Farmers get your machine oil at Seventh street drug store. Cheapest place in Oregon City.

Cheapest place in Oregon City to get first-class millinery goods is at Miss Lillian Wilkinson's No 1 Commercial bank block.

Dr. DeLew of Baltimore, will officiate at the Episcopal church next Sunday, June 28, both morning and evening. Seats free.

Laeg is the name of a new postoffice established about four miles southeast of Springfield. It is a great convenience to the people of that locality.

For the accommodation of her patrons the millinery parlors of Miss Lillian Wilkinson No. 1, Commercial Bank block, will be open during the morning hours of the Fourth.

The Beaver Creek Welsh congregation took in more than $34 at its festival June 9. There were various games played, refreshments were served and a good time enjoyed by all.

The citizens of Viola are in need of a blacksmith shop at that place and offer liberal inducements to the right man in the way of a shop building and guaranteed patronage. Address, W. H. Mattoon, Viola, Oregon.

Since Mr. McBride's election to the circuit judgeship the law firm of McBride & Dresser has been dissolved and Mr. Dresser has formed a partnership with Geo. C. Brownell under the style of Brownell & Dresser. Their office is over Canfield & Huntley's drug store.

Captain J. P. Shaw doesn't claim to be any great shakes as a pomologist but he has some glorious cherries this year. A branch of one of his yellow Spanish trees was so heavily laden that it broke of its own weight and he brought it to the ENTERPRISE office. To contemplate that array of ripe cherries is enough to make one's pneumogastric nerve vibrate like a fiddle string.

A GIRL MURDERED.

MARY WELSH OF MILWAUKEE LOSES HER LIFE.

The Corpse Found in the Brush in a Berry Field Thursday Morning.

Information reached this city Thursday that a murder had been committed in Milwaukee. No particulars of the crime were given. The coroner's inquest was set for Thursday afternoon and Assistant District Attorney Dresser went down to attend it.

From all that can be learned it appears that the victim of the murder, Mary Walsh, a girl thirteen or fourteen years old, was out gathering berries Wednesday afternoon. She did not return home in the evening and her parents began a search for her. Others joined in the hunt but no trace of the girl was found till Thursday morning when her dead body was discovered lying in the brush where she had been gathering berries.

The indications were that the girl had been strangled to death. From information at hand at the hour of going to press it does not appear what the object of the murder was. The verdict of the coroner's jury may clear up the matter somewhat.

Married.

SHUBEL-BEATTIE.—At the Presbyterian manse, Oregon City, Oregon, June 23, 1892, Rev. G. Wm. Giboney officiating, Mr. Christian Shubel and Miss Aggie Beattie.

GRAHAM-GLASSPOOL.—At St. Paul's Episcopal church in this city, Wednesday, June 22, 1892, Rev. Mr. Lund of Salem officiating, Mr. J. Newton Graham and Miss Edith Glasspool, both of Oregon City.

The wedding ceremony occurred at high noon and was witnessed by a large company of invited guests. The bridesmaids and groomsmen were Misses Mina Kelly, Winnie Graham and Alice Glasspool, and Messrs. F. J. Louis, A. J. Lewthwaite and F. S. Kelly. The bridal party entered the church while Mrs. E. E. Williams played Mendelssohn's wedding march and the couple stood under an arch of ivy and roses during the ceremony. The church was profusely decorated with ferns, marguerites and ivy. The bride wore a costume of white silk with sleeves and high collar and carried a bouquet of white roses and sweet eglisiums.

After the service at the church the wedding party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Glasspool, at Green Point, where a marriage feast was served. The house was festively decorated with flowers, ferns and evergreens. Mr. and Mrs. Graham took the 3:30 train for a trip to Puget sound. When they return they will occupy the cottage at the corner of Main and Thirteenth streets.

CHERRY PARTY.—Mr. Theodore Clark gave a cherry party last Saturday evening in honor of the Symphony club. There was enough cherry-eating to give the party its name, and cards and other games and dancing were introduced to make the occasion enjoyable. The lawn was lighted with chinese lanterns.

J. Pritchard has purchased the interest of A. Matheson in the firm of Matheson & Carrico, of the Model ice cream parlors in the Shively block, and the firm will hereafter be Pritchard & Carrico. They have leased the bakery of Marr & Robertson and will take possession next Monday. A competent baker from Portland will have charge of the work and the new firm will push the business, delivering free to any part of the city.

Art Work.

We noticed in the postoffice store a very fine painting of Mt. Hood by Miss Isabella McArthur of New Era. The painting shows merit and talent on the part of Miss McArthur who, offers the piece for sale.

She is trying by her own efforts to raise money to attend an art school in California that she may perfect herself in her chosen profession, and any help that our citizens can render to assist her in her efforts should be cheerfully given. The painting is remarkably cheap at the price offered—$25, and would be a handsome addition to any household.

Miss McArthur has also on exhibition two beautiful crayons, children of Geo. Harding and J. J. Cooke, which deserve more than passing notice. An order for a crayon will be promptly filled and the work carefully executed. Do not fail to notice these works of art and assist the artist.

Roll of Honor.

Following is a report of school district No. 90 for the month ending June 10, 1892: Number of pupils enrolled fourteen; average daily attendance thirteen; number of cases of tardiness two; number of visitors nine; those neither absent nor tardy Rachel Buckner, Sterling May, James, Nerkircher and Jimmie Bocker. Died.

WINCKLER.—In Oregon City Sunday, June 19, 1892, Mrs. Henrietta Winckler, aged eighty-one years and five months.

Mr. and Mrs. Winckler came from Wisconsin about twelve years ago. A son died shortly after their arrival and Mr. Winckler followed him. Since that time Mrs. Winckler has made her home with Mrs. I. Selling. She has been in rather feeble health for a long time but Saturday night she appeared as well as usual when she retired. She was found dead in her bed Sunday morning. She has one daughter, Mrs. Henry Hesse who lives near Canby, and two sons in Wisconsin. The funeral occurred Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. Edw. Gittins officiating. The interment was in Mountain View cemetery.

FANCHER.—In Oregon City Saturday, June 18, 1892, William Henry Fancher aged fifty-seven years, four months and four days.

The funeral service took place at his late residence on Monday at 2 p. m., Rev. O. W. Lucas conducting the service. The deceased was born at Juneau, N. Y., February 14, 1835, and thus was in his fifty-eighth year when he died. He was married to Sarah J. Youry in 1854 and moved to Oregon with his family in 1873, settling near Oregon City. Nearly five years ago he was prostrated with heart trouble with which he has been battling so long, sometimes with hope of recovery but for the most part feeling that while he might possibly linger a few years; he could not expect entire recovery. His frequent thought was:

Thoughts invalid tossed with pain, I yearly here must wait; I know I shall be well again When I enter at heaven's gate. Well, when I've crossed the river, Beyond the chilling tide; Well, when I see my savior, And am welcomed to his side.

He, together with his devoted wife, united with the Congregational church of this city soon after coming to Oregon; and through his long illness the favorite theme of his thought and conversation has been the welfare of the church and the ongoing of the Redeemer's kingdom in the world. He leaves a wife, three sons and two daughters to cherish his memory.

Modern Miracles.

A singer for breath was distressed, And the doctors all said she must rest, But she took G. M. D. For her weak lungs, you see, And now she can sing with the best. An athlete gave out, on a run, And he feared his career was quite done; G. M. D. pray observe, O'ave back his lost nerve, And now he can lift half a ton. A writer, who wrote for a prize, Had headaches and pain in the eyes; G. M. D. was the spell That made him quite well, And glory before him now lies.

These are examples of the daily triumphs of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, in restoring health and reviving wasted vitality. Sold by all druggists.
