SPRAY OF THE FALLS.

Epicure Flour is the best. Try it.

Rose keeps just the cigar you want.

Fresh peanuts hot from the roaster at Rose's.

At Rose's counter in the post office building you will find the freshest candy in town.

SAVE YOUR MUSCLE—And time by purchasing the Home made mince meat at E. E. Williams, the grocer.

The finest selection of society badges and emblems ever brought to Oregon City is now on display at Mrs. Burneiser's jewelry store.

Miss Glassford's lecture on Health at Caulfield's hall last Wednesday afternoon was interesting and instructive and the attendance taxed the seating capacity of the hall to the utmost.

The card of James E. Davis & Co., real estate and mortgage loan agents of Portland, will be found in another column. The firm makes a specialty of handling city and school bonds.

MINCE MEAT—We have made arrangements with an Oregon City lady to make the best quality of mince meat for us. Only first class material used. Sold in quantity by E. E. Williams the grocer.

Postmaster Rands is corresponding with the postoffice department in the matter of having the rent of postoffice boxes here reduced from $1 for lock and 50 cents for care boxes to fifty and twenty-five cents per quarter.

The great watch sale will shortly close at Mrs. Burneiser's and you should not let the opportunity pass by to get one of those warrented Waltham or Elgin watches. It will be years before the price will be as low as it now is.

Company F boys chartered the Latona to go to Portland Wednesday night. There was a fair crowd that went to witness the contest. Lieutenant Randall, of Company F, won the 220-yard officers' race, and Thomas Moore won the 400-yard dash.

Some time ago the ENTERPRISE spoke of the first feminine hands employed in a newspaper office on the coast. These were Inez and Helen, daughters of W. L. Adams, publisher of the Oregon City Argus. The Eugene Journal furnishes the additional information in regard to these young ladies that Inez is now the wife of Hon. W. W. Parker, of Astoria, and Helen, the wife of President J. W. Johnson, of the State university at Eugene.

The jury in the Way damage case against the Oregon City Manufacturing company after being out about eight hours brought in a verdict for plaintiff, Thursday morning fixing the damage at $2000.

July 8, 1890 George Way, then a boy fifteen years old who had been feeding a garnet machine in the wollen mill a day and a half, slipped and fell so that his right hand was caught in the machine and was mangled so as to make amputation necessary. A suit for damages was brought by the boy's father and nonsuited last spring. The cause came to trial last Tuesday and it was concluded at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday evening. The jury found as noted above. There was a great deal of interest manifested in this trial. The counsel for plaintiff were McBride & Dresser and for the defendant H. E. Cross and R. H. Williams. The court room was crowded during the addresses to the jury, many ladies being in the audience.

Local Personal Notes.

John Kelly has a "case" on the Salem Statesman.

Mrs. James Hodges, of Canby, was in Oregon City, last Monday.

Major Charman is out again after having been confined by illness for nearly two weeks.

W. L. Chapman, who was steward on the the steamer Undine during the summer, has returned to his home in Clackamas.

J. G. Pillsbury is contemplating moving his family to Portland for the winter. Mr. Pillsbury will retain his desk in the land office here.

Ralph and Isaac Jacobs, of Portland, have been in town this week attending the trial of the Way damage suit against the woolen mill company.

Miss Azalee Cochran, who is a teacher in the Portland Business college, has been returning home every night, but after this week she will remain in Portland during the week.

Henry E. Smith, manager of the Willamette Pulp & Paper mills, returned from a three weeks visit in California Thursday morning and left in the evening on a business trip to New York.

George Bernard Ellerman, abstractor for the Southern Pacific railway company, was consulting the records of the land office this week in reference to Southern Pacific holdings in this district.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Andrews will leave next week for California and New Mexico. They will visit Mrs. Andrews's parents in Springer, New Mexico, and then return to California to spend the winter.

Rev. James Sutherland, of Oakland, California, was a guest of Rev. Gilman Parker last Wednesday. In the evening he gave a lecture at the Baptist church on the Evangelization of the World in the Present Generation. He went to Portland Thursday morning.

Gus Bittner is moving his family to his homestead near Mountain Home, about six miles back of Springfield, from which they were compelled to move sometime ago by the illness of Mrs. Bittner. Leaving his family on the homestead Mr. Bittner will return to this city where he has employment in the Oregon City iron works.

A. E. Davis who has been local agent and superintendent for the Portland Flouring Mills company for several years has gone to Portland where he has a position in the general offices of the company. He will soon move his family from this city to Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Davis will be greatly missed in Oregon City where they have made many friends.
