MIND READING AND MUSIC.—Thursday evening of last week Carl King gave an exhibition of mind-reading at Shively's theater. The exhibition had not been well advertised so there were only fifty people in the audience but Mr. King gave a very creditable demonstration of his remarkable powers. He invited on the stage, C. O. Albright, J. W. Noble, L. L. Porter, H. J. Livermore, G. W. Church and J. S. Purdon as a committee to observe the faithfulness of his actions. Several articles unknown to Mr. King were put in the pockets of a coat which was deposited on a chair in the midst of the audience. He was blindfolded, and placing his left hand between the two hands of the person who collected and concealed the articles who was directed to keep his mind on them, he proceeded to discover their whereabouts. The first effort with C. O. Albright was not a success but with Mr. Noble King had no trouble in promptly locating the hidden articles. Mr. Porter took a pin and made a hole with it in the wallpaper and then hid it under the lapel of Mr. Noble's coat. King, blindfolded, readily discovered and obtained pin, and going down in the auditorium put it in the exact hole made by it in the first place. His last act was to take hold of an ordinary piece of steel wire about ten feet long, three men who had previously gone from the hall and hid some articles unknown to the mind-reader taking the other end of the wire, and going outside, descend the stairs to a wood pile where a jack knife had been concealed and find it. King was wrought up to a high pitch of excitement during these demonstrations. Dr. Carl found his pulse 130 at one time. The Spanish Troubadours discoursed some very excellent music during the evening.

THE OSWEGO IRON MINES.—The Oswego iron mines and the smelter have shut down temporarily while a new lining is being put in the furnace. The pipe foundry continues running. County Surveyor Smyth has been engaged a portion of the time for several weeks in surveying the main tunnels and chambers in the mines and has made accurate maps and sectional views of some of them. He also set the boiler at the mouth of the new tunnel where most of the ore will hereafter be taken out. This tunnel is 825.7 feet long and the inner end is 79.36 feet lower than the outer. The two other tunnels will practically be abandoned when the new one is put in working order, and the new facilities will be better than ever before enjoyed there. The roof of the new engine-house will extend out to the bunkers 115 feet above the railroad track. In one of the chambers imbedded in the iron ore was found a complete cedar tree, roots, branches and all in a carbonized state. Petrified wood is common but this specimen is rare and pieces of the tree were sent to the Columbia college and the Smithsonian institute. This tree was found about 800 feet inside the mouth of the tunnel and 200 feet below the surface of the ground and is said to date back to a period 50,000 years ago.

FOUND NOT GUILTY.—Daisy Burley had a jury trial before Justice Fouts last Saturday on the charge of stealing a hat valued at $3 from Mrs. J. A. Bates. It was alleged that while working for Mrs. Lovejoy Daisy Burley feloniously and with malice prepenes possessed herself of the article of adornment dear to the feminine heart—the $3 hat—and two witnesses were produced who swore they saw defendant wearing the article in question. However, when all the circumstances of the case were considered the jury brought in a verdict of acquittal. Assistant District Attorney Drusser conducted the prosecution and D. C. Latourrette the defense.

FLAGS ON THE SCHOOL HOUSE.—About forty of the 106 public school houses in Clackamas county have national flags varying in size from five feet to fourteen feet in length. With one exception these were obtained by the children of the school clubbing together to raise the necessary money. On the school houses that have not flag staffs for displaying the colors they are draped in the school room so as to be always within sight of the pupils. The one instance where the school children did not purchase the flag is Damascus. Some two years ago the Youth's Companion offered a prize of a fine bunting flag in each state to its pupil who should write the best essay on the influence of the flag in the Public Schools and Miss Myrtle Breithaupt of the Damascus school won the prize for Oregon. She was about fourteen years of age. Since then she has taken pains to correspond with the flag winners in many of the states and in a number of cases essays and photographs have been exchanged. The winner in South Carolina was a bright little colored girl.

HELD FOR EMBEZZLEMENT.—On complaint of H. M. James, agent for Koehler & Chase, of Portland, J. H. Way was arrested Monday charged with embezzlement of $75. His examination was fixed for Tuesday and upon furnishing a satisfactory bond in the sum of $250 for his appearance he was released. The evidence submitted at the examination was to the effect that Way had on or about January 1, 1891, sold an organ to F. Moehnke, which he made no account of to the company owning the instrument, although he received the cash for it. Justice Fouts bound Way over to the grand jury in the sum of $500 which he has been unable to raise, so he languishes in durance vile. The complainant alleges that he has a number of accounts which he will press against Way in case this one should for any reason fail of convicting. He claims Way's embezzlements amount to several hundreds of dollars.

A PRESENTATION.—M. W. Randall, being himself an accomplished musician, has at various times assisted the Willamette silver cornet band, though he does not belong to that organization. As an evidence of their appreciation of his service and friendly interest the band boys repaired to Mr. Randall's home on the hill last Tuesday night and "breathed through their mellow horns their pensive souls" a short season. Of course they were invited in the house and when the proper time arrived one of the boys bore in and presented a fine silver castor on which was inscribed, "Presented to Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Randall by the Willamette Silver Cornet Band." To say that Mr. and Mrs. Randall were taken entirely by surprise but mildly expresses it. However, the boys were very hospitably entertained and the occasion was made one of mutual pleasure and gratification.

NEW POSTOFFICE BOXES.—Two hundred and twenty-six lock boxes and four drawers this week were added to the box room in the postoffice, taking the place of a number of old call boxes and boxes with dilapidated locks and of uncouth appearance. The old ones will be removed that they may not longer offend the eye and good taste of the patrons of the office. The new boxes are of neat modern style and were furnished by a New Hampshire firm at a cost of about $300. Most of them are already rented. The new section of boxes affords long-needed accommodations and puts the postoffice more in shipshape. Postmaster Rands has reason to be proud of his efforts for improvements. The rent of lock boxes has been reduced from $1 to fifty cents a quarter; the new rate dating from the first of January.

THE REPUBLICANS MEET.—In accordance with the call in last week's ENTERPRISE there was a republican meeting at Pope's hall last Monday night. John L. Ayer and Wallace McCannutt, of Portland, were in attendance and each made a brief address. Charles O. Albright was elected temporary chairman and L. L. Porter temporary secretary. The chair was authorized to appoint a committee of five on permanent organization and an adjournment subject to the call of the committee was taken. The committee appointed consists of C. O. T. Williams, Peter Paquet, J. W. Noble, J. W. O'Connell and Henry Meldrum. There was a large number of representative republicans present at the meeting and a sentiment in favor of a solid and healthy organization was manifested.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Andrews, of Oregon City, old-time friends of Mr. and Mrs. Yeaman, arrived in the Grove on the 12th inst., after an extended visit in New Mexico, where Mrs. Andrews' sister lives. They will occupy the Yeaman cottage for the winter. They are delighted with the change on arriving here; from the snows and blizzards of New Mexico to the balmy breezes of our seaside city, where the grass is growing, humming birds and butterflies sip the nectar from a thousand flowers, and ripe raspberries can be picked from the bushes. They think this is a good enough to spend the winter.—Pacific Grove (Cal.) Review.

QUARTER OF A CENTURY

There settled in Baker county, Ore. a man who has since become identified with the resources and development of that country. This man is no other than Mr. John Stewart, one of the wealthiest and most influential citizens in the county. In a recent letter he says: "I had been suffering from pains in my back and general kidney complaint for some time, and had used many remedies without any but temporary relief. The pains in my back had become so severe that I was prevented from attending to my work and could not move about without the use of a cane. Hearing, through a friend, of the wonderful cures effected by Oregon Kidney Tea, I was induced to try a box, and from that very first dose I found instant relief, and before using half the contents of the box the pains in my back entirely disappeared. I have every faith in the virtues of the Oregon Kidney Tea, and can conscientiously recommend it to my friends. I would not be without it for anything."
Oregon Kidney Tea cures backache, incontinence of urine, brick dust sediment, burning or painful sensation while urinating, and all affections of the kidney or urinary organs of either sex.
