FRIDAY, JULY 10, 1891.

THE Fourth of July was generally observed throughout the State of Oregon in a becoming manner, which indicates that the people of the northwest are are not lacking in the elements of pairiotism and love of country. The foreign element of our population, unlike some sections of the middle and western states, quickly assimi ate with our ideas of government, and become patriotic citizens. The example set by Clackaover the school houses in every section ous business. should be emulated by other counties in the state, as nothing tends more effectually to inspire a love of country and a proper regard for the principles of our government. Since the late rebellion, acarehism has been working insidlously, to undermine the very foundation of our country. great extent. Still, danger larks to a possible fearful extent, and it becomes the duty of every good citizen to goard in every way against the probable spread of such miluences.

When the Court let road is constructed on a perfectly easy grade, and eight-inch tiling is being laid next to the bank, which will thoroughly drain the road for years to come. With a coat of gravel over the top, this monument to their good judgment as road builders.

A MUMBER of the farmer's alliance has demarket until farmers can get their own price, or at least a price conductably above the average. A circular has been sent out which advocates this plant, and suggests a great combination of 0.001,000 members of pear auspicious, the producurs, who are organized, hope to form no organization that will result in profit to the agraculturists. It would appear that this scheme is some what visiousee at present, and it is doubtful If such combination could be carried many interested parties.

Next week the Clarkamas county teachers' normal institute will be in active seasion, which will continue for two weeks. It is expected that every teacher in the exercises. It is intended to be instructive, the Zeek building and will be conducte ! part of the time some thing after the style of an "experience meet-

REPORTS indicate that the great herds of cattle in Eastern and Southern Oregon are being brought up rapidly, and there is a possible danger that the price of beef will be greatly advanced before many days. It is probable that an attempt is being made report from various localities throughout the state show that representatives of an with a bowling alley. THE State Alliance is being organized at Portland this week. A platform has been adopted, and every portion of the state is well represented. W. W. Myers, Charles Moran and Dr. Goucher, are representing Clakamas county.

Oregon City is progressing. A fire limit has been established, and the city council are pushing the work of street improvements, and extending new sidewalks in every direction.

THE Itata has returned to the Pacific coast under the protecting wing of the Charleston. The Itata will pay a fine for vielating the laws of navigation.
