Happenings in Localities Outside of Oregon City—Industrial Items—Neighborhood Notes.

Logan.

LOGAN, Or., Oct. 8.—The members of the Ravenwood Baptist church desire to tender Mr. Fred Gerber a vote of thanks for his persistent and effectual efforts in securing a bell for the church. Had it not been for Mr. Gerber the church could not yet have enjoyed this much needed addition. The bell was hung in position last Monday morning, and its loud, clear notes made all glad who heard it. A. R.

Wilsonville.

WILSONVILLE, Oct. 8.—Professor Rork favored us with one of his famous lectures Friday evening; but the attendance was poor owing to a misunderstanding concerning the time.

Born, on the 5th instant, to Mr. and Mrs. L. Myers, a son.

Many of our villagers attended the funeral of Timothy Baker at Pleasant Hill. He passed away on the 4th instant at the age of eighty-two. Vexo.

Stafford.

STAFFORD, Or., Oct. 12.—People are getting almost discouraged over the potato crop this year, prices being so very low.

Mr. David McArthur and his daughter Maggie, of Central Point, gave Stafford a visit Sunday last.

Mr. F. Delker is laid up with rheumatism. Conrad Schraeder, Jr., is building a new house. He expects to get a bird to put in it soon.

J. A. Sauer has bought a horse, harness, and new buggy, and is as happy as a lark. W. E. C.

Elliott Prairie.

ELLIOTT PRAIRIE, Oct. 12.—Plowing and potato digging is the order of the day, although a little too dry to plow good.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ross went to Portland last Thursday to visit friends and to take in the exposition.

G. W. Killin is building a fine residence on his farm. We think he will have it finished in time to give a Thanksgiving dinner and invite all the neighbors.

P. L. Schamel had rented A. B. Brown's farm.

Orrin Coldren is talking of going back to Kansas this fall.

Levi Erb is busy with his clover holler. L. E. F.

Pleasant Hill.

PLEASANT HILL, Oct. 8.—Threshing is nearly over in this vicinity; the machine is now on its last trip around.

Mr. G. Vaughan is very low with typhoid fever.

Mrs. M. C. Graham, of Newberg, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Zim-walt.

Mr. J. N. Wood has sold his hops at the low figure of five cents per pound. This is a bad start and we hope others will not follow his example.

Mr. Ed. Baker's youngest son is very low with typhoid fever. Dr. Giesy, of Aurora, is attending him.

Quite a number from our vicinity attended the Newberg fair and report a very pleasant time. Mrs. W. S. Young took the blue ribbon on grapes, and Mrs. Marion Young the blue ribbon on her outlined bed spread.

Uncle Dan Baker, another pioneer of '52, passed away in his seventy-ninth year Sunday, the 4th, at 12:50 P. M., and was buried Monday at 3 P. M. BEATRICE.

Beaver Creek.

BEAVER CREEK, Oct. 8.—Miss Martha J. Peelman, of this vicinity, and Charles Hinton, of Portland, were united in marriage at Canby, on the afternoon of October 5th, by Rev. Lowther. The young couple immediately went to Portland where they will reside. Their many friends wish them much happiness and prosperity.

The sawmill company known as Critser & Co., has collapsed, and several parties are losers. The mill has fallen into the hands of Joseph Cahill.

George Rider has returned home from Independence. He contracted the typhoid fever during his absence.

Miss Agnes Thompson has been secured by the school directors to teach the winter term of school in this district.

Burt Adams has gone to Portland where he has had a morbid growth removed from one of his eyes.

The apple crop is a good one, and the cod-lin moth has not done damage to as great an extent as last year. Clackamas county seems to be poorly represented by exhibitors at the Portland exhibition, which ought not to be. NATIVE.

Marks Prairie.

MARKS PRAIRIE, Or., Oct. 13.—John Daley has purchased a farm on the Molalla and moved his family there. Frank May and Frank Hilton have moved from the Marks farm to the place vacated by Mr. Daley.

Farmers are nearly done with their potato harvest. The crop is not so large as it was expected to be, and the price is also very low—twenty cents a bushel being offered on the prairie.

A man named McCully and Ed Graves, both of whom had been drinking, got into a row last Tuesday. The fight seemed to have been fought by McCully and during its progress T. Graves took a hand and punished McCully considerably.

Frank Moore will leave for his home in Missouri in a few days. James and Archie Howell will go east in about two weeks. They will return here.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Gilliam recently came from Kentucky and took up their abode with their uncle, James H. Dozier. They were a newly married couple so the boys of the neighborhood thought it would be the proper thing to give them a charivari last Saturday night. It was done up brown and the young couple may be considered as properly started on their life journey.

OCCASIONAL.

Mountain View.

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Oct. 7.—The family of James Pierce, of Iowa, arrived last Saturday and are delighted with Mountain View. They will locate here permanently.

E. J. Swafford, of Salem, spent a couple of days with his brother J. L. Swafford, a short time since, and was very highly pleased with the growth of Mountain View as well as of Oregon City.

Mr. Darnell sold his ten acre tract here for $3500 Monday, the 5th, to Wm. Wade. Everybody wants to come to Mountain View, and are willing to pay for it.

A number of Mountain View people took in the exposition at Portland the past week.

Our public school began on the 5th under the able management of Professor Johnson and Miss Aggie Beattie, the attendance being about one hundred.

James Heckart is building a fine and commodious addition to his residence, which will add greatly to its good appearance and convenience.

Mrs. Henry Jackson is visiting in eastern Oregon hoping to benefit her health which has been greatly impaired by chronic asthma.

Another evidence of the growth of Mountain View is in the fact that Marion Darling, the proprietor of our steam woodwork factory, has a growing demand for his work, and is now supplying a long felt want by adding to his shop a first class American feed grinder, and will from this time on be found ready at all times to grind grain for feed either by the sack or ton. TEXAS.

Hazelia.

HAZELIA, Or., Oct. 13.—The harvest is over and has been good all around. The rains have been light so far yet farmers are plowing. This good weather is being improved. Fruit picking, plowing, baling hay and straw, repairing the roads, etc., is the order of the day.

Mr. F. Ford has his fall wheat already in the ground and now wants rain. Mrs. Ford is improving in health.

Lester Shipley and family just returned from a pleasure trip to Corvallis. They report a pleasant time.

J. L. Bennett and R. H. Randolph were visiting their old comrade, L. H. Calkins last week. The former and Mr. Calkins had not met before since they parted in Vicksburg, Miss., in Sept. 1863. They were formerly business partners in Wisconsin.

Our school began Sept. 21 with Prof. Elmer Watts as teacher. Mr. Watts is a graduate of the North Indiana normal school and has very fine recommendations as a teacher. He is giving the best of satisfaction here.

Our quiet little hamlet has been somewhat excited for a few days by the rumors afloat of the great boom our sister burg North Oswego is going to have.

Mrs. L. Eaton is in Portland being treated for dropsy by Mrs. Dr. Ford Warren. She is improving very fast.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown, of Portland, spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. A. W. Shipley.

Born, on September 21, to Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Whitten, a son. HAZELIA.

Molalla.

MOLALLA, Or., Oct. 6.—Our locality was tolerably well represented at the Butte Creek Fair. Robert Baty carried off the blue ribbon for the best team. John Shaver received several premiums on his Hereford cattle. What a county fair old Clackamas could have if she could be induced to waken up and see what her united strength would show in the aggregate from the little mites all around. A great many people expect too much and do too little for the encouragement of our county fairs. What a pleasant and profitable annual reunion the people could have if they all would "get there" in earnest.

Dr. Alexander, deceased, is missed very much among his patients and many friends, he being one of those solid men, honorable and matter of fact, and a conscientious physician. The doctor will not be forgotten very soon.

Mr. J. J. Herman has been very ill with pneumonia for two weeks.

The Sawtell Bros., recently from eastern Oregon, are building on the Ira Moody donation claim.

Samuel Engle, Esq., is leading off on a great improvement in the way of a new plank fence about his premises.

Mr. Ingram, Molalla's gardener and fruit evaporator, is now handling the pumpkins and pumpkins by the tons. The engine purchased from Bartow doesn't run much, but is there on a blow off.

W. A. Shaver has a force of ten men logging up his thirty-five acre patch of black poles.

Miss Mary Ridings is recovering from her spell of illness and probably will soon be about again.

Miss Anna Garrett, who was poisoned with cocaine by a Portland dentist, and has been in a critical condition for so many months, is now recovering. Dr. Brewer, of Silverton, has been attending to the case.

Now comes Dr. Hargrave's "Dipsocura"—first cure for liquor, tobacco and opium, without a single failure to cure.

Clarke's.

CLARKE'S, Or., Oct. 6.—The farmers of this vicinity are preparing for fall wheat sowing.

Mr. H. C. Ringo has sown one field of winter oats.

Mr. Greenberry Rogers has been quite ill for some time.

We had a surprise party at the residence of Mr. Chas. Moran last evening in honor of Miss Grace Moran's birthday. We had a very pleasant time, and among the many present we were glad to see the face of Mr. Wm. Grace, of Burner, Oregon, brother of Mr. G. W. Grace, our enterprising merchant, who was also present.

The alliance is progressing finely and wishes all farmers and laborers to come and join it.

Mrs. I. L. Clarke has the prettiest baby in our town, and we think she would take the premium at the Portland exposition. TIM.

CLARKE, Or., Oct. 12.—We come this week with the sad news of the death of our esteemed friend Mr. G. Rogers, who, after much patient suffering, died Saturday, the 10th, with heart disease. Mr. Rogers leaves a wife and two children who have the heartfelt sympathy of many friends. George, the elder son, is seriously afflicted with the rheumatism, from which we hope he will soon recover.

Mrs. Thuerstet is visiting friends at Mountain Home.

Mr. Olick and wife, of Missouri, are visiting their children here. We understand they are well pleased with the country, and we hope they will conclude to make their home in our midst.

Chas. Moran has his new barn almost completed.

George Grace is laying in the largest stock of goods that has ever been in the store which he sells at very reasonable prices.

Mr. J. Beeson gave a dance the 10th. A good time was reported.

Mr. W. Kleinmuth and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a new daughter at their place. IVAS.

Marquam.

MARQUAM, Or., Oct. 6.—Farmers are busy digging potatoes, gathering apples, and preparing for their fall sowing.

Miss Hattie Starrett, of Silverton, commenced a term of school at Marquam Monday. Miss Cecilia Higley, of Salem, is teaching the Thomas school.

Several Marquamites are visiting the exposition at Portland this week.

Saborn & Jack Bros. started their feed mill Monday, and will continue to grind for the public during the winter on Tuesday and Saturday of each week.

Mrs. E. Shirrin and her mother, Mrs. West, went to Westport Tuesday, where they will remain about two weeks visiting relatives.

The water question is again being agitated by our citizens. The facts in the case are very conclusive that plenty of good water is very essential to our town, and the sooner the project is put in effect the better.

The new M. E. church at Woodburn, which is one among the finest in Marion county, will be dedicated Sunday, October 18th.

One of Mr. H. L. Skirvin's sons shot and killed a porcupine on their farm about one mile from town this week. As these animals are very rare in this state the sight of one dead was quite a treat to some of our Web-footers.

Mr. M. Whitlock, a much respected citizen of this place, while on his stock ranch near Elk prairie, was handling a vicious bull on Monday the 5th instant, when the animal became unruly and by some mishap struck Uncle Mitch, as he is familiarly called, on the leg below the knee, breaking the limb in a most frightful manner. He was taken to his home on Butte creek the same day, and at present is resting quite easy.

Mr. John Ferguson and Miss Annie Thomas, both of Soda Springs, were married on last Tuesday.

Mr. Henry Long has about completed his new residence, which is a well planned and tasteful structure.

MARQUAM, Or., Oct. 13.—Quite a number of our farmers are shipping their fruit green to Portland where they realize a better price than when dried.

Frank Cornille killed two deer at one shot with a rifle while in the mountains one day last week.

Mr. Tubert Hook, of Mount Angel, has capped the climax on producing two of the largest sweet potatoes ever raised on Web-foot soil. They weighed 4½ and 3½ pounds. They will be sent to Portland where they will be placed on exhibition in the "Oregon on Wheels."

The Birchett boys returned from the mountains Friday where they have been hunting for the last week. Three deer was the reward for their labor. We acknowledge a good slice.

The M. E. quarterly meeting will be held at this place, commencing October 31, and will continue over Sunday.

Sheep buyers are quite frequent in these parts. Farmers are realizing a good price for their sheep, which proves that a good herd of sheep is very profitable stock to raise.

Professor M. V. Rork organized a Farmers' alliance at this place last Saturday. Thirteen were admitted as charter members, and quite a number more express themselves as desirous of becoming members.

A lamp belonging to Mr. A. V. Davis exploded in his barn last Thursday morning when he was feeding his horses. The hay caught fire in many places, but by the cool-headedness of Mr. Davis it was extinguished, not, however, without burning his hands severely. DON QUIXOTE.

MARQUAM, Oct. 8.—Our school is progressing nicely under the management of Miss Starrett.

C. E. Young of this place is on a business trip to eastern Oregon.

The daughter of G. W. Bentley who has been very sick, is improving under the care of Dr. C. B. Knight of this burg.

We are glad to learn of the convalescent state of John Hartman, one of the pioneers of Oregon, and father of our genial merchant and representative, E. M. Hartman.

Professor M. V. Rork organized an alliance on the 6th after an interesting lecture on the banking system. He is an able lecturer and well qualified for the position he occupies.

The teams of Messrs. Adams and Labour ran away on the 7th. Fortunately for Mr. Adams no damage was done to either his
