EXCURSION TO OREGON CITY.—Webfoot Camp, Woodmen of the World, of Portland, are making arrangements to soon give a moonlight excursion to this city. Arrangements will be made with Cedar camp here, to have a joint entertainment in a public hall on the arrival of the excursionists from Portland. A committee was appointed at the last meeting of Webfoot camp to make the necessary arrangements.

A PLEASANT PARTY.—Miss Rosamond Shaw entertained a number of her friends at the residence of her parents in this city last Thursday evening. The evening was most agreeably spent in social games, charades etc., the great attraction of the party being the art contest, which afforded considerable merriment for all present. Refreshments were served by the entertaining hostess, and everyone went home delighted.

THE WHEAT MARKET.—The Salem mills are now paying ninety cents for wheat, and but very few bushels are coming in at that price. Some places in the country the buying price is fixed at $1. Those having wheat are still holding it with the expectation that the price will exceed the one dollar mark. Those who have held on to their grain will reap a handsome profit but this turn in affairs is not always so fortunate for the producer.—Statesman.

UNWORTHY OF ASSISTANCE.—Members of the G. A. R. complain that comrades are being victimized to some extent by a fraud named Miles Doran, who represents himself to be a member of the order and in distress, and tells many different stories to induce comrades to give him money. It is said that he spends his winters in a soldier's home and in summer goes wandering about the country posing on members of the Grand Army. Doran was here four years ago, accompanied by two girls, said to be his daughters, and Grand Army men who knew him at that time will have nothing to do with him now. He goes well dressed and it is said spends much of the money in drink. The above is taken from a Portland exchange, and it will be well for the members of the army in this city to be on their guard.

BAND EXCURSION.—The Willamette Silver Cornet Band have made arrangements for an excursion Saturday, June 13. That last boat, the steamer Undine has been chartered for the occasion, and the excursion will go to Bradford's stand on the Columbia. No effort will be spared to make it the most pleasant excursion party of the season, and the trip will be a delightful one. The band is putting in long hours of arduous practice, and attaining a degree of proficiency that would do credit to the best band in the state. They deserve the patronage and encouragement in people can give them. The Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist church will furnish refreshments for the excursion.

RETURNED FROM PENDLETON.—Judges S. Bean and W. P. Lord, of the supreme court of this state, returned yesterday from Pendleton, where they have been holding a two weeks' term, during this time they heard twenty-eight cases, and of these decisions were rendered in eight, while the remainder are yet to be examined and decided. One of these are quite important ones relating to water rights. This special term is held in the court house Pendleton and the judges were on the bench from 8 a. m. until 6 p. m. every day during the two weeks. They have adjourned until the 20th of June, at which time they expect to have all cases decided.—Journal.

OREGON CITY PATENTS RECEIVED.—J. T. Apperson, register of the Oregon City land office, desires to state something over 200 patents from the United States to lots in the original site of Oregon City, have been sent him for delivery from the Surveyor General's office. Parties entitled to such patents must present the proper affidavits. The numbers of the lots which patents have been issued, are recently published in THE ENTERPRISE. These patents are issued to perfect title to lots sold by Dr. Mcgiblin.

NOT EXACTLY THE SAME SIZE.—Mr. S. C. Phelps, of Canby, called at the Enterprise office last Saturday and two hen eggs that possesses considerable variance as to size. They came from the same nest, and one is 7 1/2 inches in circumference, the other is about the size of a robin's egg. Mr. Phelps is one of the leading growers and farmers of Clackamas county, and prides himself in improving the breeds of poultry, as well as the acts of his farm.

WEDNESDAY SCHOOL GATHERING.—A Sunday School picnic will be held at Monitor on the 20th day of June. All day schools in South Clackamas and North Marion counties are expected to take part in the programme of the day. Every body is invited and a real good time will be there. Don't miss the day and your basket.

AT A FINGER.—On last Friday while J. H. Cochran and Hon. P. Paquet handling some heavy timbers near Paquet's saw and door factory, one of the timbers fell striking the third finger of Cochran's left hand, and completely maiming it. A physician was called and dressed the wound, and the patient is doing along as well as could be expected.

BUSINESS LOCALS.
