THE COUNCIL MEETS.

Two New Ordinances Ordered Published.

Report of the Water Commissioner—New Lights Ordered and Old ones Changed.

There was a full attendance at the council meeting last Friday night though Councilman Kelly got excused and went home some time before the session closed. A communication from Judge Meldrum relative to the county's share of the main street sewer assessment was read. The matter had been overlooked during the October session of the court and the judge asked that an extension of time be granted the county until the November term without extra expense. The request was granted.

A written request from Geo. A. Harding for permission to lay a crosswalk on Main street from his drug store to the postoffice was granted.

Benjamin Jaggard asked permission to build a frame bridge from his new residence to the railroad property, submitting the plans for the same, and the permission was granted.

The chief of police reported that two horses impounded had been sold for $20, of which $4.70 was covered into the city treasury, the remainder going for expenses.

The report of the city engineer certifying to the satisfactory completion of the sewerage contract, and stating that there would be a rebate to the property owners on the street of about 35 per cent of their assessment for the improvement was presented. Engineer Smyth also made verbal remarks recommending the passage of an ordinance to regulate the matter of making sewer connections and suggesting that drains to catch basins be opened and that the sewers be flushed once a month or so in order to keep them clean.

The recorder reported five cases in his court in each of which a fine of $10 had been imposed and paid.

The committee on streets and public property reported recommending the erection of incandescent lights at the following street corners: On Fifth at Washington, Jefferson and Monroe; on Washington at Fourth, Sixth and Eighth; on Ninth at J. Q. Adams, Jefferson and Washington; and at Twelfth and Jefferson. One of the two lamps near the head of the Sixth street stairs was ordered removed and the one near W. C. Johnson's was recommended to be placed about 10 feet higher. Another important recommendation in the report was that the lights on Main street be suspended over the center of the street instead of at the side as now, and that the street superintendent remove trees that interfere with lighting the streets to good advantage. The petition for a light at Sixth and Main streets was adversely reported, the report was adopted after a little discussion regarding the extra expense entailed in carrying out its provisions, only Porter voting No. The committee on health and police reported favorable on the new sewers and submitted a plan for a city jail which was informally considered. Then the committee was ordered to have somewhat different plans drawn and to advertise for bids for the jail, the whole matter to be laid before the council before further action should be taken.

O'Connell called attention to the game of chance being run on Main street at corner of Fourth where the people were importuned to throw balls at dolls or through a hole for a prize. He said it was not just to property holders and business men to allow fakery to come to town and occupy the public streets with schemes to get money without paying taxes or licenses or having any investment of any consequence. The chief of police explained that there was no ordinance to cover this and similar cases and that he told the faker that if no objection was raised he could do business but must pay $1 per day for the privilege, which he had done. O'Connell, however, thought the faker should be ordered off the street and a motion to that effect was unanimously passed. An ordinance providing punishment for inmates of bawdy houses and one establishing sewer district No. 1 were read and ordered published. They appear elsewhere in this paper.

It was ordered that a warrant be drawn on the general fund in favor of the sewer fund for Oregon City's portion of the sewer cost. Contractor Riner was also ordered paid $5,000 on his contract. Clackamas county's bill of $183.85 for gravel used on Seventh street was ordered paid.

On motion of O'Connell a committee of three was appointed to confer with a like committee from the board of trade in the matter of revising the Oregon City charter. O'Connell, Cooke and Porter were named as such committee.

The report of the water commissioner was read and ordered published. Here it is:

To the Honorable, the Mayor and City Council of Oregon City, County of Clackamas, State of Oregon.

GENTLEMEN:—In conformity with ordinance number one hundred and eighty-two we respectfully submit this, our semi-annual report of the business transacted by the Board of Water Commissioners of Oregon City, for the six months ending November 1st, 1892.

We have laid during the said six months six hundred and seventy-two feet of six inch iron pipe, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight feet of four inch and eight hundred and eighty-two feet of three-fourth inch, making the total number of feet laid three thousand four hundred and two feet. The six inch pipe was laid on Monroe from Fifth to Seventh streets, the four on Seventh street from Monroe to the city line on the east, at the end of said Seventh street where we have permitted a number of people residing outside the city to connect with said main, they paying in advance one year's water rent, and entering into an agreement to observe the rules and regulations of the city in connection with said water service. We would also call the attention of your honorable body to a petition that we understand has been presented to you for your consideration regarding the bridging of the canyon or gulch on Madison and Fourteenth streets. There is a large portion of the city, on the other or north side of said gulch, who have no water supply during a part of the year, and who are very anxious that the water service should be extended so that they may have the benefit of the same. Owing to the depth of said gulch, it is impracticable for us to extend the mains into that section unless some means of crossing said gulch is provided, and we would, in the event of your looking favorably on such a project as bridging said gulch, request your honorable body to have it constructed in such a manner as would allow the resting of a water main on such structure. The pumps are working satisfactorily and have given very good service during the past season. The receipts for the past six months amount to $2,477.80 an increase of nearly $300 over the preceding six months.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT. Collections for the six months ending October 31st, 1892: Collected during the month of May $393 00, June 390 45, July 393 45, Aug. 408 23, Sept. 496 43, Oct. 334 20. Ought to be smaller—the great, gripping, old-fashioned pill. There's too much unpleasantness for the money. Ought to be better, too. They're big enough, and make trouble enough, to do more good. That's just what Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets do—more good. Instead of weakening the system, they renovate it; instead of upsetting, they cleanse and regulate it—mildly, gently, and naturally. They're the original Little Liver Pills—the smallest but most effective, purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, and easiest to take. Only one little Pellet for a laxative—three for a cathartic. Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attack, and all derangements of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels are promptly relieved and permanently cured. They're the cheapest pills you can buy, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. You pay only for the good you get. It's a plan peculiar to Dr. Pierce's medicines.
