A SEVERE STORM.

Railroads Blockaded - Whole

Mountain Sides Sliding.

AN AVALANCHE IN WASHINGTON

Political Points Gathered After the Fray—The Big Pension Roll—Convict Labor in Georgia.

PORTLAND, Or., Nov. 22.—Superintendent

Bexter of the Union Pacific, who has been at the landslide at Reed's ranch for the past week, has completed arrangements for transferring passengers and freight without inconvenience or delay. Stagings have been built down to the river, and the steamer Bontia makes the transfer from Oneonta to Bonneville in about 20 minutes. Mr. Bexter has also arranged for right-of-way to build a track around the slide. Material is on the ground and the track will be completed by Wednesday night. Mr. Bexter says he has had 20 years experience in railroading, but this landslide is the biggest one he has ever seen. It sends down a mass of stuff about every hour, and gives a grand display about twice a day, when huge trees and bowlders as big as box-cars come down with a noise that is deafening. In order to get men to work, it was necessary to station sentries within half of each other clear up the side of the mountain, and whenever a slide starts, warning was given by shouting from one to another. The debris has passed clear across Reed's ranch to the river. The new track will have to be built across the flow of mud, but it spreads out as it approaches the river, and it is thought there will be no trouble about building the bridge.

Avalanch in Washington.

FAIRMHAVEN, WASH., Nov. 19.—An avalanche came down the mountain on the east side of Lake Whatcom this morning about 2 o'clock, sweeping the house occupied by Warren Burgess and wife into the lake. They were sleeping when the avalanch started, and when they woke up they were 500 feet out from the shore of the lake in a pile of debris. Burgess had his leg crushed, but managed to rescue his wife and swim with her to shore. They lay on the shore without clothing in a terrific storm for seven hours. Burgess' injuries are liable to prove fatal. The lake is covered for several miles with debris of the avalanch.

It swept every vestige of timber and improvement from Burgess' ranch.

Extra Session Talk.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Speaking of the prospect of an extra session, one of the prominent democrats said it would all depend on undeveloped conditions. He had seen Mr. Cleveland and is satisfied that it is not possible for him to tell yet what will be done. The financial affairs of the government may be in such shape as to make an extra session imperative.

It appears probable we shall find not enough money in the treasury for the needs of the government. We shall have to see what congress does at this session. If they do not repeal the Sherman law relating to the purchase of silver and take other action as the situation demands, we may be swamped.

Upon these things depends the calling of an extra session.

In Their Old Places.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Nov. 18.—The mechanics and day laborers who have been out on a strike in sympathy with the members of the Amalgamated Association at Homestead, held a meeting today and voted to apply for their old places. The meeting had barely adjourned when there was a perfect scramble to reach the Carnegie mill offices. The laborers were given employment, as were also a large number of mechanics. There were not enough vacancies to go around, however, and many were turned away.

The Tilden Will Suit Settled.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The trustees of the estate of Samuel J. Tilden, report that a settlement between them and the relatives contesting the dead statesman's will has been arrived at. The original idea of establishing a library and reading room in this city for the education of young men, to be known as "The Tilden Trust," is now actually in sight and needs only official indorsement.

To Restrict Immigration.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 13.—One of the most prominent republicans in the East says the restriction of immigration will come before congress early in December and says that Senator Chandler has prepared a bill with that end in view, providing that emigrants make a three months' application to the United States Consuls abroad.

Mrs. Lease for Senator.

WICHITA, Kan., Nov. 18.—It is said that there are 35 members of the Kansas legislature who will vote for Mrs.

Lease. She at least will have a great influence with them, and to prevent their going to Jerry Simpson or a democrat she will be a candidate herself.

When she was asked if it was possible for her to get enough votes, she said:

"Anything is possible with God and the farmers of Kansas!"

A. L. Williams, of the Union Pacific railroad, said today:

"I see no constitutional reason why

Mrs. Lease should not be a senator.

There is nothing to prevent it but the popular idea that a senator should be a man. I hope she will be elected. She would keep the senators pretty busy if they send her to Washington."

Mrs. Murray A. Lease said this afternoon:

"I have never announced myself for the United States senate, but if any fight is made upon me upon the ground of my sex, and it is claimed that I am ineligible, I will most certainly enter the race and make a test case of it."

As Iowa Blizzard.

DEBUQUE, Ia., Nov. 18.—Debuque's first winter storm proved the severest and most disastrous experienced for many years. Snow began falling yesterday morning, accompanied by high wind, and before midnight a blizzard set in, and in a short time telegraphic
