Local Personal Notes. E. P. Rands has been laid up with the grip all the week. J. F. Risley from Risley's landing was in town Saturday.

Alfred Beatie, of Pendleton, is visiting friends in Oregon City. Miss Lena McCown is home from Hubbard to spend the holiday vacation.

Miss Nora Scates, of Portland, is spending the holiday season with Mrs. C. A. Hermann. Alvin and John Baird came up from Portland and spent Christmas with relatives and friends here.

Dr. W. B. Morse, of Salem, was in the city over Sunday night the guest of his cousin, Dr. O. Yergain. Misses Ana Baird and Gertrude Finley are home from the Monmouth Normal school for the holiday vacation.

Misses Ella Buck and Louise Bell, of Portland, visited at C. O. T. Williams's Christmas, returning home Saturday. S. M. Ramsby and Geo. Hungeat, of Molalla, were in Oregon City, Monday on business before the U. S. land office.

Miss Alice Risley, of Risley's landing, and Miss Ella Buck, of Portland, were the guests of Miss Nellie Waits last Saturday. Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Giboney are visiting Mrs. Giboney's parents, at Lebanon. There was no service in the Presbyterian church last Sunday.

J. H. Rolston, a well known mechanic of this city, at present employed by the Southern Pacific railroad as foreman of one of their bridge gangs in Southern Oregon, was home for Christmas with his family.

Among the young people who attended the Knights of Pythias ball here last Christmas night were the following from McMinnville: Misses Edith Wallace, Anna Adams, Josie Gardner and Ella Olds, and Messrs. A. B. Appersen, P. D. Glenn, J. E. Durham, Wayne Carlyn and W. Gardner.

MR. LATOURETTE EXPLAINS. He Favored Improvements, but Feared the Council's Proceeding was Defective. To THE EDITOR: Inasmuch as your issue of last week contained a libellous article subscribed "Indignant Citizen" which adverts to a matter of public concern...

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH AND SEVENTH STREET.—While the petition filed in the Seventh street injunction matter alleges that the name of the Presbyterian church was signed without authority to the petition for the improvement of the street the fact is that the church has paid its assessment and is well pleased with the improvement.

SALE OF SEVENTH STREET LOTS.—Last Saturday City Collector Green, according to the notice duly given sold the property of the Seventh street delinquents, except that of those in the combine that enjoined the sale. Those whose property was sold and the amount of each was as follows: Caleb Cross $109, T. P. Randall and Mrs. G. W. Church $408, Mrs. Melinda Welsh $17 and the William Demeut estate $175.50.

A NEW UNITED BRETHREN CHURCH.—The United Brethren denomination appears to be flourishing in Clackamas county. A new church was erected in Oregon City in 1891 and now a church building is under construction at Harmony about two miles below Clackamas, that will be a frame structure similar to the one in this city.

building is under construction at Harmony about two miles below Clackamas, that will be a frame structure similar to the one in this city. Its ground dimensions are 20x40 feet. John B. Sumner, of this city, is foreman and most of the necessary labor is contributed by the people of that locality.

TREASURY WASHED OUT.—The railway trestle across a marshy spot at the edge of the Willamette a short distance this side of New Era washed out Monday afternoon. The track gave way just after a construction train had crossed. The construction crew at once went to work to repair the structure and had it in shape to permit the passage of trains Tuesday. During the interval passengers were transferred. The trains from the south lay at Canby until the trestle was rebuilt.

Many citizens are receiving sample copies of papers and magazines through the postoffice. This is an arrangement of the Book Store man, W. A. Huntley, who presents them with his compliments and would be pleased to receive and forward any subscriptions entrusted to his care.

Local Personal Notes. E. P. Rands has been laid up with the grip all the week. J. F. Risley from Risley's landing was in town Saturday.

Miss May Kelly is a victim of the prevailing fad, the grip. Alfred Beatie, of Pendleton, is visiting friends in Oregon City. Miss Lena McCown is home from Hubbard to spend the holiday vacation.

Frank Borek and Frank Vandouyn spent Sunday with their friends in Salem. Thos. Shute of Clackamas, was one of the callers at the Extraneous office Saturday.

ANOTHER BIG CONCERN. The Plant of the Portland Flouring Mills Company in Oregon City.

The Oregon City plant of the Portland Flouring Mills company includes two large mills having a capacity for turning out 900 barrels of flour daily, and an elevator with storage capacity of 200,000 bushels. It gets its supply of wheat in the Willamette valley, about 20,000 bushels being delivered direct to the mills by the farmers of the county.

The present large mill was built in 1862 upon the ground where stood the small one of Dr. McLoughlin's that was carried away by the flood of the preceding year. Daniel Harvey, a son-in-law of Dr. McLoughlin's, built and owned the mill. It finally came into possession of the present owners, and is one of their most valuable properties.

Thirty-three men are required to operate the whole plant. Its situation is such that grain from boats and cars are landed direct into the mills or elevator and shipments of flour are made both ways. The equipment is modern in every respect and the product unsurpassed in quality. The Oregon City mills constitute the largest flour manufacturing plant in the Willamette valley.

BANK OF OREGON CITY. Oregon City is not without substantial monetary institutions with good solid backing. The oldest of these is the Bank of Oregon City at the corner of Main and Sixth streets.

From a small beginning it has seen the banking business of the city grow to good proportions, and from the first it has grown in the confidence and respect of the business men of this community. No thought of uneasiness ever crosses the mind of the depositor as he passes his money over the counter of the Bank of Oregon City. He knows that his money is safer than in his own pocket.

The officers are well known as solid business men of the city and are as follows: President, Thomas Charman; vice-president, Geo. A. Harding, cashier, E. G. Caulfield; manager, Charles H. Caulfield.

THE CLIFF HOUSE. The Cliff House, under the management of John Bitner, is too widely and well known to require an introduction to the eating public. This hostelry is conveniently located to the business part of the city and within sight and sound of the great falls of the Willamette which not only purify the air making the vicinity healthy, but the sound of the waters soothes the tired and induces restful sleep.

Everything is kept neat and orderly and guests will be sure of the best of treatment. Lounges, mattresses, etc., can be bought cheaper at Holman's than any place in the city, because they are manufactured in his shop, and he gives his customers the commission others must pay to Portland dealers.

Notice. To GILLIE L. MOODIE, A MINOR, AND TO ALL PARTIES INTERESTED: You are hereby notified that an application for the appointment of a guardian of said Gillie L. Moodie has been filed in the County Court of Clackamas County, State of Oregon, and will come up for hearing at the Court House in Oregon City, said County and State on the first Monday of February, A. D. 1892, and if you fail to appear or fail to nominate a guardian, such appointment will be made by the Judge of said Court as prayed for in the application on file.

Wm. R. Wade. Wm. R. Wade has recently established himself in business on upper Seventh street at the southwest corner of John Quincy Adams street, where he has erected a neat store and stocked with a line of groceries which he offers at exceedingly low prices.

CROCKERY AND FANCY WORK. At No. 5 Commercial Bank on the east side of Main street between Fifth and Sixth streets is located G. W. Rich's crockery house where may be found a full assortment of crockery, glass, chinaware and lamps—in fact everything usually kept in a first class crockery store.

Ladies and others desiring fancy work of any description or material, or designs for fancy work will find at Mrs. G. W. Rich's fancy goods emporium, occupying one corner of the crockery store, just what they want. Mrs. Rich is just from the East, where she was thoroughly familiar with the latest styles and designs, and is securing her materials and novelties in her line direct from Boston, so her patrons may be certain of getting the very latest styles of materials from here.

BUSINESS LOCALS. Remember our cigars are all thoroughly seasoned as we have an improved ventilated Edison cigar case. Charman & Co. Hamilton & Washburn at the Park Place Store do quote prices on all goods lower than elsewhere. Call and judge for yourselves. R. I. Holman, undertaker and embalmer, Oregon City bank building. Room at left of head of stairs over store building.

For Sale. A Holstein-Friesian bull, a year old. Apply to J. S. Risley & Sons, Risley's Landing, opposite Oswego, Or. 2-137

Taken Up. Came into my enclosure at the United States Fish hatchery, on or about Nov. 30, 1891, a mare colt supposed to be about three years old, no marks except bay with star in forehead. Owner will please call, prove property, pay expenses and take the animal away. JOHN A. BYER, Clackamas, Or.

About Perfumes. When we use Perfumes, we certainly should use only the BEST, and judges of perfume—good judges, you know—say there are only four or five perfumers who make the best—that is, the VERY BEST. There are a dozen
