SAYS HE KILLED SIX.

WILSON THE MURDERER MAKES FURTHER CONFESSIONS.

His Story Probably Untrue and Told With the Purpose of Establishing his Insanity.

A few days ago Charles Wilson, the murderer of Mamie Walsh who is now confined in the state penitentiary at Salem, was feeling pretty well and for two hours a reporter pumped him in the hope of securing a full confession, if the fellow had one to make. He was pleaded with, threatened, and finally talked when lured by a promise of reward. Wilson complained of a severe headache and would talk only when someone rubbed his head. Direct questions only were asked and no answers suggested. Wilson said he had killed six persons, including Mamie Walsh. Among his victims he names the following. No one about the prison believes him, and will not get until the inquiries instituted are verified:

The first murder Wilson admits having committed was that of Peter Rennie, near Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. They were hunting muskrats together and while in swimming Wilson drowned Rennie for fun he says.

Ota Spearman, also of near Mt. Pleasant was another victim. He killed her in the woods with a club two years ago. She lived about half a mile from his father's house. He loved her and says he wants to die to meet her.

Coon Salms was another victim also in Iowa. He killed him with a gun six years ago.

He also murdered Myrtle Boyd in Iowa while out sleigh riding.

His fifth victim he would not name and his sixth was Mamie Walsh.

Wilson says he was in the habit of hiding the bodies of his victims, and always avoided suspicion, never having been arrested for or accused of any crime.

He said if free again he would likely kill somebody else, and for that reason should be put out of the way. One morning he secreted a piece of glass in his sock, but it was found before any damage was done. He intimates that Mrs. Scott was one of the persons he killed. No one in the prison believes Wilson is the murderer of these people. He seems demented at times, and when asked questions susceptible to the answers yes and no, Wilson will admit anything. Questioned in this way, he said he killed Garfield; but as to the other murders no names were mentioned or replies suggested to him.

Mr. LaFlemme, of French prairie, was in Salem last Saturday and upon being shown Wilson's photograph recognized it as a man with whom he worked in the timber along the river below Brooks about a year and a half ago. That man's name was Chas. Wilson and while they were there together he told LaFlemme he had a brother living near Oregon City. This identity being complete, it is not improbable that Wilson is Mrs. Scott's murderer.

Don't be discouraged about the eczema till you have given Ayer's Sarsaparilla a persistent trial. Six bottles of this medicine cured the complaint for George S. Thomas, of Ada, Ohio, when all other remedies failed to afford any relief.

BASE BALL GAMES.

The Oregon Citys Sweep Two Portland Clubs in One Day.

Two games of base ball were played here last Sunday. The first between the Oregon Citys and the North Portland and the second game between the Oregon Citys and the Farmer and Mechanics of Portland. The first game was as fine an exhibition game as was ever seen in the city. The score stood 9 to 2 in favor of the Oregon City boys. The second game was a complete walk over for the Oregon City boys again, the score standing 12 to 5. Felix E. Fields umpired both games.

The features of the first game were the battery work of the Oregon Citys (Rhoades and Kelly,) the fine third base playing of G. Hedges, the heavy batting of E. Hedges, Fields and Reckner and the first base playing of Patterson of the North Portland.

The second game's features were the battery work of Fenimore and Kelly and the heavy batting of G. and E. Hedges, Fields and Reckner of the home club and Plymouth of the visitors and the fielding of G. and E. Hedges, Sheehan and Fields and the catching of Wills and the short stop playing of Plymouth.

The club will run an excursion to St. Paul next Sunday to play the St. Paul club for the amateur championship of the Willamette Valley. The steamer Manzanillo will leave the basin Sunday morning at 8:30 sharp, returning early in the evening.

James Roake has invented a new kind of lawn sprinkler to be attached to the nozzle of a hose. It is on the principle of the turbine water wheel inverted and without the outside case. It is vastly better than any of the high priced affairs now on the market and it can be sold for a few cents instead of costing dollars. He is going to get a patent and engage in the work of manufacturing the contrivance.

Charles Allen was bound over in the sum of $200, which was furnished, for subornation of perjury in inducing one Charles Clark to swear to an untrue statement in order that he might get a marriage license for a girl under marriageable age.

There was a well defined report Wednesday that Henry Smith, vice president of the Willamette Pulp & Paper company, was about to sever his connection with that corporation and take a large interest in the active management of the Crown Paper company. Mr. Smith was in San Francisco, whither he went last week, and he could not be seen to affirm or deny the story. It has elements of probability in it.

Last Tuesday was the sixtieth anniversary of the birth of J. M. Taylor and a number of relatives and friends got together at his daughter's, Mrs. George Broughton's, and helped the old gentleman observe the occasion. A pleasant social time was enjoyed and Mr. Taylor was presented with a gold watch.

The Woman's Relief corps gave a very enjoyable lawn party at Mrs. George Broughton's Thursday night of last week. The lawn was brilliantly illuminated with Chinese lanterns, and ice cream and cake were served. The attendance was good but the festivities were cut a little short by a shower.

There was a cheerful ball given at the armory last Tuesday evening. The weather was favorable for dancing, the music was good, there was a congenial crowd and a good time was enjoyed by the young people.

Last Monday George A. Harding took possession of the stock of Lewthwaite, the shoe man, under a chattel mortgage for $400 and the business is being closed up this week.
