For some time various articles have been missing from different places around the city, and the thefts have been laid to the tramps. The Humphrey children who live at Mrs. Thos. Miller's on the hill missed a gold locket, silver watch, gold chain and other articles recently. Capt. John Kelly, night policeman was informed of the missing articles and at one suspected that the articles had been stolen by someone familiar with the house. He was aware of the fact that an Indian woman had been employed as a servant, and sent Lew Hamilton to Indian Jack's camp near the Clackamas. The Indians had become apprised of the fact in some become apprised of J. W. Spencer and J. H. Dawson the fact in some way that they were suslected together, and were all surrend-ered to Mr. Hamilton. In addition to the articles aboved mentioned were found swo gold rings, 3 silver table spoons, a pair of skates, a boating suit, a couple of white skirts bed quilts, sheets, towels, handkerchiefs, a nightgown, and other articles, many of them coming from the hunss of Mr. Thos.
