CITY ELECTION.

Sullivan Elected Mayor, and a Mixed Council Elected.

The city election held last Monday was an important event, and was closely contested. But little attention was paid to the nominations of the republican primary held last Friday, but the principal fight was made for Mayor Politics did not cut any figure in the selection of city officers and councilmen, but each clique struggled hard for supremacy in the election of their favorites. Five mixed tickets were in the field as follows: Two republican tickets, republican city ticket, citizens ticket and young men's progressive ticket.

Following is the vote for the candidates who were scattered around on the various tickets.

Two councilmen for one year; First ward—Ross Charman 245, C. D. Latourette 194; Second ward—J. W. Noble 127, James Wilkinson 82, Sol Walker 49.

The personell of the newly elected city officers is, T W. Sullivan, Mayor; F. R. Charman, treasurer; S. R. Green, assessor and collector; councilmen of the first ward T P. Randall, J. W. O'Connell, C. D. Latourette and Ross Charman. Councilmen second ward, John G. Porter, Frank Rigler, John W. Noble, and Jas. Wilkinson.

Two of the councilman of the first ward, C. D. Latourette and Ross Charman are democrats as is also the assessor and collector, S. R. Green, the remainder of the candidates elected being republicans. J. W. O'Connell is the only councilman re-elected, but both F. R. Charman and S. R. Green, were re-elected treasurer and collector.

Major Ryan and the city council have refused to issue a certificate of election to mayor-elect Sullivan, and the courts will settle the contest.

The Home of the Sucker.

Suckers are indigenous to countries where there is plenty of water and the Willamette valley being a country of large streams, lakes and ponds and having a great amount of rainfall, it is natural that this particular branch of the fish family should abound here. Last Tuesday, when the circus was here, was a great day for this tribe, and they were here in considerable numbers. Being hungry, they made a hearty meal off an old chestnut called by the name of thimble-rig or shell game. They enjoyed this meal very much, although it was quite costly to some of them, one of the rankest of them paying $70, and another whose verdancy was of the first quality paid $20. Many others enjoyed the repast at an expense ranging from $5 to $15. Verily, the world is full of suckers, but those that bit at the thimble-rig game here last Tuesday are probably the rankest the world can produce. A few of the thimble-rigged, with Constable P. Mickel, followed the thimble-riggers to Oregon City, and recovered their money, amounting to $162.60 and their expenses.—Gervais Star.

Annual Convention.

The annual convention of the National Educational association of the United States for the present year will be held at Toronto, Canada, July 14th to 17th, and as it will on this occasion be of an international character, it promises to be the most successful of the series. Most of the railroads have agreed to give half rates, plus $2.00 membership fee to all who attend the meeting, this rate being open to the public generally as well as the teachers. The Canadians are making great preparations to welcome and entertain the visiting teachers, and numerous cheap excursions are being arranged to all important points on the Great Lakes, the St. Lawrence and the seaside after the convention, which will afford to teachers the best opportunity for enjoying their summer hollidays they have ever had. The official bulletin, containing the programme for the meeting, railway arrangements, and all other particulars is ready, and will be sent free to any desiring it, on their dropping a post card to H. J. Hill secretary local committee, Toronto.

Fouts Temple of Justice.

James King and Harry Kelley, who have been camped near the Green House at Clackamas Heights, for several days, and following the occupation of horse trading, were sent up for 60 days each in the county jail by Justice Fouts for stealing a harness from C. N. Greenman. Mr. Greenman missed the harness, and secured a search warrant last Saturday, and finally discouvered the harness hid near King and Kelly's camp. They were arrested Wednesday morning, and taken before Justice Fouts for a hearing. King plead guilty, while Kelly stood trial and was found guilty.

Robert Gardner, and Thomas Scott had a hearing before Justice Fouts Wednesday afternoon, for stealing a keg of beer from Trembath's saloon a few days previous. Both pled guilty and were each sentenced to 30 days in confinement in the county jail.

The "West Shore Is No More".

The West Shore, the illustrated magazine for many years published in this city by L. Samuel, is no more. It has gone into bankruptcy and the last number was issued on the 2nd day of this month.

Among the heaviest losers through the failure of the West Shore are: W. S. Ladd T. F. Osborn, E. E. Beach, C. H. Lewis, Herbert Bradley, James Steel and some of the officers of the Northwest Loan & Trust Company. The publishers claim the paper was sunk too deep into bankruptcy when they took hold of it, and they did not know how much of a burden they had to carry.—Oregonian.

The President.

OREGON CITY'S WELCOME TO HARRISON.

An Immense Concourse of People Assemble.

The President, with Postmaster-General Wanamaker, Secretary Rusk, Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. McKee have come and gone like a pleasant dream, or the glimpse of a fertile oasis while crossing a dreary desert.

It rained, but the people nor the President cared for that.

They met as the common people of one great country.

The Board of Trade committee consisting of Hons. J. T. Apperson, H. E. Cross and Mayor Ryan spared no efforts to make it a grand affair, and they succeeded.

Messrs. E. E. Charman, J. R. Rhodes and Charles Albright put in a portion of two days preparing and arranging the decorations and display. This work they did gratuitously, and deserve special mention for their efforts on this occasion.

A large arch was erected across Seventh street along the side of the railroad track in front of the depot, and the word "WELCOME" was suspended across the front of the arch, appropriately decorated, and beneath was hung an immense portrait of President Harrison, while the depot and adjoining buildings were fairly covered with bunting and flags.

A long time before the appointed time the town began filling up with people from the surrounding country, notwithstanding the rain came down almost incessantly. For about two hours the people of Oregon City, suspended business, and assembled at the depot. Meade Post, No. 2, G. A. R. were out in full force, while the Willamette Cornet Band did its level best, and the children from the public schools were present. When the train pulled up at the depot and came to a stop, Hon. J. T. Apperson addressed the President as follows:

MR. PRESIDENT: It is a matter of gratification to me in behalf of these children, women and old residents of this pioneer city, I am eager to inform you, and I would allude to the fact that in this city the first provisional government was formed by Americans, and that here was the capital of the Colonial government for a number of years. There are those present today who took part in those eventful periods, and in their behalf, and in behalf of the entire people of this city, I take pleasure in bidding you a hearty and sincere welcome.

After three cheer by the crowd the President responded as follows:

This is a very pleasant morning reception. The heartiness and genuineness of your greeting is unmistakable, and I beg to assure you that we most heartily appreciate and return your kindly thoughts. You have here a most important state; one of those bordering on the Pacific, completing the autonomy of our great country, and giving us a seaboard on the Pacific as well as upon the Atlantic, which was essential to our completeness and separateness as a people. The interesting story of the early settlement of Oregon, of the international contest which for some time threatened international war, is fresh in the minds of these pioneers, and I am sure is taught to these children of your public schools. The work of those who set up the American flag here, and who secures to us this fertile region, is worthy of mention and of honorable commemoration by this generation, which is entering into their labors. Your state has added another to that succession of kindly greetings, which began when we left the national capital. We have come out of the land of irrigation and roses into this land where the Lord takes cares of the crops; and this dependence upon the seasons is not without its instructive and moral influences. Nature seems to have made a fresh, white light toilet for us as we have come down the banks of this beautiful river. To the pioneers, to those who have entered in with less labor to the inheritance left to them, to these children and to these comrades of the Grand Army I give my most hearty greeting.

Be Your Own Master.

Few people appreciate how much their impressions, their whims and impulses, and in fact all their mental energy depends on the harmonious action of all the vital organs. A poorly digested dinner may make one quarrel with a friend. A congested lever may bring imaginary gloom and trouble into the sunniest day. A rheumatic pain may keep you from business or work and entirely change some marked out policy. A few doses of Moore's Revealed Remedy will give tone to every function and make you enjoy your friends and and work.

A QUARTER OF A CENTURY AGO

There settled in Baker county, Oregon, near what is now Baker City, a man who has since become identified with the resources and development of that country. This man is no other than MR. John Stewart, one of the wealthiest and most influential citizens in the county. In a recent letter he says: "I had been suffering from pains in my back and general kidney complaint for some time, and had used many remedies without any but temporary relief. The pains in my back had become so severe that I was prevented from attending to my work and could not move about without the use of a cane. Hearing, through a friend, of the wonderful cures effected by Oregon Kidney Tea, I was induced to try a box, and from that very first dose I found instant relief, and before using half the contents of the box the pains in my back entirely disappeared. I have every faith in the virtues of the Oregon Kidney Tea, and can conscientiously recommend it to my friends. I would not be without it for anything."

Oregon Kidney Tea cures backache, incontinence of urine, brick dust sediment, burning or painful sensation while urinating, and all affections of the kidney or urinary organs of either sex.
