A Sad Affliction.

Mrs. Hallam, who is well known in Oregon City, as Minnie Howell, has met with a sad bereavement in the death of her husband. On account of poor health he started east about the 8th of November to visit his old home. He was feeling quite well and cheerful when he started but the high altitude or something else produced a hemorrhage and ten minutes later he died. From a paper at his old home we quote:

Charles La Moine Hallam, the oldest son of Salathiel and Eliza J. Hallam, was born in Livingston county, Ill., January 25, 1857. In 1861 the family removed to Woodford, county, settling near Eureka, where Charles resided until 1882, when he went west. He lived in Missouri and Kansas about five years when he went to Oregon. On Dec. 21, 1889, he was married to Minnie M. Howell, of Oregon City. The next February he suffered a severe attack of influenza, from which he never fully recovered. His health continuing to decline, it was thought best that he should return to Illinois in hope of improvement. In company with his wife and his brother Frank the start was made. He seemed to be standing the trip well, and was in high anticipation of a visit with kindred and friends, but suddenly, when at Cisco, Utah he suffered hemorrhage of the lungs and died on the train.

Such is the brief record of a life that had only reached the middle of the allotted three-score and ten. As a boy Charlie was orderly and industrious, and as a young man so honorable and upright as to command the respect of all. When it was learned that he was dead there was universal sorrow among his old neighbors, and sincere sympathy with his kindred. His death was the harsh breaking of what had been a large and happy family circle. That circle will long mourn for Charlie, but in their grief will mingle no shame for any unworthy conduct on the part of husband, son and brother.

We offer a great variety of appropriate presents for ladies, gentlemen and children. We can supply a suitable gift for old or young at any price you desire to expend. BURMEISTER & ANDRESEN.

It will take her two weeks to bring the wheat from that one point. The Salem has been withdrawn from the upper river as she is too heavy, slow and expensive to operate. Capt.
