CAPTAIN SHAW WILL BUILD—Captain J. P. Shaw is getting materials on the ground for a fine residence which he will erect on the brow of the bluff in South Oregon City. The excavation for the basement is already made, the rock is ready for the walls, most of the logs of which the house is to be constructed are cut and some of the lumber is on the ground. Everything is ready for beginning building as soon as the roads shall be in shape to permit hauling lumber over them. The plans are for a house 36x45 feet, three stories in height. The stone walls of the basement will reach about five feet above the surface of the ground. The first story will be built of round fir logs nine inches in diameter, peeled. The logs for the second story will be eight inches in diameter. The architectural style of the building will be unique and pleasing. The interior arrangements will be equally unique and entirely modern. The building site is 450 feet above Main street, affording an unsurpassed view of the falls and a long reach of the Willamette river with the city of Portland in the distance. The snow peaks of the Cascades will also accentuate the eastern and northern landscape. The dwelling will cost between $8000 and $12,000 and it will be one of the pleasantest and most elegant homes in the Northwest.

A NEW TRIAL DENIED—A few weeks ago the ENTERPRISE mentioned the trial in Portland of a suit brought by Amos L. Lovejoy and other heirs of General A. L. Lovejoy against the Willamette Falls Electric company in which a verdict for the defendant was found. The suit was for the possession of Abernethy island where the electric light station in this city stands. It involved the validity of a transfer of the property in 1862 for $2500—property that is now probably worth half a million dollars. General Lovejoy was a pioneer of 1843. Twenty years after that John H. Moore, and a few others allied with him, negotiated the purchase from the general of the Abernethy island for $2500. Of the transfer of the property, the gold coin stacked upon the desk, and the deed, afterward filed with the recorder of conveyances, there are two surviving witnesses. In course of time, Moore sold to Harvey, Harvey to the People's Transportation company, and through various firms and railroad and navigation corporations the Locks & Transportation company comes to own the island, being the real defenders to this action, though the electric light company, under their lease, are the nominal ones. After the verdict against the plaintiffs in the suit a motion for a new trial was made. Judge Shattuck last Saturday rendered a decision going into the case at considerable length and denying the motion for a new trial.

A SENSATION SPOILED—W. B. Risenstein, who was before the county court some time ago on a charge of being insane and discharged, has not possessed a kindly feeling toward those whom he holds responsible for that action against him. His domestic life is not peaceful. Last Friday he reported to the police that he had been shot at while splitting wood, but that he was in the act of picking up a stick of wood and the bullet passed over him and lodged in a door beyond. He showed where one door had a bullet hole in it and the other had received the ball. He was sure his enemies were plotting to take his life and that this was one of the manifestations of their machinations against him. When the police came to analyze the matter, however, it was found that the shot marks were made by a bullet of the same size carried by a revolver owned by himself, and an examination of the weapon, which had been left at a Main street saloon, disclosed the fact that one chamber had recently been discharged and reloaded with a fresh cartridge. Other circumstances which the old man alleged in connection with the affair were so diaphanous that the whole thing was shown to be a fake.

THE ROCKY BLUFF—The Southern Pacific people have to keep an eye out for loose rocks along the edge of the bluff at the foot of which their tracks run in this city. Last fall it became necessary to dislodge a rock weighing many tons in order to prevent its doing damage by falling inopportunistly. Recently some smaller rocks directly opposite the depot have taken on a threatening aspect and it was deemed best to take care of them, so P. A. Lindstrom, a Portland contractor, has been at work this week removing the objectionable rocks. He erected a crane on the top of the bluff and reached down the face of the rocks with blocks and tackle, lifting the loose rocks to the top. This crumbling of the abrupt rock ledge that forms an important feature in the picturesqueness of Oregon City is entirely too trifling to be noticed from a scenic point of view though worthy the solicitous attention of people whose persons or property may be threatened by the impending fragments.

THE OUTING CLUB'S PARTY—The Outing Club gave a pleasant party at the Woodman's hall last Tuesday night. Progressive euchre was played, resulting in the following prizes being awarded: First ladies' prize, Miss May Pillsbury, a copy of Lalla Rookh; ladies' booby prize, Miss Mina Kelly; first gentlemen's prize, Clyde Huntley, a potpourri jar; gentlemen's booby prize, Miss May Kelly. The Twilight Symphony club furnished music for a brief dance; ice cream and cake were served by the gentlemen and a short program of a grotesque declamatory order was rendered. Those present were Misses Grace Baird, Amy Kelly, Metta Brown, Hattie De Orsay, Cora Harding, Hattie Cochran, Grace Williams, Mamie Charman, Abbie Robb, Winnie Williams, Kittie Paine, Louise Cochran, May Kelly and May Pillsbury; and Messrs. R. L. Holman, G. O. Rinearson, H. C. Salisbury, A. J. Lewthwaite, B. F. Burch, W. B. Wiggins, E. F. Driggs, C. G. Huntley, E. A. McDonald, W. A. Huntley, F. J. Louis and F. S. Kelly.

LAND IMPROVEMENTS—The Willamette Falls Electric company has eight or ten men at work clearing timber from its land across the river. While the company does not announce that it is going to improve its whole tract—about 800 acres—it has put these men at work without any specified limit to their operations and it is likely that the entire tract will be cleared up and the timber disposed of. Most of the timber will be cut into cord wood and sold in that form. If it shall be determined that the whole area owned by this company shall be improved, the force of workmen will be increased and a season of lively work will ensue. While the company does not claim to be anticipating the arrival of the motor line from Portland most people will construe this action as indicating that the line will soon be built up the west side of the river and that a boom in west side property will be the result.

DEATH OF JUDGE HOLMES—Judge Leander Holmes, who was committed to the asylum from Portland last week in a nearly dying condition, passed to the beyond Thursday. Judge Holmes came west at an early day and was prominently and pleasantly associated with the early history of Oregon. He settled in Oregon City in 1850. He was delegate to the republican national convention in 1860. This was the convention that nominated Abraham Lincoln for President. As Mr. Holmes was unable to attend he sent his proxy to Horace Greeley, and the great editor became a member of the convention, and the claim is now made that Lincoln's nomination was largely due to Greeley's efforts in his behalf. The remains of Judge Holmes were buried Sunday at 1 o'clock in Portland.

WILD STRAWBERRY BLOSSOMS—There are not many countries in the forty-fourth parallel of latitude that can show the mid-winter blossoms that western Oregon exhibits this year. Roses and chrysantheums are in nearly every door-yard. Last Sunday, January 31, a number of wild strawberry plants were found in bloom on the hillside this side of Canemah. The fresh young blossoms were smiling in the warm sunshine and some of them had acquired as pretty tints as any dainty April posy can show. The flowers appeared to be there for business, too, and it will not be long till delicate wild strawberries will be found ripening in the open air. Apples and pears in a perfect state of preservation can be picked from the trees in many orchards in this locality today. Truly, western Oregon has a glorious climate.

Arthur Bloch has sold his general merchandise business at Milwaukee to Messrs. Gary & Wisington of that town, who took possession the first of the month. Mr. Bloch will visit the Puget sound country and eastern Oregon and then return to San Francisco where he will engage in the book binding business.

QUARTER OF A CENTURY AGO
There set- tled in Baker county, Oregon, near what is now Baker City, a man who has since become identified with the resources and development of that country. This man is no other than Mr. John Stewart, one of the wealthiest and most influential citizens in the county. In a recent letter he says: "I had been suffering from pains in my back and general kidney complaint for some time, and had used many remedies without any but temporary relief. The pains in my back had become so severe that I was prevented from attending to my work and could not move about without the use of a cane. Hearing, through a friend, of the wonderful cures effected by Oregon Kidney Tea, I was induced to try a box, and from that very first dose I found instant relief, and before using half the contents of the box the pains in my back entirely disappeared. I have every faith in the virtues of the Oregon Kidney Tea, and can conscientiously recommend it to my friends. I would not be without it for anything."
Oregon Kidney Tea cures backache, incontinence of urine, brick dust sediment, burning or painful sensation while urinating, and all affections of the kidney or urinary organs of either sex.
