The storm is general and the trains are delayed so that no eastern mail can get through.

HENDERSON'S DAY.

JUDGE McBRIDE ISSUES THE WARRANT OF EXECUTION.

January Twenty-fourth the Fatal Day. The Execution Not to be Public.

Sheriff Ganong has received the warrant of execution from Judge McBride commanding him to execute Wm. Henderson on the 24th day of January. This warrant which was issued on Monday reads as follows:

THE WARRANT. Now, Therefore in the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby commanded that on the 24th day of January, A. D., 1893, between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and three o'clock in the afternoon of said day in the jail yard of Clackamas county, Oregon, in the presence of twelve bona fide electors of said county, you inflict upon said Wm. Henderson by the neck until he is dead, and that you and there to and perform all the commanded by said judgment to be done or performed by you and cause a proper certification thereof to be made as required by law.

In witness whereof I have hereunto affixed my hand and signature and caused the same to be attested by the clerk of said court and seal of said court to be affixed at Oregon City in said county on this 19th day of December, 1892. THOMAS A. McBRIDE, Circuit Judge of Fifth Judicial District of Oregon.

Attest: GEO. F. HORTON, Clerk of Circuit Court.

HENDERSON RECEIVES THE NEWS.

On Tuesday W. C. Ganong told Henderson that the day of his execution had been fixed for the 24th, but as his attorney, Hon. Henry McGinn of Portland is preparing the case for argument before the supreme court and holds out every encouragement to the doomed man that he will be successful in securing a new trial, Henderson does not believe that he will hang. To the sheriff he said that if he had to hang he would try and walk to his doom without weakening. As yet he shows no signs of being overcome by his impending fate as he has a good appetite, appears cheerful and sleeps well.

The warrant of execution issued by the judge is in accord with the statutes of the state in its provisions for private executions.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES.

Literary Society Elects Officers—Mock Trial in the Society.

Last week closed the first term of school, also examinations except in general history and physical geography. Many absences have been caused during the past week by sickness. Miss Junia Wade became ill last Tuesday and her place was supplied by Miss H. B. McCown, while Miss Sade Chase took charge of Miss McCown's room. The register shows 461 enrolled the same as the second month.

The society met last Friday evening and proceeded to elect the following officers: Pauline Campbell, president; Vera Caulfield, vice-president; James Church, Secretary; Eva Meldrum, treasurer; Minnie Ackerman and Leigh Kelly, members of executive committee; Lawrence Driggs, janitor.

The trial followed with Clarence Purdom, judge; Prof. Pringle, prosecuting attorney; Lawrence Driggs and Fred Hedges, attorneys for defense. Prisoner, Mike Hannigan (Dan Tompkins) charged with breaking windows; complaining witness widow O'Toole; witnesses, Chas. Wilson, Bert Beattie, Homer Martin and May Wishart. Jurors, James Church, foreman and the Messrs. Lara Miller, Minnie Ackerman, Pauline Campbell, Eva Meldrum and Vera Caulfield, sheriff, Leighton Kelly.

The trial proved very interesting the special features were: The pleadings of the lawyers and the touching way in which Widow O. Toole (Miss Sade Chase) stated her wrongs to the jury. Although a lack of knowledge in court procedure was evinced, the trial passed off in a manner creditable to the participants. The prisoner was convicted and sentenced. PUPIL.

Fire Near Canby.

Our Canby correspondent's letter was unavoidably crowded out this week except this account of a loss to John Fox who lives two miles east of Canby and who was burned out of house and home last Saturday morning. Nothing saved except the clothes they wore. Mr. Fox was not at home at the time. Mrs. Fox says she had just finished washing and was hanging out the clothes when she saw a smoke issuing from the roof and rushed in only too late to find her home in flames. The loss will probably reach $250. Mr. Fox is a young married man without any children and has lived near Canby for some time. The neighbors have taken up quite a good subscription which will be a great help to them.

TEACHERS RESIGNED.—Two of the teachers of the public school, Mrs. Geo. L. Story and Miss E. M. Donaldson having resigned their positions to date from the Christmas vacation, the board held a special meeting on Tuesday and filled one of the positions by electing Miss Gertrude Findley, who is now teaching in Hubbard. She is a graduate of the public school here and of the state normal school.

Mr. J. P. Blaize, an extensive real estate dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of that state during a recent blizzard, says the Saturday Review. Mr. Blaize had occasion to drive several miles during the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to get warm, and inside of an hour after his return he was threatened with pneumonia or lung fever. Mr. Blaize sent to the nearest drugstore and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took several large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and in a short time he was breathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day he was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blaize regards his cure as simply wonderful. For sale by GEO. A. HARDING.

MOXMOOUTH.

Clackamas County Students Coming Home for the Holidays—The School Crowded.

MOXMOOUTH, Dec. 19.—School closes for the holidays Friday, Dec. 23rd, and opens again Tuesday, January 3rd, 1893.

Among the new students at the beginning of last term were three from Clackamas county, Harvey Gard and Irene Lee from Clarke, and D. Engle of Molalla. All students from Clackamas, except A. B. Hubbard of Marquand, Irene Lee and Harry Gard of Clarke, intend going home to spend the holidays.

Frank Knight of Mulino left school the first of the month and has not yet returned. The rooms of the state normal school have reached their utmost capacity. Everybody is hoping for some action from the coming legislature in the way of enlarging the building or otherwise improving the premises.

One of the most interesting features of the school is a recital given once a month by the musical department. Lives of prominent classical composers are given and a short study of the different kinds of musical compositions, with vocal and instrumental selections to illustrate.

A stock company composed of students has been formed for the purpose of decorating and otherwise beautifying one of the recitation rooms, the object being to incite in art, literature, history, and the general good taste of the body of students who recite in said room.

JAMES R. WAITE, Manager of Waite's Celebrated Comedy Co. Premium Band and Orchestra.

Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind. You will remember the condition I was in five years ago, when I was afflicted with a combination of diseases, and thought there was no help for me. I tried all kinds of medicines, and scores of eminent physicians. My nerves were prostrated, producing dizziness, heart trouble and all the ills that make life miserable. I commenced to take DR. MILES' NERVINE and in three months I WAS PERFECTLY CURED. In my travels each year, when I see the thousands of physical wrecks, suffering from nervous prostration, taking prescriptions from local physicians who have no knowledge of their cause, and whose death is certain, I feel like going to them and saying: "GET DR. MILES' NERVINE AND BE CURED." In my profession, where there are so many men who are overworked, overtaxed, and nervous exhaustion, brought on by the character of the business engaged in, I would recommend DR. MILES' NERVINE as a sure cure for all suffering from these causes. JAMES R. WAITE. SOLD ON A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. TRY DR. MILES' PILLS, 50 DOSES 25 CTS. For sale by Charman & Co.
