Some Important Land Cases.

There are some important land cases on trial in the Oregon City land office. They are brought by the United States B. Foss of Bay City, Mich . as transferees in this teen pre-emption claims in Columbia county. The claims have been held for cancellation on the land for speculation, making poor improvements and exhibiting general bad faith with the government.

Three inspectors have been some time in working up the cases which are being tried by Inspector Savery for the government and Burney & Draper for defendants, both of whom are present in person. This batch of cases is likely to occupy several weeks in the hearing. After they are disposed of there will be brought up for trial a batch of timber land claims that have also been held for cancellation. It is claimed that the defeudants got the entrymen to take up to the public domain.
