OREGON CITY!

The County Seat of Clackamas County.

THE GREATEST MANUFACTURING CENTER IN THE WEST.

The Banner Grain Raising and Fruit Producing Region of the Northwest.

Clackamas County is well timbered and contains within its area some of the finest agricultural lands in the state. It has the advantages of both river and rail transportation. A great portion of the most desirable lands were taken up in early days by settlers who obtained large tracts through the donation land claim act. These are now being cut up into small tracts and sold on easy terms, and make very desirable fruit and vegetable farms. Now is the time to buy while lands are cheap. Wheat Raising. Clackamas county wheat carried off the first prizes at the Centennial exposition and the Oregon state fair. Oats, hay and wheat yield bountiful crops not inferior to the production of wheat. The crops never fail.

Hop Growing is becoming a profitable and important industry of Clackamas county. The hop yards of this county have so far escaped the ravages of the hop louse—so destructive in some sections. Hops are a profitable crop even at the lowest market price.

Fruits and Vegetables. Clackamas county is pre-eminently the fruit growing and vegetable producing section of the Northwest. Prunes are very profitable, and while many extensive orchards being planted there is no danger of overstocking the markets. Apples, peaches, pears, cherries, blackberries are staple products of superior quality. Potatoes and every vegetable that can be grown in a temperate climate are produced in immense quantities.

Timber, Manufacturing, Etc.—Clackamas county possesses extensive forests of the finest fir, larch, cedar, ash, maple, oak and other varieties of hard wood suitable for manufacturing purposes. There are already a number of sawmills in the county, but the industry is only in its infancy. The opportunities for lumber manufacturing and other industries are good.

Mineral Resources.—While this county has the greatest Iron mines and works on the Pacific coast, its mineral resources are only in the beginning of development. Extensive deposits of the finest building stone, of which satisfactory tests have been made, are awaiting further development.

Other Advantages.—No where in the Northwest can lands with such facilities for transportation and in close proximity to the markets of the world be purchased at such low rates. Clackamas county offers better inducements to the manufacturer, capitalist, and homeseeker than any section on the Pacific coast. No better field for manufacturing. The raw material exists here in abundance. The water power is practically inexhaustible.

Oregon City.—Situated at the great falls of the Willamette with 250-horse power at low water, that can be utilized for manufacturing, it will become the great industrial center of the West. It is the only great water power situated on tide water, with all the advantages of boat and rail transportation. Woolen, excelsior, flour and several extensive pulp and paper mills, with wood-working factories are already utilizing a portion of this immense power. Yet there is room for hundreds more, who will be furnished with free sites and free water power. Oregon City is only twelve miles distant from Portland, the commercial metropolis of the Northwest, where vessels from every port of the world anchor.

AT WASHINGTON.

Only An Accident Can Prevent Harrison's Renomination.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The return of President Harrison after a long trip, and without a blemish on his record, seems to set at rest all the talk of any other candidate for the presidency, so far as the republican party is concerned. Harrison has grown in favor rapidly during the last three months, and unless there is a striking and unlooked for change, the republicans may as well make up their minds that he is going to be the next candidate, and nothing but an accident can prevent his nomination. People have lost sight of the fact that the president once before made a wonderful record as a speech maker. The speeches he made during the campaign of '88 will be remembered by those who read them as among the best that have been made under similar circumstances for many years. But the president is far from being overshadowed by the secretary of state, as some of the most intense Blainites would have people believe. Nor is there any evidence that Blaine ever attempted to do the overshadowing act. There is not yet the slightest indication that Blaine desires to withdraw from the cabinet, or that he will be a candidate against Harrison. On the other hand his every act tends to the belief that he is and will be an earnest advocate of the renomination and re-election of Mr. Harrison.

Every republican who is anxious to see his party win in the next contest must feel that under Harrison there will be nothing to hazard the chances of success. The republican party can go to the country with him as a candidate, feeling that they can have nothing but a clean campaign. It will be a good campaign in which to test the sense of the American people on the subject of whether they prefer republicans or democratic rule, for the republicans will have in their candidate one who represents the principles of honesty and good government, against whose public acts no word can be said.

Blaine is not and will not be a candidate. Of whom is it then that professional politicians are making such an ado? The spoils seekers and boodle hunters are gathering around Alger, of Michigan. He would be the ideal candidate of that part of the republican party that places office above measure and boodle above men. James S. Clarkson, whose greatness hangs upon the fact that he could turn out more democratic postmasters of the fourth class than any known man, is at the head of the republican league, and has gathered around him a lot of small-fry politicians who have climbed to greatness the Lord only knows how, and with these he is at work to get following for Alger in the next republican convention. Outside of Clarkson there is scarcely a man connected with the republican league who is known outside of his own state, and if he is it is because he was sent as a spell-binder into some other state and talked for the grand old party at so much per day. Most of the politicians, if they read the signs of the times right, know that Blaine will not be a candidate, and the constant booming that is being done is for the purpose of securing delegations unfriendly to Harrison which may be brought to the support of the man from Michigan. Alger wants the nomination and will do all he can to secure it, and Clarkson will probably do all he can to help him.

Combining for Trade.

BERLIN, May 23.—The attention of the foreign office is absorbed in commercial treaty negotiations, some of the results of which will have a direct bearing on Germany's relations with the United States. Arrangements with Italy, Switzerland and Roumania are progressing toward entente. Belgium is also negotiating with Germany but that country is less likely than others to be drawn within the custom bond. Russia's overtures for a reduction of the German coin tariff in exchange for less tariff on Germany's manufactures has been received in a friendly spirit here, but the opposition of Australia is expected to bar the way to definite arrangements. Austria tried to secure a reduction of the German grain tariff in favor of herself exclusively; she failed in this, however, and now has raised the point of the German-Austrian treaty as precluding a differential treatment for Russian imports into Germany.

The President Will Take Part.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The president will take part in Memorial day exercises at Philadelphia next Saturday. He will leave Washington early in the morning, and return in the evening.

Made Absolute.

LONDON, May 26.—The decree of divorce obtained by Capt. O'Shea from his wife, on account of alleged adultery with Parnell, was today made absolute.

Sudden Death.

LINCOLN, Neb., May 25.—Ex-Governor Butler died suddenly this morning at his home near Pawnee City, of heart failure. He was the first governor of the state of Nebraska.

Fatal Mistake.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—A private dispatch received here says Congressman Hook died at his home in Tennessee. A mistake in medicine is given as the cause of his death.

On Trial.

PORTLAND, May 25.—In the United States circuit today the case of John B. Raab vs. The Southern Pacific Railroad Co. was called. Raab brings suit to recover $75,000 damages for injuries received in the Lake Labish disaster of disaster of Nov. 12, 1890. The forenoon was consumed in securing a jury.

Suit For Damages.

ALBANY, Or., May 25.—Suit has been commenced in the circuit court against Linn county for $29,000 damages, by Miss Ivy Templeton, who was nearly killed from injuries received from a buggy falling through an unsafe bridge near Crawfordville, last summer, resulting in the amputation of her leg.

Set at Liberty.

PORTLAND, May 26.—The nine Japanese women who came over on the steamship Pempton and who were not allowed to land at San Francisco on the ground that they were brought to this country for immoral purposes, were brought before U. S. Judge Deady today at noon on a writ of habeas corpus. Judge Deady ordered them set at liberty.

The Siuslaw Road.

EUGENE, Or., May 25.—It is reported today that the line of the Siuslaw and Eastern railway has been definitely determined upon and that the company will soon commence grading at both ends of the line. The surveyors are yet in the field, but have nearly finished their work. The right of way has been secured nearly the entire distance.

Yellow Fever in Brazil.

BALTIMORE, May 26.—The steamship Elveston arrived on her first trip from Brazil today. Her master reports a terrible yellow fever scourge in that country. At the time of their departure hundreds of people are reported dead and dying in and about Santos, and similar reports from other points. The second officer and a fireman of the steamer died of the disease.

Not the Woolly Aphis.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—Considerable alarm has been felt by hop growers along the Sacramento river, due to the presence of an aphid on the hop vines, supposed to be the English hop aphid "phorodon humuli." Specimens have been examined by Mr. Craw, the entomologist, who reports that they are not the "phorodon humuli," but belong to the family "aphis laosae," commonly called cabbage louse.

Kansas Alliance.

TOPEKA, KANSAS, May 26.—The farmers alliance is making preparations for a grand ratification of the Cincinnati conference work, at a regular meeting of three thousand sub-alliances of the state, at which a platform will be considered, a vote taken, and the report forwarded to headquarters and to reform papers. Sub-alliances are charged to be very deliberate in action and to give every proposition a thorough examination and discussion.

A Fatal Fire.

LONDON, May 24.—Lord William Romilly, who was in his drawing room at midnight at No. 2, Ovington Gardens, accidentally upset a paraffine lamp that set fire to the apartments. Lord Romilly attempted in vain to extinguish the flames, which spread, causing a suffocating smoke. His lordship was overcome by the smoke and sank senseless to the floor. The lord and two servants were found dead after the fire was extinguished by the fire department.

Blackmailing Agent Captured.

SPOKANE, May 23.—Pemberton, a bogus special agent of the general land office, who has been swindling Eastern Washington mill men out of large sums of money by extorting pay from them for timber cut on government land or bought from settlers who had not yet proved up on their claims, has been captured at Conconullo, Okanogan county, where he will have a preliminary examination Monday. He was caught in the act, having extorted cash from a millman near Conconullo. Special Agent Shiles immediately dispatched a man to Okanogan county with the necessary means for the retention of Pemberton on other complaints, should there be any hitch in prosecution under the complaint upon which the arrest was made.

Mob Law in Kansas.

TOPEKA, Kan., May 26.—Joseph Bennett, who bought a farm in Washington township, borrowed money from a Jewel City firm to make the first payment and put in his crops. When the notes fell due Bennett did not have the money to take them up, and his place was sold by the sheriff. He refused to give quiet possession, and was ejected. Joseph Kindlesberger then occupied the farm as a tenant of the purchasers. Bennett is a member of the farmers' alliance. Thirty or forty masked men, with Bennett at their head drew up to the place Sunday night, and requested the new tenant to leave. He refused to do so, whereupon revolvers were drawn and he was told he could either leave at once or his dead body would be carted off. Bennett was then reinstated, and still holds the place. Kindlesberger has the names of the leaders of the mob, and will bring civil and criminal proceedings against them. The officers in this county are all farmers' alliance men, including the prosecuting attorney.

Burglar Captured.

ALBANY, Or., May 26.—The police of this city today, through the aid of a boy, Charles Spaght, who was out hunting, discovered a gang of burglars camped in the woods below the city. One man was arrested and several shots were fired at another who escaped.

An outfit of burglars, tools and stolen property were found. Among the latter was a watch with a charm containing the name of "U. Whitney," of the firm of Whitney, Elder & Co., of Stayton, whose safe was robbed Saturday night last. The prisoner will be taken to Salem for examination.

News from Mexico.

NEW YORK, May 26.—A private letter received from the city of Mexico, written May 19, by a business man who has ample facilities for getting correct information, says there is much reason to believe the Mexican authorities are quietly giving aid to the Chilean insurgents. The Emerald has been able to get all the coal she wanted, and private advices from Mazatlan say that the war materials brought from San Francisco were transferred early this morning to a ship belonging to the insurgents.

Probable Suicide.

BAKER CITY, Or., May 26.—Willie Privett, aged 13 years, was found this morning lying near his home, about five miles from this city, with a bullet hole through his breast. A 44 caliber British bull-dog pistol was lying near his right hand and a box of cartridges by his side. The boy was chastised last evening by his father, and it is thought this caused him to take his life.

Hearing Postponed.

TACOMA, May 26.—The hearing of testimony in the suit against the commissioners and regents of the agricultural college, set for today before Judge Campbell was postponed till Friday on account of the absence of the attorney for the defendants.

Chinese Beheaded.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 26.—Advices from China state that nineteen Chinese were beheaded by order of the authorities at Kowloon City, April 17th, and that nine of them were known to have participated in the Nanoo piracy tragedy.

Laborers for Montana.

TACOMA, May 26.—Laborers are being hired here to go to Montana to work on the Great Northern railroad. They are promised two dollars per day and two years' work.

Match Arranged.

MELBOURNE, May 26.—A match for 400 pounds has arranged between Choynski and Joe Goddard, July 20th.

La Grippe Again.

During the epidemic of La Grippe last season Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Cough and Colds, proved to be the best remedy. Reports from the many who used it confirm this statement. They were not only quickly relieved, but the disease left no bad results. We ask you to give this remedy a trial and we guarantee that you will be satisfied with results, or the purchase price will be refunded. It has no equal in any La Grippe, or any Throat, Chest or Lung Trouble. Trial bottles free at G. A. Harding's drug store. Large size 50c. and $1.00.

Speculation Dangerous.

Scarcely a day passes without the news of some large failure flashing over the wires—the usual result of speculation in stocks or some equally dangerous venture. The same electric current carries to dear distant friends the sad tidings of death of dear ones—too often the result of speculation in patent nostrums. Moore's Revealed Remedy is no speculation but is sold on positive guarantee. Do not fail to go to your druggist and ask for your money if not satisfied. We know you will go and buy another bottle. For sale by all druggists.

Wool Wanted.
