FOR LAW AND ORDER .- The failure to onvict Bob Gardner and Bert Bacon of the assault on a young girl as noted in last week's Extenuouse, through the timidity and terror of the children who were witnesses against them led to the calling of a public meeting at Pope's hall Saturday night to consider the matter, Incidentally the city officers were quite sharply scored for the apparent laxity in the execution of the laws. Mayor Sullivan presided at the meeting and Captain Shaw was secretary. The ball was crowded. A score or more of speeches were made and the utmost Portland R Flour, e-lignation was manifested toward the White Lily offenders whose action bad incited the Uncle Tom Sauce, per bottle meeting as well as toward several of their companions in infamy.
