Dishonest Parties.

The democrats and the populists have resolved to fuse in Oregon. This move surprises no one.

In Oregon the people's party is on record as being in harmony with the republicans on the tariff issue.

As has been said in these interviews, there is no difference between the democrats and the people's party on the tariff question.

The democrats can gain nothing directly by endorsing a populist man.

The board of supervisors of Oregon City have gone too far in requiring bicycle riders to dismount every time they approach teams on the highway.

We wonder where the Telegram became possessed of this item of news.

Taxes and Indebtedness.

The people north of the Clackamas who are advocating annexation to Multnomah county lose sight of the relative conditions of the two counties financially.

Portland and Multnomah county together already have an indebtedness that may be stated in round numbers at about $6,000,000 and $7,000,000.

What roads Multnomah county has made by gradually working out from the city. When the country people howled because they could get no improvements in remote sections the city had the power to continue the administration that pursued this course and it did so.

Another thing.—The city of Portland is practically Multnomah county. The city gets all the offices and no one thinks of giving any other part of the county any consideration whatever except to collect the taxes which Portland may see fit to levy upon it.

land and Multnomah county had but a fraction of their present debt and there had been no movement toward consolidating city and county.

Don't Lose Sight of These.

Oregon must not lose sight of some things that should be demanded of the next legislature.

The subject of first importance to the whole state is the repeal of the present iniquitous assessment law permitting deductions for indebtedness.

An appropriation for a monument to Dr. John McLoughlin, the father of Oregon, should be made.

These are among the things that the people should insist on bringing before the legislature in a manner that will not admit of shirking on the part of their representatives.

Here are a few shrieks of a calamity or two:

- List of items: Silver bullion stored, Gold bullion stored, Banker's bonds stored, etc.

Now if the reader will stop to think that the exporter or importer receives the same favor whether he handles wheat, cotton, wool, meats, butter, eggs, etc., or any other product of the farms as he does if he handles silks and satins the situation is not at all against the producer of these articles.

Teachers' Association.

The next meeting of the teachers of Clackamas county will be held at Clackamas Saturday, November 26.

These varied things are stored by the United States government as the property of favored individuals.

Then why don't you work for the republican ticket? It is republican policy that brought this about.

A FAC SIMILE of the official ballot, which is the same for every precinct in the state this fall, appears on the seventh page of this paper.

The joint debate arranged between the republicans and the people's party is off because the same date has been taken by General Applegate for a populist speech and the managers are not willing to cancel his appointment.

If this beautiful weather continues two weeks longer it is feared the election will not be legal.

Home News From Abroad.

THE STATE PRESS.

McMinnville Reporter: An item telegraphed from Salem on the 16th, said: Railroad Commissioner Hamilton is inspecting the Southern Pacific lines by himself, as Commissioner Clow is sick and Commissioner Colvig is preparing his report.

Hillsboro Independent: An elector in Hillsboro being approached and importuned to cast his ballot for the reform presidential candidate broke out: "I'll be dogged if I'll vote for a man who has stomped all over this nation with a woman who ought to be some other man's wife. Don't talk reform to me!"

ANNUAL SCHOOL BOOK ROBBERY.

Grants Pass Courier: By the way who is responsible for the annual robbery perpetrated on the parents of Oregon through this thieving school book purchase system? Why do parents have to pay so much more for books than they did twenty years ago? We understand that the legislature—one of those notorious legislatures which Oregon is in the habit of electing—selected some one particular firm and allowed them whatever price they asked for their books.

CONVICTS ON THE ROADS.

Eugene Register: Michigan intends to work her convicts on the roads. This action will be watched with interest in a great many states, and especially in Oregon, where the matter of adopting the same plan has been talked of a great deal.

Col. W. W. Chapman.

Col. W. W. Chapman died at Portland, Oct. 18, 1892, aged 84 years. He was a native of Virginia.

The address of Carl Schurz and other politicians of the same ilk to the German-American voters, urging them to support Cleveland, will hardly have the desired effect.

When the German-American looks back to his fatherland he does not see any reason for being a free trader. He knows that Germany has a protective tariff, and that its advantages in her case are similar to those which we have derived from the same source.

FOR GERMANS' VOTES.

DEMOCRATS MAKE A BID WHICH WILL PROVE FUTILE.

There are many reasons why the Germans will not support a free trade candidate—Bismarck and Caprivi are both believers in protection.

It is useless to present theories to them showing that a tariff system like ours is a wrong and a burden, and that it would be better to throw open our markets to cheap foreign products and put our labor in competition with that of countries where wages barely suffice to keep soul and body together.

A tribute of equal praise has been given to us in the same relation by his successor, Caprivi, who is also a protectionist, as are most of the leading German statesmen.

Money Won't Work "Out West."

The desperate efforts which the democrats are making to secure the electoral votes of Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska, Minnesota and Wisconsin show how little hope they have of winning in the doubtful states of the east.

Results of Ten Months.

What, then, has the McKinley law already accomplished? It has increased our farm exports by more than $10,000,000 through the operation of its reciprocity clauses.

Coal Miners' Wages.

The Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company has just fixed the wages of its coal miners at an average of $2.6035 per day.

A Cheerful Contemplation, Indeed.

The Democratic party, should it elect its president, at ticket and carry the next congress, proposes to take the duty off wool and to allow peon mined Mexican lead ore to come into this country free of duty.

David Was Right The Time.

Again we remark that David B. Hill was right when he said the Democratic platform had turned every workship in the country into a Republican headquarters.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

WORKMEN'S SAVINGS.

A Deplorable Condition from the Calamity Howlers' Standpoint.

It is the duty of the superintendent of the banking department of the state of New York to make out semiannually a report showing the condition of the banks under his supervision.

What Superintendent Preston's report does show is that the total deposits in the savings banks of the state—which are peculiarly the wage earners' places of deposit—have increased from $615,880,796 on Jan. 1, 1889, to $701,112,873.48 on July 1, 1892.

Why is it that the wage earners of the state have been able to save nearly $10,000,000 out of their wages during the first six months of this year?

These two democrats, Commissioner Peck and Superintendent Preston, have furnished in their official reports, without at all meaning to do so, two excellent republican campaign documents.
