TRIAL SUBSCRIPTIONS.—The Enterprise will be sent on trial for two months for twenty-five cents. Send in a trial subscription and if you do not get your money's worth the two bits will be refunded to you. The paper will be stopped promptly at the expiration of the trial period if it is not desired longer.

COWS STILL WITH US.—There is now an ordinance making it unlawful for cattle to be at large in Oregon City between 6:30 p. m. and 6:00 a. m. from the first of October to the first of April but it is not enforced. Last Tuesday night some cows of an enquiring turn of mind paid their respects to Councilman Latourette by invading one of his new stores on Main street and besporting themselves in a manner that was both unseemly and well calculated to make votes for the cow ordinance. They ruthlessly trod upon the new cement walk thereby ruining portions of it, reposing their weary bones under the sheltering roof and did various other rude and annoying acts that characterize the inquisitive bovine. Wednesday morning they rose with the lark and betook themselves from the scene of their nocturnal enjoyment before they could be brought to account for the damage done. A farmer brought some butter and other produce to market one day this week and while he was bargaining with the merchant a voracious cow descended upon his inoffensive cart and despoiled it. The cow looked sorry when driven away, but a cow's sorrow is an awfully unmarketable product.

THE SANDY BRIDGE.—The Portland Water Commission has opened correspondence with Judge Meldrum in reference to the matter of building a bridge across the Sandy river on the line of the Herick road. Portland is preparing to take Bull Run water to supply its water works system. The supply point will be in Clackamas county and the main pipe will be laid several miles in this county. For this purpose the commission has been given permission to use the Herick road with the express understanding that their pipe should not in any manner serve as an obstruction to travel after it should be laid. The Portland people will clear the right of way themselves so Clackamas will be the gainer thereby. Now they want this county to build a bridge across the Sandy so as to facilitate the work of laying the water main. This the county commissioners are not willing to do. However, as there is considerable need of the bridge to accommodate Clackamas county people this county might be induced to share the expense of construction with the Portland people. This much has been intimated in Judge Meldrum's correspondence.

OUTING CLUB'S PARTY.—The Outing club gave its first formal dancing party of the season at the armory Thursday evening of last week. It was an entirely successful affair. The floor committee was composed of T. P. Randall, I. Ackerman, F. S. Kelly, B. F. Borch jr. and F. J. Louis. The program consisted of eighteen numbers. The following were present and participated in the dance: Misses Lura Miller, Birdie Shaw, May Kelly, Lou, Blattie, and Azalie Cochran, Cora Harding, Amy Kelly, Etta Pope, Grace and Winnie Williams, Sophia Logua, Mamie Charman, Mary Conyers, Mabel Ragland, Minnie Ackerman, Vera Pillsbury, Mrs. J. Cook, Mrs. Albert Fuller, Ned Townsend, J. Cook, I. and W. Ackerman, Ralph Miller, H. S. Salisbury, H. J. Thorne, C. G. and W. A. Huntley, F. D. Bruce, C. W. Stratton, A. Fuller, M. Rosenbaum, B. F. Borch jr., R. L. Holman, W. B. Wiggins, J. P. Lovett, W. N. Lang, A. Lewthwaite, Ned Driggs, F. S. Kelly, A. C. Warner, J. W. Shaw, and J. Lee, and G. H. Berger, and W. N. Gatens, of Portland.

ROBBED A SAFE.—Fred Fisher, a boy about nineteen years of age who has been living with his father near Elyville, was standing by the safe in Fred Ely's store at Elyville last Saturday afternoon intently watching a game of checkers that was being played near by. The safe door was closed but the combination dial was not turned. Subsequently a sum of money was missed from the safe and suspicion was directed to young Fisher who was arrested charged with the theft. When taken into custody he admitted his guilt and afterward restored the money—$40 in gold and a check for $12.50. He had been engaged in teaming but was out of work and said he took the money to enable him to leave the country. He was examined before Justice Fouts Monday morning and bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $250. He could not furnish bail so he went to jail. He is not considered very bright intellectually.

TEACHERS WHO GOT CERTIFICATES.—Thirty-five teachers of Clackamas county attended the regular quarterly examination at the court house last week—the largest number that ever attended an examination in this county. Superintendent Thomson and Examiners Rands and Gurley had charge of the work. There were no applicants for state certificates. The examination of papers was not concluded till Monday when certificates were issued to the following names: A. J. Yoder, Helen Taylor, G. W. Stricklin, C. E. Cone, Amy Taylor, Mrs. M. L. Greentree, Ina Thomas, Minnie Harrington, Hattie Starritt, Joseph Lee, L. T. Anderson, Jess Waldron, Edith Glasspool, Annie Thompson, O. H. Byland, A. W. Beattie, Seymour Landon, H. A. Ball, J. R. Marsh, J. W. Chinn, Frank Austin, H. H. Hand, P. M. Weddell, E. Darniel, Jessie Robson.

COMPANY F IN PORTLAND.—Company F boys took the customary number of prizes at the Portland tournament last week though they did not win the tug of war. The tug of war team was F. S. Kelly anchor, Sidney Smyth, L. Gardner, and William Howell but the anchor man of the opposing team was a Portland athlete who was chiefly instrumental in instituting these games, a Harvard athletic champion who is practically a professional. Lieutenant Randall, of Company F, won the 223-yard race. The fifty-yard dash was won by Thomas Moore, of Company F as was also the 44-yard dash. A Y. M. C. A. young man by the name Bennett caused one or two unpleasant scenes and the managers finally were so unchristian as to make him leave the hall. So Company F got considerably more prizes than any other company in the regiment.

THE STAGE OF THE RIVER.—According to the daily record of the stage of water in the river, kept by Capt. Pratt at the Imperial mill dock, the lowest water this year was October 9-13 when it was .3 of a foot below mean low water mark above the falls and .8 of a foot below that mark. The highest water for the month was on the last day the upper river was 3.1 feet above mean low water and the lower river 6.7 above. The river has been at a fair navigable stage since the twenty-fifth of October. The highest point reached was 4.5 feet above in the upper river and 9 feet above in the lower November 11. The first week of October last year the water stood .2 of a foot below mean low water, upper, and .9 below, lower, and the highest point was 3 above, upper, and .5 above, lower, October 22-23.

DEATH OF AN OLD OREGONIAN.—James G. Swafford, probate judge and postmaster at Snohomish, Washington, died Wednesday of last week, nearly eighty years of age. Judge Swafford was an Iowan who came across the plains and settled in Oregon City in 1849. He was one of the first carpenters to ply his trade here. He went East and returned as captain of an immigrant train in 1852, and in that train was E. W. Swafford, who has lived in Oregon City since that date. He now resides with his son, J. L. Swafford, who was born here. Judge James G. Swafford remained here twelve or fourteen years when he went to Portland about twenty years ago he moved to Snohomish where he accumulated a competence and was held in much esteem by the people.

TOWNSHIP MAPS.—Three years ago the project of making accurate maps of the townships of Clackamas county was taken and several hundred dollars spent on it without carrying it far enough to reach a useful result. H. Ranft, who is engaged in doing a job of this kind for private parties, made the county a proposition to complete the set of township maps and his proposition was accepted. The maps will show all the county roads and the present owners of all the real property. The cost of the set will approximate $800 but more than that sum will be saved to the county in one year by the additional thoroughness with which the county assessor's work may be done by their aid. These maps have long been needed.

IMPROVEMENTS IN FALLS VIEW.—Quite a number of improvements have been made in Falls View addition this season. Several handsome cottages have been erected there and it seems to be growing in favor as a residence district. E. W. Scott is now building a two-story cottage 24x24 at the corner of Prospect and East streets and directly across East is another frame cottage 16x24 with a wing being built by David Fancher. Both of them will be completed this year and they will be occupied by the families of the respective owners. Steps are being taken to build a substantial sidewalk to Falls View in a more direct line to the business center of town than is now traversed by residents of that locality.

WARRANT FOR SEVENTH STREET TAKES.—In accordance with the action of the council at its last regular meeting Recorder Porter has issued a warrant to the city collector to "forthwith levy upon the following lots and parts of lots of the delinquent assessment payers for the improvement of Seventh street in Oregon City, or so much thereof as will satisfy the amount charged and due thereon with costs and expenses." The notices were served by Collector Green Wednesday and the work of closing up the matter will proceed in legal form. Dr. Welch whose assessment amounted to $193, there being but five on the list who owe larger sums, paid his assessment this week. There are upwards of thirty remaining unpaid.

PRESSED BRICK PLANT COMING.—Mr. Welch, of the firm of Welch & Hamilton, Portland building contractors, is negotiating for machinery for a pressed brick plant which he intends setting up here in the spring. Mr. Welch recently moved to Oregon City. He is a practical brick-maker and has found a superior quality of clay for brick making at several points in the outskirts of the city. Pressed brick and ornamental work will be the product of this institution when it gets in operation.

THE OAKLEY ESTATE.—A petition to admit to probate the last will and testament of Samuel J. Oakley, who died at his home near Barlow station last July, was presented in Judge Meldrum's court last Monday. The will also was filed. The will was executed in Peekskill, New York. The petition asked for the appointment of Reuben Wright as administrator with will annexed. The estate consists of property located just beyond Barlow valued at between $3000 and $4000.

SIDEWALKS AND FIRE PLUGS.—Until a year ago last October the legal width of sidewalks on Main street was eight feet. An ordinance adopted on the first of October, 1890, made the legal width ten feet. The street hydrants had been previously erected at the outer edge of the eight-foot walks and as the new ten-foot walks are built the hydrants of course are within the space designed for pedestrians, and are a source of annoyance and an eyesore.

ROAD COMMITTEE MEETS.—The board of trade committee on roads to which was referred the matter of making preliminary arrangements for improving the road to Molalla and Marquam held a meeting last evening (Thursday) at the office of H. E. Cross. The reason promoter action was not had is that Mr. Cross, who is chairman of the committee was very busy with business in circuit court, but the matter will now be pushed.

A MORNING FIRE ALARM.—The chimney in the Cliff House dining room burned out Tuesday morning and it made such a fuss about it that some one was constrained to sound a fire alarm. No damage was done, however, and it was not necessary for the fire brigade to turn out. But a large number of people arose from their couches at precisely 7:15 o'clock Tuesday morning.

ELECTRIC REPAIRS.—A force of half a dozen linemen are in town this week overhauling the electric wires and putting up new lamps. They raised eighteen inches and re-stretched the cable on which the car runs over the basin between the railway track and the power house making it much easier to load and unload the car.

THANKSGIVING TURKEYS.—Leave orders at Humphrey's fishmarket for the fattest and best turkeys that will be brought to the Oregon City market. Fresh oysters, clams, halibut and other salt fish.

FOR RENT.—Four rooms, opposite the postoffice, suitable for offices or light housekeeping. Apply to Benjamin Jaggar or Thayer & Alden, Oregon City.

A Yard of Roses.—One of the popular paintings at the New York Academy of Design was a yard long panel of roses. A crowd was always before it. One art critic exclaimed, "Such a bit of nature should belong to all the people, it is too beautiful for one man to hide away."

The Youth's Companion, of Boston, seized the idea, and spent twenty thousand dollars to reproduce the painting. The result has been a triumph of artistic delicacy and color.

The Companion makes an autumn gift of this copy of the painting to each of its five hundred thousand subscribers. Any others who may subscribe now for the first time, and request it, will receive "The Yard of Roses," without extra charge while the edition lasts.

Besides the gift of this beautiful picture all new subscribers will receive The Companion free from the time the subscription is received till January first, including the Thanksgiving and Christmas double numbers, and for a full year from that date. The price of The Companion is $1.75 a year. Every family should take this brightest and best of illustrated literary papers in addition to its local paper.

AYER'S PILLS

Everywhere considered the most effective remedy for constipation, indigestion, and headache. Being sugar-coated and fully vegetable, they are without equal as family medicine. For all derangements of digestive and excretory organs, no other are so universally approved.

For a long time my wife was a sufferer in dysentery, the best physicians in this city being unable to afford her any relief. At length we concluded to try Ayer's Pills, and after taking three boxes she was cured.—J. B. Smith, Blue Ridge Springs, Va.

During the past 26 years I have used Ayer's Pills in my family for all derangements of the stomach, liver, and bowels, and for colds. They have never failed to bed.—Prof. Chauncey Hedgesman, A. M., Business College, Woodside, Newark, N. J.

Ayer's Pills are the best I have ever used for headaches, and they act like a charm in relieving any disagreeable sensation in the stomach after eating.—Mrs. M. J. Ferguson, Ross, Va.

I am never without a box of Ayer's Pills in my house.—Mrs. Edwin Bartow, 425 Hill st., Buffalo, N. Y.

About Perfumes.

When we use Perfumes, we certainly should use only the BEST; and judges of perfume—good judges, you know—say there are only four or five perfumers who make the best—that is, the VERY BEST. There are a dozen
