

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1902.

Local Personal Notes.

M. A. Stratton and family moved to Portland Thursday. Alexander Warner's family have moved to their new residence at Mount Tabor. W. P. Weismandel, who was in Walla Walla all summer, has returned to Oregon City. L. R. Janney went up to Salem this week and was admitted to practice law at the bar. Mr and Mrs. B. F. Smith of Needy were visiting County Clerk Horton and wife over Sunday. Mrs. W. L. Butler of St. Helens, was visiting her sister, Mrs. McBride, in this city this week. Charles E. Meldrum and Frank Burkhardt are Oregon City's representatives in the Portland university. Geo. Rineerson and E. F. Driggs this week began attending the law school of the state university in Portland. W. T. Coolidge of Logan was in Oregon City Wednesday and made a pleasant call at the Excelsior office. Miss Hattie D'Orsay of Portland and her sister, Miss Sadie D'Orsay of California, were visiting Mrs. M. A. Stratton this week. Mrs. Sidney Clark of Monterey, Cal., who was visiting Mrs. E. E. Charman, left for home Monday evening on the overland train. Mrs. J. A. Moore and her mother, Mrs. Robertson, returned Wednesday morning from Salem where they were visiting several days. R. L. Holman was in McMinnville the fore part of the week, called to the bedside of his father who was critically ill. He is now improving. Recorder S. M. Ramsby has moved his family to town and they occupy Mrs. Aldridge's cottage on Polk street between Seventh and Eighth. Mrs. Flora Green and daughter, Miss Birdie, of Lincoln, Polk county are visiting Mrs. Green's sister, Mrs. J. S. Purdon. Miss Green will spend the winter here with her aunt. Mrs. L. F. Cook of Baker City is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. M. Mack. Mrs. Cook will accompany her husband to Eugene to attend the Knights of Pythias festivities next week and will then spend some time in this city. E. J. Swafford, a Salem business man, is visiting his brother, J. L. Swafford, in this city this week. He was formerly a printer and he set type on the Excelsior when it was only a year old and was published from the old capitol building, now the Oriental hotel. J. L. Waldron and family, who moved to a fruit farm near Berkeley, Cal., last spring, have moved back to Clackamas county and taken up their home again at Mount Pleasant. He says small fruit raisers are not "in it" in California; they have a much better show in Oregon.

The Presbyterian Church.

The Presbyterians held their annual congregational meeting last Monday evening. The attendance was large and the interest manifested was encouraging. The officers and committees of the church rendered reports showing the denomination to be in a prosperous condition. The church declared itself self-supporting, and will hereafter dispense with the assistance of the board of home missions. The pastor's salary was increased and a vote of thanks to the pastor, Rev. G. Wm. Giboney, for his very wise management of the affairs of the church, was passed unanimously. The following officers were elected: elders, A. E. Donaldson, J. N. Macksburg and H. S. Strange; trustees, J. T. Apperson and M. McTeehan; treasurer, J. N. Macksburg; organist, Miss E. M. Donaldson; superintendent of Sunday school, H. S. Strange; assistant superintendent, G. Wm. Giboney; secretary and treasurer, H. A. Rands; librarian, W. S. Deattie.

THE COUNTY ASSESSMENT.

Figures Shown by Reports of Boards of Equalization for Five Years.

County Judge Meldrum, Clerk Horton, and Assessor Noble sat as a board of equalization on the county assessment last week. A few changes and new assessments were made but the aggregate was not materially changed. The assessment roll, having passed the board of equalization, shows the totals as given below. Included in the value of "Acres of land" is road bed of the Southern Pacific railway which was assessed at $75,000. The falling off in the number of live stock is attributed to the action of the assessor in not listing animals belonging to persons the aggregate value of whose property would not exceed the $300 exemption allowed by law. No good purpose is served by listing such property and it makes a great deal of work for the assessor. It will be noted that the increase in gross value of all property is in round numbers $460,000, which is considerably more than the increase of indebtedness.

Table with columns: Total value taxable property, Less excess of indebtedness, Gross value of all property, etc. Includes sub-tables for 1901 and 1902.

*Including 1 dog, $50.

HERMANN AT EAGLE CREEK.

He Addressed a Big Crowd of Farmers Last Saturday.

Last Saturday morning Congressman Ringer Hermann arrived from Roseburg on the overland train. He was met at the station by Hon. Peter Paquet, who took the congressman home to breakfast with him. Before 8 o'clock the party, which included Mr. Hermann, Mr. Paquet, Chairman Brownell, W. T. Whitlock, Postmaster Rands, M. H. Broderick, Deputy Marshal Miller, and C. A. Hermann, was on its way to Eagle Creek, a hamlet seventeen miles to the eastward of Oregon City. The people from the neighboring towns and adjacent country began gathering before noon, and at 1:30, the time advertised for the meeting, Wilburn's hall was filled to overflowing. Mr. Brownell called the meeting to order and said it was the plan of the republican campaign in this county to take the prominent workers of the party out among the party rank and file rather than compel the rank and file to travel long distances to the city to hear the political issues discussed. The central committee for that precinct having moved away, the selection of a chairman was given over to the meeting by Mr. Brownell and John M. Siker was nominated and unanimously elected. Mr. Siker thanked the meeting for the honor conferred and in a few felicitous remarks introduced Congressman Hermann.

In beginning his speech Mr. Hermann said it had been his custom to go among the plain people for instruction in respect to their wishes and he believed in such a plan of action. He deemed it the safest and best way of doing his duty to his constituents to get out among them and become personally acquainted with them, not at long range through the politicians. He addressed the people not as members of any party but as citizens. He accorded a full measure of praise to each of the presidential candidates, with each of whom he enjoyed a personal acquaintance, and then started out on an examination of the republican record and the principles it represented. He adverted to Mr. Cleveland's more than 600 vetoes in his four years of administration and compared it with the 109 vetoes in all the previous history of the government. He showed what an increase there had been in the number of land titles granted under Harrison's administration as compared with the previous one. The matter of pensions was also touched upon, the money matter briefly discussed and the tariff question handled at considerable length. The speech was fortified with statistics at every point. Mr. Hermann occupied a little more than two hours with his speech and he was frequently interrupted with applause.

After Mr Hermann had concluded there were loud calls for Brownell. He responded and made a rattling good ten minutes speech. Before adjourning it was announced that a meeting would be held at Meisinger's hall, Sandy, Saturday, October 15 at 1:30 p. m. to be addressed by Chairman Brownell and others. The chairman of the meeting was a Cleveland man eight years but he is convinced that the democrats don't want good government and so he is now heartily with the republicans.

There were approximately 500 people present at the Hermann meeting. The house was filled and many stood outside gathering in what they could at long range. Many from Lacey, Springwater, Damascus, Powell's Valley, Sandy, Logan and Viola and the intervening country were in attendance.

Congressman Hermann returned to Oregon City and was a guest of Mr. Paquet till Sunday when he went to Portland.

State C. E. Convention.

Christian Endeavorers should remember the state convention at Eugene October 14-16. Societies should not fail to send a number of delegates and thus assist in making the convention a success. The convention of '02 will be the greatest yet held—a great young people's rally. And you will regret it if you do not go. Go prepared to make a report of your society and give practical suggestions for the work. O. E. A. FREYTAG, County Secretary.

THE COUNCIL'S WORK.

Time for Paying Taxes Extended Thirty Days Longer.

Kelly, Porter and Randall were absent from the council meeting Wednesday night. A communication was received from the East Side railway company offering to build a bridge over the Abernethy that could be used for general traffic if the sum of $250 should be paid for doing so. The residents of Green Point had raised $150 of the amount and asked the council to pay the balance, $100. The council seemed favorably disposed toward the appropriation but in the absence of information concerning the exact width of the bridge etc, the matter was referred to a special committee consisting of Cook, Albright and O'Connell.

The petition to improve the "Baptist slide" was referred to the committee on streets and public property with power to act. A saloon license was granted to Matthias Huertli who purchased Joseph Brehm's saloon right.

There was considerable discussion of the matter of permitting Benjamin Jagger to erect a 16x24 wooden structure next to the city jail. Mr Jagger had spoken to some of the councilmen about it and they had told him they would not oppose it. However on a vote not to grant the permission asked for Albright, White and O'Connell voted Aye and Cooke and Greenman No.

The chief of police reported selling three head of cattle for $18.25 and presented a bill of $18.50 for the same. The recorder was instructed to rent the room back of Fountain hose room to Elmer Dixon at $5 a month. The garbage collecting ordinance was passed.

The assessor and collector reported that of the total tax of $4807.23, $4139.22 had been collected leaving $668.03 delinquent. Thereupon the time for paying taxes was extended thirty days.

Relative to the matter of permitting George A. Harding to build a crosswalk across Main street at his own expense, a motion was passed instructing the street superintendent to see that no crosswalks are constructed without the order of the council.

The subject of providing a new city jail was referred to the committee on health and police to report plans and the committee on fire and water was instructed to report where extra lights are needed in the city.

The following bills were allowed: Portland Gen. Electric Co., $135.00; L. A. Nobel, $5.00; J. E. Samson, $13.50; H. E. Cross, $20.00; L. L. Porter, $23.50; John Kelly, $42.50; Chas. Boldt, $8.00; M. Quinn, $15.00; J. S. Purdom, $77.50; Chris. Hoberg, $52.00; C. E. Fuge, $5.25; C. O. T. Williams, $83.75; J. H. Kellogg, $11.00; Sidney Smyth, $35.58; Hugh Peters, $53.00.
