o'clock.

The Christmas missionary box, to be sent out by the ladies of the Carson Heights church, will be packed next week, and all children are asked to take their gifts to the church next Sunday, December 17.

Miss Pearl Walker of Collins View recently spent the week-end visiting her sister, Mrs. Clyde Ray, at Kelso, Washington.

One of the many happy Thanksgiving gatherings was that of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wandler, when they served dinner to Mrs. Wandler's brother, S. Kapschla and wife, and her sister, Mrs. Goodis, and husband. Inclement weather prevented the presence of the mother from Vancouver. The table decorations were yellow chrysanthemums and gold ribbons.

The rummage sale, held by the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary societies of the Christian Advent church recently, cleared over $90 in the two days.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Finkle entertained informally at cards last Saturday evening. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. M. L. McGraw, Mr. and Mrs. H. Kopp, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Prigge, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hartman. A delicious lunch of creamed chicken, hot biscuit, mocha cake and coffee was served.

Miss Helen Bodie, who has been at Salem for the last few months, has returned home for the coming holidays. Bruce Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Wright, is confined to his home, suffering from rheumatism.

The children of Capitol Hill school donated over $18 in their community chest. Now they are busy rehearsing for the Christmas performance, which takes place the last day before the holidays.

George Barten is working on the lots he purchased of Claude Ray, preparing to build in the spring.

With the coming of the bad weather comes the cry for good roads. The property owners along Second street in Kilpatrick Tract, from the Boones Ferry road back for several blocks, have united in grading, preparatory to laying crushed rock. This piece of road should have been built up long ago, as it constitutes the main artery for travel throughout this tract, and has been the subject for much talk on the part of the county commissioners in the past. H. Schlegelmisch has charge of the grading.

The electric light committee—Shiller, Dully, Duhrkoop and Hartman—finished up their work this week and report 87 homes wired. Mr. Sansome of the P. R. L. & P. Co., has promised electric service for Christmas.

Mrs. J. Kirker, who was injured when she stepped on a nail, is now able to leave her home.

Girl Scout Troop No. 7 of Carson Heights, took part in the rally at the armory, their three-minute stunt being an improvised comb concert. They also demonstrated rope tying. Mrs. R. Bruce Horsfall, scout captain, gave a brief, instructive talk, with colored slides, on "Birds of Oregon in Winter."

A pleasant surprise party was given Monday evening, December 4, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wandler, on the occasion of their crystal wedding anniversary. Music and games were the diversions of the evening, after which supper was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. Schlegelmisch, Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Dully and Mr. and Mrs. Barton.

The basket social and entertainment held at Knox hall, Wednesday evening, was well attended. M. Versett gave several vocal selections, accompanying himself with the guitar, and Miss Ann Gomez danced the sailor's hornpipe, adding pleasure to the evening.

Ed. Kapschla met with an accident while working on the docks at Portland, breaking his arm and sustaining severe bruises. He was taken to St. Vincent's hospital.

W. S. Baker, prominent member of the Audubon society, made a public plea on behalf of the care and feeding of Oregon birds throughout the state during the winter months.

The meeting of the S. W. P. L. League, last Thursday evening, was a success in every way, with a large attendance in spite of the snow storm. A committee was appointed to see about getting electric lights up the Taylor's Ferry road. Announcement was made that the conservation committee has cut the amount allotted for the resurfacing of the Boones Ferry and Taylor's Ferry roads from $8,800 to $3,700. After the meeting the evening was passed in dancing and a general social time, and refreshments were served.

Mrs. Walker was happily surprised by a visit from her son Sam, who arrived from California, where he has been for over a year.

Plans are under way for a community Christmas tree, to be held at Knox hall Sunday afternoon, December 24, between 3 and 5 o'clock, under the auspices of the S. W. P. L. League. Anyone who will donate cookies, nuts, apples, candy, etc., will please notify Mrs. H. Schlegelmisch or Mrs. Hartman.

There will be an entertainment of Christmas carols, a play by the older girls, and other numbers of interest. All children and their parents are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Walker and daughter Pearl were guests of friends in North Portland, Thanksgiving day.

On Wednesday, December 6th, Mrs. Wesley Milliken gave a birthday party in honor of her son Wesley Jrs. fourth birthday. The room was decorated in keeping with the holiday spirit. A large Christmas tree being the center of attraction for the children. The birthday cake with four candles was the gift of Mrs. John Rauch. 24 little guests were present.

Mr. A. F. Buckles was in the hospital several days last week as the result of an accident in the mills in which two of his fingers were crushed. He was taken to the Oregon City hospital where they were amputated.

The Parent-Teachers will meet Friday afternoon to discuss the plans for serving hot soups and cocoa to the school children.

The election of officers for the Fraternal Brotherhood was held at the Lodge Rooms Tuesday. The new officers are: President Mrs. Jennie Davis; Post President, Dr. Jos. Silverman; Vice President, A. F. Buckles; Chaplain, Mrs. Elizabeth Brown; Treasurer, Mrs. Bert Barnes; Secretary, Mrs. A. P. Tuor; Mistress at Arms, Mrs. C. A. Ridder; Sargeant at Arms, Mr. C. A. Ridder; Inner door keeper, John Ream; Outer door keeper, Edwood Thompson; Musician, Mrs. Silverman; Captain Drill Team, Perry Barnes. The men of the lodge entertained the women with a program and supper Tuesday evening, December 12. A delightful time was had and the women pronounced the men "good entertainers."

The Ladies Aid Bazar was held at the church last Saturday and as usual it was a success. In addition to the fancy work and cooked food, quilts, comforts and rugs were sold. The ladies gym class, which has been organized here, has an enrollment of 27. Miss Helen Leathers, gymnasium instructor in the West Linn Union High School has charge of the class which meets every Wednesday evening at the High School gymnasium.

At an Epworth League Cabinet meeting held at the home of the President Mrs. W. W. Davis, plans were made for the bazaar to be held Friday evening, December 15. Instead of the usual bazaar in the afternoon it was decided that a "fair" will be held. Besides the booths containing fancy work, candy and cooked foods, there will be a fish pond and side-shows. The sale will start at 7:00 P. M. and at 8:00 P. M. the program consisting of readings, and vocal and violin solos will be given.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Snidow and children spent Sunday and Monday visiting relatives in Willamette.

JENNINGS LODGE

Mrs. W. W. Woodbeck

Saturday evening, at the school house, a minstrel show will be given, under the direction of Mrs. H. E. Hendry. The proceeds will be contributed to a fund being raised for the purchase of a new piano.
