TAKEN IN.—Oregon City is the last place to be taken in by the advertising fakir. He had a picture of the capitol at Washington; sold space around it for $10 a pinch to suckers and "skipped with the boodle." There are evidently merchants in Oregon who don't read the papers any more than the jays who bite at gold bricks.—Welcome.

Excounaging Wonns,—The Extra-paise is receiving encouraging testimoni-als from every portion of the county. The following extract is taken from a private letter: I think you are making an effort to give Clackamas county a good home paper, and are succeeding admirably, and ought to be seconded in your efforts by every public spirited citizen.

Obstruction in the River.—A right-eous kick is being made by the resi-dents along the Clackamas river on ac-count of certain fishermen, who have a net stretched across the river near its mouth, thus preventing in a great measure, salmon from coming up the river. An appeal has been made to the fish commissioners, who will doubtless bring the offending fisherman to time.

IN GREAT VARIETY.—Charman & Co. have control of the island below the Falls, and will give parties permission to falls, and will give parties permission to fish there on the most reasonable terms. This is the best fishing ground in the valley, which fact can be attested to by Portland sports. The quality and complete variety of fishing tackle kept by this firm at their drug store cannot be excelled in Portland, which they are selling at bottom prices, as it is kept only as a side line. only as a side line.

Elect New Officers.-In pursuance of Captain Shaw. First Lieutenant, E. S. Warren was elected Captain, and J. G. Ganong first sergeant, was promoted to the positson of first Heutenant. Col. sebe accompanied by his non com missioned staff, came up from Portland on horseback, and attended the meeting. Col. Beebs in his remarks to the company stated that the next athletic tournament would be held under the auspices of the First regiment.
