FRIDAY, JULY 22, 1892.

THE RUSH FOR LAND.-Last Tuesday morning three and a half townships of newly surveyed government land were opened for filings at the Oregon City land office. All of this land is situated in Clatsop county most of it is well timbered. Applicants for the land began arriving Sunday night and continued coming all day Monday and the land lawyers were kept busy making out papers. Tuesday morning bright and early there were fifty men in line in the corridor leading to the register's office and there would have been more but for the belief that a decision would be made to treat ail as simultaneous applications. When the register's door was opened there was a little inclination to scramble for position but Captain Apperson told the applicants they would all be treated alike and it any disturbance was made he would close his offlice and not receive any applications. Then the applications were filed quietly and expeditiously and there was no excitement. Tuesday eight-six applications were filed of which twenty-four were pre-emptions, fourteen homesteads and forty-eight timber claims. These brouget $296 to the receiver. Wednesday morning a batch of eighty-six other applications were received by mail from and Newberg, Yambill county, Oregon, Astoria. There are two species, Berberts aquifolium and Berberts nervosa. The flower is very small and grows in dense clusters. The Oregon grape belongs to the Mabobia group of the species.

AFTER BLACKSERBIES .- The season for gathering blackberries is at its height in Clackamas county. A party consisting of Mr and Mrs. G. W. Church, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Aldridge and Mrs. N. W. Randall were out on field hill, near Highland, three days, returning home Monday night, and they had a royal good time and brought back 200 quarts of fine berries, representing not much more than one day's picking. They didn't see any bears but they heard one. Mr. and Mrs George Boylan went out there for berries Monday Dunn took a carriage for the steamer and Wednesday J. W. Gront, Geo. Ely. and J. W.
