Busy Canby People—Celebration of the Fourth—Improvements in the Town.

CANBY, June 28.—Preparations are being made to hold a celebration here which will be the first ever held in Canby. The Molalla band has been engaged for the occasion, and together with a match game of ball, the races and other sports there will be plenty of amusement for old and young.

Strawberries are about gone but raspberries and wild blackberries are coming in to fill the vacancy.

The annual camp meeting commences July 1 lasting until the 11th.

Weldon Shank, David Cox and Millard Lee, delegates to the grand lodge of Good Templars returned from the grand session last Thursday. They say the membership is now about 1000, an increase over last year's report of about 400.

James Hodger is tearing out the partition in the back part of his store building, making the room about fifteen feet longer and is filling up his shelves with a first class line of goods for the summer trade.

E. Dodge, of Michigan, has rented the old A. T. Dix mill building of Albert Hart and has put in a shingle mill cutting 30 M a day.

Mr. Hutcherson, the livery stable man, has purchased a three seated hack and will carry passengers to Soda Springs this summer.

R. Bremer has purchased a lot of S. Mathew and is building a cottage thereon. Mark Godown has purchased a lot of H. A. Lee, and is building himself a neat little dwelling.

Mr. Dick of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, has purchased ten acres of the Philander Lee estate for $250.

Miss Bessie Wells is just closing a successful term of school in district No. 18, and next Friday there will be a grand picnic in the grove near the school house in honor of the occasion. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

NEWS FROM BARLOW.

The Democratic Satisfaction at Needy—News of the Town.

BARLOW, June 27.—Samuel P. Putman, the freethought orator, will speak in Barlow hall on the evening of July 8.

The democratic rally at Needy last Saturday passed off with some enthusiasm. The hall was crowded to its utmost capacity but fully as many republicans occupied the seats as democrats. Uncle Billy Vaughan held the crowd for some time on the tariff question. The enthusiasm grew upon him as he proceeded until he was obliged to shuck his coat. Others followed and together with the music furnished by the Molalla brass band the evening passed away with some considerable spirit of enthusiasm.

Several land sales were recorded this week in Barlow & Co's. office.

Camp meeting at Canby will commence July 1st and continue for two weeks. A large attendance is looked for.

Hon. D. W. Smith and wife of Port Townsend, Wash., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Jesse. They will remain a few weeks.

Miss M. E. Barlow came up from Portland Sunday to visit her parents. She will leave Friday for a trip through California with Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Woodward.

Mr. James Thornton, of Oskosh, Wis., a shingle machine manufacturer, was seen in town a few days last week looking over our water power.

From Willhoit Springs.

WILHOIT, June 21.—Farmers are commencing haying. Hay is about an average crop this year.

Campers are beginning to roll in to the springs. Mr. McLaren is making considerable improvements, building a large barn, a new store, and doing some fencing.

The Southern Methodists closed a week's campmeeting at Teale Creek last Sunday, and while there were but few conversions the people in the vicinity enjoyed a rare treat in hearing a number of sermons by Rev. Mr. Wilson from San Francisco. It is not often one hears bible texts handled in as masterly a manner, not only from a bible standpoint but from a scientific standpoint as well, as Mr. Wilson handles his subjects.

George Swope closed one of the most successful terms of school last Tuesday we have ever had, and in the evening gave an entertainment by the pupils which was a decided success and enjoyed by every one present.

Mr. Thomson, our school superintendent was present and recited "Darius Green and his flying machine" in his inimitable manner, bringing down the house and closing the evening with such a good hearty laugh as to shake the cobwebs all out of one's throat and lungs. The directors have offered Mr. Swope the school for the winter term at an increase of wages which is good evidence of the high esteem in which they hold him as a teacher. ASOS.

FROM MARKS PRAIRIE.

Another View of the Needy Celebration—Neighborhood Notes.

MARKS PRAIRIE, June 28.—Haying is in full blast and the weather is just right for harvest.

Thomas Marks returned from the Klamath lake country last Tuesday and reports crop prospects as not very flattering in that section.

Mr. and Mrs. Bosenstein, of Portland, are visiting with the family of J. P. May. Mrs. Bosenstein is a sister of Mr. May.

Frank May has just started up his new mower. He says it's the boss. It cuts off the grass just on top of the ground.

Quite a large amount of improvements are being made on the prairie, among which may be mentioned the large hop house of Dr. M. Giesy, the new dwelling of J. H. Sutherland, and hop house of O. Kocher. The hop industry on our prairie is developing very fast, several large new yards have been set out this year. The hop lice can be found in a number of yards but they do not seem to be so numerous as last year at this time. But no one can tell as yet what damage they will be likely to do.

A number of our fun-loving prairie folks took in the so-called democratic rally, or ratification meeting at the Needy school house last Saturday evening. The Molalla band was engaged to try to draw a crowd.

Wm. Vaughan was chief orator and the big gun of the affair. The black-whiskered editor from Oregon City was n't in it a little bit. He stated that he could n't speak for ten dollars, which fact was a state joke to those who have read his sheet for the past six months. This affair was supposed to have been gotten up to ratify the election of the democratic candidates of this county but strange to say not one of their names was mentioned by the silver-tongued orators.

Some one built a large bonfire out in the yard which proved to be the greatest attraction, for it was not long until the speakers were talking to empty benches. It was indeed a very interesting meeting.

A few of our people attended the Sunday school picnic held last Saturday at Graham's hall and report having had a good time.

No man has ever been nominated three times and elected twice to the presidency and never will be. OCCASIONAL.

The Cliffside school closed Thursday with literary exercises. Many visitors were present. The teacher, Miss Addie Herrick, is going to San Francisco next week on an extended visit. We wish her a pleasant time.

Veno spent a delightful evening last Wednesday in Wm. Pickett's fine strawberry patch. Strawberry growing bids fair to become an important industry here. The season is later and the Portland market could be supplied with berries from these foothills long after the strawberry season of the valley has ended. Mr. Pickett took a load to Portland and proved they could be carried in good order. VIXO.

Butteville News Items.

BUTTEVILLE, June 27.—The excursion from here to Aurora yesterday was a success. The people that went had a good time. The Aurora band is the boss band to play for an excursion, at least the people seemed to think so.

W. R. Schenker has his new house nearing completion. It will be a credit to the town. J. S. Vaughan also has a nice house nearly ready to move into.

S. A. Bogaz who put up a saw mill near here in the spring, is overrun with orders, and the wagons stand ready to haul the lumber as fast as it comes from the saw.

O. H. Cone had the misfortune to lose a fine colt lately by a man running into it with a wagon. The man seemed to be drunk as he wanted the whole road, and though Mr. Cone gave him all the road he could he still managed to hit the colt.

The farmers are utilizing this fine weather to get in their clover.

Miss Alice Downings school in district No. 62 (Kramien's) will close next Friday.

Clackamas Notes.

CLACKAMAS, June 28.—The Clackamas club accepted the challenge of the Oregon City champions of the diamond and played Sunday, June 28th, on the grounds at Oregon City. At the commencement the visiting club fared poorly; their pitcher threw wild and the city boys were jubilant and predicted an easy victory over the "hayseeds," as they called the visitors. The country boys rallied, however, their pitcher pitched and the visitors won by a score of 19 to 14. Manager Kelly was pleasant, some of his men were pretty frigid. The Clackamas boys want their city friends to come and play them again and promise every attention.

There is great interest in the approaching

Fourth of July celebration. Reports indicate a good crowd from Eagle Creek, Danascus, Gresham, Pleasant Valley, Milwaukie and Park Place. The sports promise to be excellent and a good time is anticipated. There is to be a ball at night. The grounds are at the junction of the Oregon City and Clackamas roads, with good water and plenty of shade.

There were four alliance members initiated Saturday evening at Clackamas and five at Danascus. TERENCE.

HAD A NARROW ESCAPE.

Bad Case of Poisoning—General News of Hood View.

HOOD VIEW, June 28.—H. H. Eymann came near losing his life last Wednesday from squirrel poison. He had a few small scratches on the back of his hand and opened a can of the wheat for the purpose of poisoning some squirrels, when the strychnine dust of the wheat got in the scratches and soon he was in a very bad condition and but for the timely arrival of a physician his recovery was doubtful.

John Boston is still very low. He suffered a stroke of paralysis and though he is now able to talk he is not likely to be able to walk again. Mrs. L. Brown is also quite ill.

Resolutions.

The Oregon City board of trade at a special meeting June 23, adopted the following resolutions of respect to Julius Logus:

WHEREAS, The reaper Death has again entered our midst and removed from our membership Julius Logus, therefore

Resolved, That by this sudden visitation this board and the business community lose a trusted, honored and useful member who ever labored zealously to promote the interests of both. He was thoroughly identified with us in spirit, and could always be relied upon to aid with a liberal hand any worthy object. Cool, careful, conservative yet cautious, his business judgment was safe, his influence potent, and his efforts well directed. He therefore filled an important place in the composition of this community, and his decease in the prime of life and in the midst of his usefulness leaves a vacant spot which will not soon be filled.

Resolved, That we hereby tender the immediate family and relatives our heartfelt sympathy.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of this board, and a copy engrossed and duly signed by our president and secretary and sent to the family of deceased.

There are 94,300 sheep in Gilliam county, all free from scab. Two small bands had been slightly affected by scab, which, by the way, was imported into the county, but they have been thoroughly dipped and are now cured.

A movement is on foot looking to the establishment of a college at Junction City, which will be under the management of the synod of the Cumberland Presbyterian church. Rev. Mr. Blair, of Eugene, expressed himself greatly pleased with the location and grounds which have been tendered for the establishment of a college. The site referred to is on the east side, on ground formerly belonging to the Mack estate.

Articles of incorporation have been filed at The Dalles by the Columbia River Glass Works; location of works at Grand Dalles, Wash., and the principal office at The Dalles, Or. Capital stock, $250,000, divided into 2500 shares. The incorporators are F. P. Vandenberg, Charles W. Harter, G. R. Burnside and O. D. Taylor. From appearances The Dalles Times-Mountaineer judges this to be a scheme to boom and induce the sale of some more lots among the sand dunes and rock piles of Rockland, Wash., alias North Dalles, alias Grand Dalles.

The Fishway at the Falls.

The following correspondence in relation to the matter of overcoming the fall of the Willamette so that food fishes can ascend the river will prove interesting reading to all who feel any concern about having food fishes in the upper Willamette:

ASTORIA, Or., June 11, 1892.—DEAR SIR: I am greatly interested in the matter of a fishway at the falls of the Willamette, and at the last session of the legislature I drafted a bill for an appropriation of $5000 for the purpose, and Mr. Minto, of your city, introduced it in the house, where it passed with some amendments, but it failed to pass the senate for some reason. I am quite confident that a good and substantial fishway can be constructed at the falls for the above amount, and if you think the people of the Willamette valley will urge their senators and representatives to work for the passage of such a bill I will, when the water is low during the summer, make a careful examination of the falls, and furnish the legislature with my plans of a fishway, which I am confident will be permanent and will let all the fish up that wish to go.

In regard to the information you wish for to send to Mr. McDonald I will give you as near as I have been able to ascertain at present and will add more if necessary.

Yours truly, F. C. REED.

ASTORIA, Or., June 11, 1892.—DEAR SIR: In reply to your request I forward to you the following in regard to the Willamette river:

Varieties of fish now found there are: bullhead, carp—German; carp—scale; chub, crawfish, lamprey, minnow, salmon—chinook, occasionally found above the falls; steelhead, same as chinook; sculpin—fresh water; sucker; trout—black-spotted, Dolly-varden, brook, mountain. Of the above, carp, suckers, chubs and minnows, are found to be the most abundant. Highest temperature in summer is 55 to 60 deg. Water plants not very abundant except in lagoons and sloughs. Bottom, sand and gravel.

F. C. REED.
