Happenings in Localities Outside of Oregon City—Industrial Items—Neighborhood Notes.

Milwaukie.

MILWAUKIE, Nov. 24.—The Milwaukie ferry has been laid up for repairs, but will be running again in three weeks. Considerable complaint is being made about the poor walks around town. If every one would fix the walk in front of his place it would give the burg a better appearance.

Miss Josephine Pahlé just returned from a pleasure trip to The Dalles. Work on the bridge which is being constructed across the waterway is progressing slowly owing to the rain.

Clackamas.

CLACKAMAS, Nov. 25.—Mrs. W. A. Holmes has arrived from the East.

At the debating society high license and local option versus prohibition was decided in favor of the negative. About a dozen applications for membership were received. C. E. Pease and E. C. Hamilton were appointed leaders for the next question which is, "Resolved, That the cruelties of Russia have been equalled by the infamous acts of England."

Workmen are busy on the new hall building. Hamilton & Allen have stopped all credit business.

The mill has plenty of fruit boxes for ten and twelve cents. TERRELL.

Mountain View.

MT. VIEW, Nov. 25.—Fred Ely has sold five lots at figures ranging from $200 to $300.

Mr. Hall is building a "Traveler's Home" where the farmer will be furnished with a good square meal and his horses taken care of at a moderate cost.

George C. Ely has sold a lot to Mr. Frost who contemplates the erection of a neat cottage thereon in the near future.

Frost & May have just completed a fine house for George Ely who finds no trouble in keeping all his houses rented in advance.

Mr. Francis has completed his cottage and occupies the same.

Darling's feed mill is a success; its busy hum is heard continually.

Sandy.

SANDY, Nov. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. Ole Mickelson rejoice in the birth of a daughter, born November 21.

J. H. Revenue has been adding extensively to his large stock of merchandise and has made many important changes since taking possession. His father, Francis Revenue, has retired to the farm where he lives a quiet life and seems healthy and active for one in his seventy-ninth year.

Mr. Henry McGugan's new house is almost completed. It is tastefully built and nicely painted, and much improves the landscape on the north side.

Mr. Hood lodge farmers' alliance still lives. Hereafter the meeting at 2 P. M. on the first Saturday of each month will be open to the public. After the business usual in such organizations the program will be songs by the choir, essays, and readings on the science of government. Every one invited to attend and participate. The meeting on the third Saturday of each month is closed for initiatory work.

WOODRAT.

Carus.

CARUS, Nov. 30.—Farmers in this vicinity are busy between showers plowing and seeding or digging potatoes.

Mr. Miller and family recently moved into the house lately occupied by Mr. H. C. Higley. We do not understand that he has rented the land.

Mr. Casto has been lately interviewing some of us in the matter of starting a grange. We trust that he may be successful in locating one at this point.

"Hic-hic-hic—aren't we a jolly crowd! See here, my boy! hic—you'd better not take too much out of that—hic—bottle till you know—hic—what it will do to you." Four young men whose ages vary from fourteen to twenty-two, celebrated Thanksgiving night "not wisely but too well." With utterances like the above, and others more or less polite, they tumbled about in drunken glee, smashing rocks and tramping mud till they presented a pitiful yet ludicrous sight.

Marquam.

MARQUAM, Nov. 24.—Farmers are busy digging their spuds.

Scarcely any fall wheat has been sown. Several of our hop men are disposing of their crop at fifteen cents per pound.

Mt. Angel and vicinity is badly infested with petty thieves.

Quite a number of immigrants are locating in our midst.

"The roads are in a miserable condition" is the general by-word with pedestrians, but how to remedy them and make passable that which is impassable is where the sticking point lies.

Dr. Casto, of New Era, visited our grange last Saturday and had a very pleasant time during his visit.

Mr. Allen Graves of Molalla has moved to his rented farm near town.

Miss Anna Thompson commenced a term of school in the Jabour district Monday.

The grange association in connection with their store of general merchandise will pack pork during the winter season.

Mr. Bentley is clerking for Mr. Hartman since the absence of J. P. Heckart, a former clerk.

Central Point.

CENTRAL POINT, Nov. 28.—Protracted meetings have been going on at the M. E. church this week. Mr. Richards, of Portland, assisting our circuit minister. Grandma Findly has been quite ill of late but is getting somewhat better. She is nearly four score years of age.

Mr. Gilbreath on the John Haley place has taken a job of slaying twenty acres for Mr. G. Gotpellet for five dollars per acre.

Henry Waldron says he wants the people to understand that it is too late to dig potatoes this year, as he has just finished digging his crop of nine hundred bushels.

Somebody with a desire for mischief was passing by Mr. Wilcox's house last week and took the pleasure of shooting his dog.

The presence of Seba Norton and son was noticed in our midst last week.

A pleasant time was had at the pink tea social last Tuesday evening. Sixteen dollars were raised toward getting the new organ.

B. N. Harrington of Mountain View is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. E. J. Waldron.

Beaver Creek.

BEAVER CREEK, Dec. 1.—J. W. Cahill steps high now—it is a boy, born November 15.

Mr. H. P. Eastman spent Thanksgiving with his family.

William Miller will not farm Mrs. Stoker's place as was his intention but has moved on the Graham farm near Carus.

The Stoker boys have rented their mother's farm and have already done considerable plowing.

Charles Rider will go today to Independence to visit the family of his uncle, O. D. Rider, and will be absent about one week.

Rev. Lowther is holding a protracted meeting at the Central Point church assisted by several visiting ministers. It will continue for some weeks or as long as active interest is maintained.

At the Central Point literary society next Saturday evening the question, Resolved, That dancing is an innocent pastime, will be debated with the sides represented as follows: affirmative, David Penman, M. Hyatt, Lottie Eastman and Ellen Brown; negative, Lester M. Leland, G. S. Randall, Maggie and Isabel McArthur.

Cahill's sawmill is not running, as no lumber can be handled owing to the fearful condition of the roads. NATIVE.

Oswego.

OSWEGO, Nov. 30.—Mr. William Bell, of Woodburn, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Albert Bullock.

Prof. Griffith, of Portland, gave a series of lectures on phrenology on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

Miss Shonig has been at G. W. Prosser's the past week.

A new lumber yard has been established in the new town by J. D. Eaton.

An entertainment was given at the Congregational church Thanksgiving evening.

G. W. Prosser intends to enlarge his dancing hall for the Christmas ball.

Miss Annie Burns, of Portland, is visiting the Misses O'Brien.

Andy Hodge wears a snail—a boy, you know.

The band boys will give a negro minstrel concert before long.

Mrs. James Kiser and family were visiting in Oswego last week.

Quite a number of Oswegoites are on the sick list. Mrs. T. Brown, Mrs. P. Worthington, Jennie Hallman, and the Misses Fio Dyer and Bessie Fox. We hope for their speedy recovery.

Jean and Philo Zimmerman of Portland were in Oswego last week.

The drug store has been repainted inside by E. L. Davidson, the popular young druggist. TORY.

Hazelia.

HAZELIA, Nov. 28.—An entertainment was given by the school children Thanksgiving eve. The school room was tastefully decorated with evergreens and flowers. The products of the farms, orchards and gardens were represented in the pieces of sheaves of grain, fruit, and the beautiful pumpkin. This was the first entertainment of the kind ever given in the district and was a decided success. The scarlet fever has had its run; all the children are again able to attend school. There is now no sickness in our neighborhood.

J. B. Hays and family are visiting relatives at Sherwood.

A. B. Shipley spent several days visiting his sons here. He says Corvallis is a pleasant place to live in, but not like Hazelia.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Carter and son of Albina gave their old neighbors a short call last week.

Mrs. A. W. Shipley has a little niece staying with her while the parents are visiting in the East.

Rev. R. M. Jones and family of Oswego spent Thanksgiving at the house of O. Eaton.

This morning's "Iron Worker" is at hand. Each week its strength increases and we hope ere long to see it an eight page paper. H.

Park Place Notes.

PARK PLACE, Dec. 2.—Parties in this vicinity intend to meet in the near future and organize a literary society.

We understand the Empire Manufacturing Company of this place intends to increase its capacity and will give employment to many more men than at present, and will turn out a large amount of first grade furniture.

Mrs. Halwachs who has been lying very low at her home at this place for a long time with a fever is now convalescing and is able to be around once more.

Arrangements are now being made, committees appointed, and all are busy at work preparing a program for Christmas tree exercises to take place Christmas eve, December 24th, at the Congregational chapel. The outlook seems promising and we expect to have a grand good time on that occasion.

The Himmelaar brothers are making drifts each evening in the Clackamas and are catching quite a number of fish which they ship each day or two to Portland. Messrs. Huertli & Straight also catch their share of salmon, as do Messrs. Rickards, Wheeler and others. The fishing industry is good although the high water proves a detriment at times.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. White, formerly of this place, spent Thanksgiving with their friends Mr. and Mrs. Witzig.

Mrs. M. Frazen and son, accompanied by her sister, Miss Penny, returned to her home last week after an absence of several weeks.

Grandma Welch was moved to Portland last week to be nursed and taken care of at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Welch. Grandma leaves a host of friends at Park Place who hope that she may regain her usual health.

Frog Pond.

FROG POND, Nov. 24.—We have been having a few fine days during Thanksgiving which went off very nicely out here.

The dance given in Tualatin grange hall by Frank Kruse, John Tyler and Albert Turner was a grand success. Had sixty-two numbers and a fine crowd, and everybody seemed to enjoy themselves.

Tualatin grange met yesterday with a good attendance and performed their regular routine of business. Mr. Henry Robb took the first and second degrees of the order. The next meeting will be held December 10th for the election of officers and initiations.

A good many farmers are improving the fine weather by plowing and digging potatoes. I don't think the usual amount of wheat has been sown here this fall on account of so much rain.

John Kruse sold his wheat last Monday at Oregon City for $1.02 per bushel.

George Evans from Portland is visiting his father for a few days. He was one of the boys of Frog Pond in years gone by. Now he is in the game and poultry business in Portland.

Tualatin Secular union meets next Sunday and a good attendance is expected. J. Q. Gags is the editor of the paper and we expect a good one from him as he is generally up with the times.

Mr. Moser has bought a new cabinet organ and his two boys are going to take music lessons from Homer Kruse.

Misses Mary and Amy Andrews, who have been stopping at John Kruse's for the past month, went to visit old friends in the vicinity of Canby for a few days. Tuesday they will go to Astoria, Marion county, to visit a sister they have not seen for nine years and will return here to spend the holidays. They seem to like our part of the country very much.

The Frog Pond butcher, A. Case, was married last Wednesday at Mount Taylor to Miss Mileni, lately from the East. He made a fine choice and we hope his life will be happy with bright sunshine all through.

Mrs. Frank Burger went to Portland yesterday to visit friends and relatives for a few days.

Mrs. John Kruse returned home Monday from Portland where she has been visiting her niece, Mrs. Cadillac Crane, and her sister, Mrs. Lizzie Kent. While there she fell down stairs and sprained her ankle severely but she is able to be around right now.

Ben Turner, from Dayton, Washington, is expected to arrive in Frog Pond the coming week to stay all winter, and in the spring he intends to go to Missouri, his birth place, on a visit.

Geo. Saum, our saw mill man, is turning out lots of fine lumber now. This is a fine fall for water mills. They can do lots of work.

I understand there has been a farmers' alliance organized in Pleasant Hill precinct, the only one on this side of the river. H. M. D.

New Era School Entertainment.

Thanksgiving evening the New Era school assisted by the young people of the place gave an entertainment under the management of Miss Midge Hill. The following well rendered selections constituted the program:

Opening Song—Serenade. Recitation—The First Thanksgiving; Frank Burnham. Essay, Thanksgiving—Katie Mott.

Recitation, Liberty—Herman Burgoyne. Recitation, The Umbrella Brigade—Eddie Bradel.

Instrumental Music—Myrtle Howell. Dialogue, The Ghost in the Kitchen—Several Characters.

Recitation, The Feast of Board—Katie Mott. Recitation, Shopping—Katie Newberry.

Song, Before Recess—By the School. Recitation, The Belle of Modern Society—Siddie Hill.

Recitation, The Isle of Long Ago—Sadie Burnham. Instrumental Music—Myrtle Howell.

Dialogue, The Bashful Young Man—Several Characters.

Recitation, My Experiences in Farming—Willie Newberry.

Song, Christine Leroy and Sadie Burnham. Recitation, Oh, why should the spirit of me be proud?—Midge Hill.

Recitation, The New Church Organ—Myrtle Howell. Song, My Mother is Dead and Gone—Ellen Brown.

Recitation, Aunt Tabitha—Della Judy. Recitation, Grandma's Pumpkin Pie—Willie Riel.

After the program was exhausted baskets, each containing supper enough for two, were sold to the highest bidder. The baskets spoke well for the ladies of New Era. Many of them were models of beauty, and all contained a bountiful, old-fashioned Thanksgiving supper. A cake containing a gold ring was then cut and sold by the slice. The proceeds of the entertainment were $20.00 which will be used for painting the school building.

Mr. Myers Feels Hit.

TO THE EDITOR: I see by your last paper of the 26th an article headed "An attempt to fuse." Now Mr. Editor, we would like to have your authority, giving names. Being one of the alliance officers I shall deem it an injustice to the county alliance officers as well as to myself unless you give your authority, and if you refuse we will consider the source from whence it came, etc. I am thinking that you cut your fuse a little too short and your gun went off before you got ready. So far as fusion is concerned I have the first alliance officer to meet that advocates it, either state or county. We expect a fusion but the people's party will not be in the fusion. Demo-republicans will though, all the same Kansas, Nebraska and South Dakota—when? W. W. MYERS.
