

Local Personal Notes.

Justice H. B. Chase of Sandy was in Oregon City last week. Miss Josephine Clark of Spokane is visiting Miss Hattie Warner. J. W. Strange of Pulman was visiting his brother in this city Monday. Mrs. C. O. Albright and children returned from the coast last Saturday. Miss Veda Williams has been spending a week with friends in Portland. Editor E. C. Blackford of the Clatskanie Chief was in Oregon City Monday. A Dubois of Springwater was a caller at the Enterprise office last Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Skiff of Portland were visiting at C. O. T. Williams's last Sunday. Joseph Dillery of Clackamas was among the visitors in Oregon City Thursday. Misses Etta and Bertha Moore of Portland will return from their European trip next week. J. H. Revenue of Revenue was in town last Saturday and made a pleasant call on the Enterprise. Jno. T. Myers of the new postoffice of Lacey in Springwater precinct was in town Tuesday and Wednesday. T. M. Cowing, jr., has taken charge of the branch office of the Western Union at first and Morrison streets, Portland. William Dutcher arrives home from Cook's Inlet, Alaska, last week where he spent the season in the salmon canning business. M. A. Stratton's family will move to Portland the latter part of the month and occupy a residence on Tenth and East Stark. Mrs. C. H. Dye went to Forest Grove Monday to spend a few days with Mrs. Walker, who is the widow of the noted Oregon pioneer. The family of Dr. Courtney has arrived from Lebanon and they will occupy the cottage at the corner of Adams and Seventh streets. Miss Metta Brown is expected to return from the East next Friday. She will teach in the Portland schools during the coming year. Miss Erma Lawrence left Tuesday for Corvallis where she will finish her course in the agricultural college this year. Her sister, Miss Daisy, accompanied her to visit friends in that city a few weeks. Miss Ana Baird came up from Portland to visit friends in this city a few days this week. She will leave the last of the week for Monmouth where she will attend the normal school this year. Mrs. L. D. C. Latourette, who has been visiting her son, D. C. Latourette, in this city, left Tuesday for Portland and is joined there the next day by C. D. Latourette and they left for a visit in Michigan to be gone several weeks. Among the Clackamas county people in attendance on the state fair at Salem this week are President Apperson, who has general supervision of the whole concern, and E. C. Maddock of New Era, H. C. Stevens, E. M. Bands and J. S. Purdom of this city who have to do with the handling of tickets. J. G. Pillsbury's family will move to Portland in a few days to remain during the school year. They will return to their home in this city next summer. In Portland the family will occupy a house at the corner of Yamhill and new Thirteenth. Mr. Pillsbury will remain in this city. An item in last week's ENTERPRISE stated that the Crown Paper company had 1200 or 1300 tons of straw which it would store in warehouses up the river until wanted here. The omission of the word "not" made it read that the straw "would be brought to the mill to rot as it did last year." That is precisely what will not be done.

THE COUNTY COURT

CONTRACT FOR BUILDING THE UPPER CLACKAMAS BRIDGE.

Various Petition Appointments and Reports—The Monthly Grist of Bills Allowed.

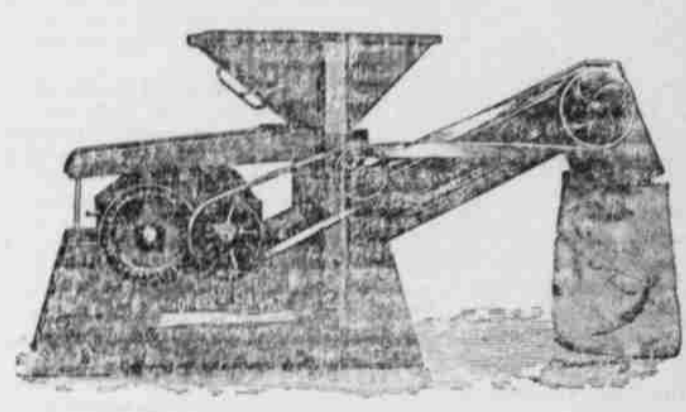

At the regular September meeting of the county commissioner's court last week the following proceedings were had: In the matter of the Blount road the report of the viewers was filed, expense account of $24 audited, claims for damages dismissed, the report approved and road ordered opened. The report of Sidney Smyth accepting the Highland road improvement was approved. Certain county warrants drawn by the clerk but never presented for payment, though duly advertised, were ordered canceled. Warrants remaining uncalled for more than seven years were also ordered destroyed. The time for completing the present-owner books was extended to November 9. Miss Erma Lawrence was granted a scholarship in the state agricultural college at Corvallis. The petition of T. L. Charman for a county road was granted and County Surveyor Smyth was appointed to survey and C. C. Williams, W. B. Partlow and J. L. Swafford appointed to view the same to meet at the place of beginning 10 a. m. Sept. 17. The application of S. T. Mason of road district No. 32 for blasting materials was granted to the extent of $20. The application of Casper Weismandel for the return of $10.25 paid on property sold at sheriff's sale was granted. M. T. Freeman of road district No. 20 was authorized to procure lumber and spikes for repairing bridge in his district. The contract for building a bridge across the Clackamas river on the site of the present upper Clackamas bridge was awarded to the Pacific Bridge company for $3800 for the 150 feet span and 210 feet of approaches. Whatever length approaches more than the 210 feet is to be paid for at the rate of $2.25 per lineal foot. It was ordered that the treasurer set apart and keep as a separate fund the money collected on the levy made on the assessment of one-twentieth of a mill on the dollar for the relief of indigent soldiers and mariners. The petition of S. D. Coalman et al for a county road was granted and County Surveyor Smyth appointed to survey and Herman Bruns, Henry, McGugin and Chas. Fischer appointed to view the same, to meet at the Cherryville post-office September 20. The petition of F. M. Samson et al for a bridge across Rock creek was granted and the clerk was authorized to advertise for bids to be opened October 6. The report of J. W. Doores on the Scott mill bridge was laid over. The report of W. H. Smith, supervisor of road district No. 18, on the repairing of the Holcomb creek bridge was approved and the expense account of $155.54 ordered paid. The same action was taken on his report on the Cason creek bridge and Baker's Ferry road with an expense account of $150. The petition of Supervisor R. Scott of road district No. 1 for a resurvey of a part of the Milwaukee and Foster road was granted. County Surveyor Smith was appointed to survey and Jacob Risley, Cicero Rinearson and M. Oatfield to review said road, to meet at Milwaukee September 24. It was ordered that Peter Larsen, supervisor of road district No. 28, be authorized to procure material and have built a bridge on the Oregon City and Dayton road, using the labor of the district as far as practicable. The petition of J. S. Vaughan et al for a county road was granted and County

Surveyor Smyth was appointed to survey and Henry Snyder, Isaac Clower and Max Sculpin to view said road to meet at the point of beginning Sept. 26 at 10 o'clock a. m. The sheriff was ordered to pay over to the clerks of school districts No. 3, 51 and 62 the amount collected by him on the delinquent tax lists of said districts, less the cost of collecting the same. The time for the sheriff to report on the delinquent tax lists of districts No. 67, 69 and 74 was extended till the October term.
