LESSON OF AN ADVERTISEMENT.

The New York Press of November 13th contains an advertisement in which occurs the following:

"We will give ample grounds and erect modern and well-equipped factories and give rent free for twenty years to manufacturers of reputation desirous of locating their business plants at..."

The name of the place is here added. This advertisement should be a lesson to us, inasmuch as we have our hopes of future greatness on the building up of factories in our midst. To meet such an inducement as this what are we doing, or what have we to offer? It is generally understood that the Power Company offers inducements to mill men in the shape of free power and sites. This is well and as it should be.

The Company expects with the development of the power here, and in the improvement of which they are spending large sums of money, to receive remuneration in sales of power, and increased values of land of which they have good holdings. But "The Company" is not the only one that has been benefited by recent growth of the place which has resulted in increased values. All owners of realty both large and small have shared the prosperity of the past and will be mutually benefited by future improvements. Is it not then the duty of every citizen to help to secure factories here by offering inducements calculated to bring them. Let this community, from the day laborer to the retired business man or farmer with a few thousand saved up, become a mutual aid society with the common purpose to do each his share to build up the town, especially by bringing factories, and it will be the most active to keep pace with the development of the city. Such a policy will surely result in great good and will in a very short time make Oregon City renowned both far and near for her energy and public spiritedness. Meanwhile all will be benefited financially and be better citizens for the interest taken in the advancement of the common good.

A CLEAN RECORD.

The New York Sun says of President Harrison's administration: "The twenty-third president of the United States will go out of office on the 4th of next March, having earned the respect and sincere esteem of his fellow countrymen, democrats as well as republicans."

"While the political fates have decreed that Benjamin Harrison shall figure in history as a one-term president, that one term will stand without the disfigurement of any serious scandal, and marked with many creditable deeds and important public services."

"It is a pleasant thing to remember that in the canvass just ended few words have been said or written concerning Gen. Harrison which represent him as anything but what he is, namely, a man of superior intellect and elevated character, and a chief magistrate whom the country can always regard with admiration."

REPUBLICAN STEADFASTNESS.

The republican party was defeated but it is not going out of business just yet, as some seem to think. The party is based on solid principles, whose soundness has been thoroughly tested. For nearly thirty-two years this nation has been controlled by the principles of that party. The almost universal prosperity and unparalleled success of this period attest their value. And now because a change is ordered by the voter must it follow that the party cannot stand defeat and must go to pieces? The principles of the republican party cannot be done at the beck of pettifoggling politicians of the rainbow chasing sort. The Inter Ocean speaking of the party's future says:

"The Republican party is not dismayed by defeat now any more than it was in 1856 or 1861. It accepts occasional disaster as a part of the fortunes of politics under a popular form of government. The democracy will now be put upon trial. From 1865 to 1892 it was hedged in by a republican senate. Now, with the aid of the populists of the senate, it will have a majority, and after the 4th of March next will be in power. It must do one of two things, either abandon its hostility to protection or put that hostility into practical effect. The republican party as a political organization can afford to wait with equanimity the result, and as to the effects upon the industrial interest of the country of a return to free trade, if such a return shall be made, in whole or in part, they would be no worse for republicans than for democrats. Hard times, like good times, are shared by the people, irrespective of party. With the republicans unflinching in their loyalty to protection, that fundamental principle is in no danger of overthrow. The sun may be eclipsed, but its fires cannot be put out."

ALBERT A. POPE, of Boston, who has given a good deal of study to the road question, has issued a petition asking the general government to establish a department of roads similar to that of agriculture. While all will admit the necessity of good roads yet there must be a limit to the oversight assumed by the national government. It is impossible to get the different sections of a state like Oregon to agree upon road legislation. How much more cumbersome then must the machinery become when in the hands of the nation? The slowly dragging internal and coast improvements of this state answer. We believe that the road question is largely a local one and that the state should legislate to promote the best possible improvements.

With the hope of greatly increased sales of manufactured goods to this country augmented by democratic success, the Berlin bi-metallic conference is far less likely to succeed in its object than would have been the case had the result been different. Europeans hope and expect to ship to America vast quantities of goods making the balance of trade in their favor instead of against them. This balance they would prefer in gold, hence they are likely to prefer a single standard in the conference. Had conditions indicated a balance in favor of this continent they would have been bi-metallic.

The increased enrollment in the public schools is crowding them to their fullest capacity and a new school building is an urgent necessity. If the residents of Ely and Fatis View desire to be attached to this district for the purpose of enjoying the benefits of a graded school they should move to come in at once, as the number of pupils to be provided for will influence this district in determining the size to build the new school building. There is not much time to spare before the annual meeting in March prior to which date any changes contemplated should be completed.

SENATOR ALLISON of Iowa characteristically says of the situation, "The result of the late election recalls to mind the fate of the man who thought he was ill and took a dose of medicine with the result that it made him sick." He adds, "Perhaps that will be the way a democratic administration will affect the country." The "any thing for a change" policy may bring conditions not agreeable to those who were chiefly instrumental in bringing about the change.

THE Marion County Democrat says: "In Forest Grove, the town hoodlums egged a democratic procession last week. We want to emphasize the fact that this was in Forest Grove, Oregon—not down in Mississippi." The Democrat failed to add that in republican Oregon the egg throwers were arrested and punished while in democratic Mississippi they were not molested. Tell the whole truth. What is that about half the truth being a whole lie?

Four years ago there was a determined effort made to divide Clackamas county by attaching a part of it to Multnomah. It is worthy of note that a number of the most influential men who favored division then are opposed to it now. Presumably they recognize the rapidly changing conditions which are destined to make Oregon City a great manufacturing center in the near future, and wish to remain to share in the general prosperity.

OREGON CITY has long desired increased transportation facilities to and from Portland. Now that the motor line is being built within the city limits ought we not to make use of the opportunity and give the town a good lift? If no one knows of our improved prospects no one will come here to help in building up the town and surrounding country. Why not "toot our own horn" in a modest way?

THE Oregonian makes R. Scott's proposition to work convicts on the roads the subject for a favorable editorial. The great objection to convict labor is that it brings cheap labor into competition with the individual. This would not be true in following this plan as it would result in improvements which would otherwise remain undone. It would not cost much to try it.

The trick of the democratic managers in having Pierce's name printed twice on the same ticket has resulted in a majority for him on the face of the returns. So far as the result is concerned it matters not that the trick is successful, but in view of the plain statement of law that no one's name shall appear more than once on the ticket it is a good time to test the question.

The Kansas legislature by the election of Mrs. Lease as United States senator would plant a deep thorn in the side of the democratic senate. Wouldn't that party squirm and twist to find a valid excuse for refusing her a seat.

The Northwest Reform Journal, the people's party organ, sports a crowing rooster at the head of its columns. It is not afraid now as before election to air its democratic leanings.

WILL Bob Miller's "inefficiency" make him ineligible when it comes to sharing the loaves and fishes? It is a poor rule that won't work both ways.

Those who have been successful the past year can be thankful for that, and the rest of us that it is not worse than it is.

PRESS COMMENT.

CAN'T SUIT BOTH. Spokane Review: Mr. Cleveland's administration will be disappointing to a large number of the people who are hoping now over his victory. Somebody is going to be deceived and disappointed. He cannot at the same time meet the expectations of the moneyed interests of New York city and the flatlands of the western prairies.

LOOKING FOR FRIENDS. East Oregonian: The office-seeker is already abroad in the land. He carries an air about with him, as the sole recommendation for the position he seeks, that if it hadn't been for him the democratic candidates wouldn't have been in it.

ALL THEY CAN GET. Eugene Register: The people's party took a prominent part in the election of Cleveland. Now what part will they take in the distribution of the government offices?

DON'T LIKE HIM. East Oregonian: R. W. Mitchell, colonel by the grace of Governor Penoyer, is an applicant for the important office of collector of customs at Portland. Mr. Mitchell is a popular and intelligent man, but he is neither entitled to nor fit for the office to which he aspires. Mr. Mitchell's popularity is of too flimsy and trivial a character to be taken into consideration in this connection.

A DEMOCRATIC WALL. Portland Dispatch: We regarded it as rather a joke when Mrs. Lease's name was announced as a candidate for the United States senate, but it is not only a fact that she is in the field, but has most excellent prospects of success. Kansas was born in sorrow, and her afflictions are not yet ended.

ALL THE SAME CROW. Some two weeks ago two well-known gentlemen of Dobbin's, West Virginia, made an agreement that should Harrison be elected the democrat should eat a live rat, and should Cleveland be elected vice versa. The democrat, with characteristic liberality, consented that the rat should be cooked, and in this condition he was devoured by the republican a few nights since in the Dobbin's town hall. The latter gentleman is reported to have said that the ill-fated rodent tasted much like crow.

WORLD'S FAIR SOUVENIRS. The world's fair souvenir half-dollar, it is reported, will be the most artistic coin ever issued from the mint. All of these souvenir coins, except five, are being sold at a uniform price of $1 each. For the first coin struck off $10,000 has already been offered, and various prices have been bid for the 40th, 1425th, 1892nd and last coin. Desiring that these souvenirs be distributed as widely as possible among the people, and that all, irrespective of locality, have an equal chance to obtain them, the exposition authorities have thought to prevent syndicates and others from purchasing large quantities and thus cornering the sale. On the contrary they have arranged to supply banks, business houses and individuals in all parts of the country with as many as they may desire to distribute among their patrons, customers or friends.

A REPUBLICAN CHARACTERISTIC. New York Press: The present cry that the career of the republican party is ended comes from the same party which in 1864 declared the republican conduct of the war a failure. The trouble with the republican party is that it refuses to stay defeated.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved. From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my Lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all, eight bottles; it has cured me and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at G. A. Harding's drugstore, regular size 50c. and $1.00.

JAPANESE PILE CURE

A new and complete treatment, consisting of Suppositories, Ointment in Capsules, also in Box and Pills; a positive cure for External, Internal, Blind or Bleeding, Itching, Chronic, Recent or Hereditary Piles, and many diseases and female weaknesses; it is always a great benefit to the general health. The first discovery of a medicinal cure rendering an operation with the knife unnecessary hereafter. This remedy has never been known to fail. $1 per box. 6 for $5, sent by mail. Why suffer from this terrible disease when a written guarantee is given with six boxes to refund the money if not cured. Send stamp for free sample. Guarantee issued by WOODARD CLARK & Co, wholesale and retail druggists, sole agents, Portland, Oregon.

Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a certain remedy. But it must be taken in time—and now is the time to take it. It purifies the blood—that's the secret. Nothing else acts like it. It's the most potent strength-restorer, blood-cleanser, and flesh-builder known to medical science. For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh, and all lingering Coughs, it's a remedy that's guaranteed, in every case, to benefit or cure. If it doesn't, the money is returned. In other words, it's sold on trial. No other medicine of its kind is. And that proves that nothing else is "just as good" as the "Discovery". The dealer is thinking of his profit, not of yours, when he urges something else. Judge for yourself which is likely to be the better medicine.
