CHAT ABOUT TOWN.

W. J. D'Arcy of Salem, was in Oregon City last Saturday.

Attorney Manning of Gervais, was in town last week on business.

The Monday morning overland did not arrive till Tuesday morning.

The infant child of Frank Busch is dangerously sick, a cold being the primary cause.

Miss Zetta Edmiston closed a successful term of school at Jones' mill on Wednesday last.

Send 25 cents in stamps or coin and get the ENTERPRISE to read during the long winter evenings.

Nathan Tingle of Columbia county who has been sick the past week at H. E. Cross, is able to be out again.

Professor B. E. Powell of the Pacific University, was in the city on Monday. He thinks Oregon City's future very bright.

The cottage at the head of Seventh street owned by W. W. Marrs has been neatly repaired, and will be occupied by John Aldredge.

On account of a Baptismal service the pastor of the Baptist church will postpone the sermon to working men one week until January 8th.

Frank J. Aldredge and Lottie Myers were married at the groom's residence, in the city, on the 21st day of December, by Rev. J. S. McCromb.

There was a Christmas tree and interesting exercises at the Jones' mill school house on Monday under the joint auspices of the Sunday and day school.

The only veteran of the Mexican war in Clackamas county, so far as known, is C. P. Winnet, whose pension has just been raised from 8 to 12 dollars per month.

Hon. Henry E. McGinn of Portland, was up on Friday taking the necessary final steps toward getting Henderson's case before the supreme court. He could not tell just how soon he would be able to get a hearing.

A deed to a choice corner lot in a live town like Denison, Texas, is not a bad thing for a Christmas present, and that is the way E. E. Williams feels about the one his mother sent him.

E. P. and H. A. Rands walked from Forest Grove to Portland, 27 miles, last Friday and Saturday morning finding snow six feet deep in places. There were no trains running and they passed two stuck in the snow on their way in.

The installation of the officers of E. D. Baker post sons of veterans will occur at Pope's hall, Jan. 5th, 1903. Members of Meade Post No. 2 G. A. R., and of the Woman's Relief Corps No. 18, are invited to be present, and all members of the camp are expected to be in attendance.

George Rinearson is stiff the whole length of him caused by walking from the snow bound train at Latourelle Falls to Troutdale on Sunday. George was returning from his trip east to New York and Washington when he was stopped by the blockade on the Union Pacific. Not to be checked by a little snow, he waded in and reached home on Monday much pleased with his trip and the sights of the far east, yet glad to get back to webfoot land again.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Hon. J. M. Tracey was in the city on Wednesday on business.

J. M. Long, a rising young attorney of Portland was in the city yesterday on business.

T. L. Charman and wife spent Christmas with Mrs. Charman's parents in Milwaukee.

H. H. Robb, who closed a successful term of school at Rock Creek on Friday, was in town on Tuesday.

Professor H. T. Evans, principle of the Oswego schools, called on Superintendent Gibson on Saturday.

Miss Anna Mumpower teacher of the Deep Creek Mill's school, is visiting friends in town this week.

F. S. Kelly went to Seattle on Monday, to serve in the capacity of best man at R. L. Holman's marriage on the 28th. Nello Johnson of the Leland Stanford university, is at home for the holidays. He will return in time for the winter term.

Miss Mina Jagger who is teaching near Wilsonville, has a week's vacation which she is spending with her parents in the city.

The Wednesday noon boat brought up Misses Ana and Grace Baird who came up from Portland to visit their sister, Mrs. A. S. Dresser.

Dr. H. E. Ferrin went to Portland on Tuesday to take a Christmas dinner with Professor Young of the high school, who had invited the Mt. Hood party of last summer to dine with him.

The recent storm has delayed work on the electric line between here and Portland, and it cannot be completed inside of ten days or two weeks. The rise in the river has made it impossible to get logs for getting out the long stringers so that work is delayed on that account and will be, till the Willamette falls so that Broughton can bring his logs through Rock Island and the locks. The bridge across the Clackamas was finished on Saturday, and it was completed none too soon for the logs from Cross's boom accompanied by driftwood, were swept against the false work, knocking it out and carrying it down stream. The bridge had just been tightened up and so held all right. Post setting will be about concluded this week, then as fast as the long stringers can be secured from the sawmill, the track laying can be pushed.

When on a visit to Iowa, Mr. K. Dalton, of Luray, Russell county Kansas, called at the laboratory of Chamberlain & Co., Des Moines, to show them his six year old boy, whose life had been saved by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, it having cured him of a very severe attack of croup. Mr. Dalton is certain that it saved his boy's life and is enthusiastic in his praise of the remedy. For sale by GEORGE A. HARDING.

Dr. J. W. Powell was called to Wilsonville on Monday to see August Schrader who was reported much worse. He found that such was the case and that while Mr. Schrader was quite comfortable most of the time, yet the wound on his head caused by the broken emery wheel, was not doing as well as he could wish—indeed he considers the patient's condition precarious.

Rev. M. Angelo Dougherty occupied the Congregational pulpit Sunday morning and delivered a magnificent Christmas discourse. Mr. Dougherty is one of the ablest preachers on the coast. He fills the pulpit again next Sabbath morning and evening. Those who have not heard him will find it a great pleasure to hear him.

The students in our public school very cheerfully contributed of their Christmas money to purchase for Prof. Pringle a souvenir spoon showing the Willamette Falls. The Professor may feel a pardonable pride in that he has so warm a place in the affections of his pupils and also in the esteem of the general public.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Thos. Miller and wife gave an elegant dinner to a number of their young bachelor friends, who greatly enjoyed the hearty hospitality and sumptuous repast prepared for them. In the evening a party of young ladies added their enlivening presence to the party, thereby greatly adding to the enjoyment of the occasion. Those present at the dinner party were: L. L. Porter, W. A. Huntley, C. G. Huntley, J. P. Lovett, F. J. Louis, Capt. J. W. Ganong, Dr. O. W. Yeargan, C. U. Barlow and Ralph Miller. The young ladies invited to spend the evening were: Misses Hattie Cochran, May Kelly, Mamie Charman, Vera Pillsbury, Nettie Chase, Birdie Shaw, Nella Barlow, Lara Miller and Mrs. Captain Ganong.

On Wednesday Mrs. Matilda D. wife of Thomas Holt died at her home in this city aged 78 years. Mrs. Holt came to this city about three years ago with her brother C. B. Hawkins, with whom she lived till her marriage a few months ago. Although a quiet and unassuming woman she has made many friends in the few years that she lived here. Funeral from the residence today at 11 o'clock.

A genuine case of diphtheria has appeared in town the victim being C. O. Albright's bright little daughter, Ethel. The physicians say that so far it has not taken a malignant form. The other children have been removed to his mother's and it is hoped that they will not be stricken with the dread disease. Nothing is known of its source as Ethel has not been out of town for some time.

Officers were installed by Multnomah lodge, No. 1, A. F. and A. M. on Tuesday evening as follows: L. L. Porter, master, H. E. Ferrin senior warden, T. S. Lawrence, junior warden, T. F. Ryan, secretary, F. E. Palmer, treasurer, J. M. Taylor, Tyler, H. S. Strange senior deacon, W. T. Whitlock junior deacon, Geo. F. Kortson, senior steward, J. S. Fordum, junior steward.

Two slightly lots on the west side were presented to Mrs. K. E. Charman for a Christmas gift by her husband. She had long been urging him to buy them, but a couple of weeks before Christmas after he had the deed he threw her off the track by telling her that the present owner would not sell.

Last Monday evening the young people's Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church, met at John McKay's, from where they proceeded in a body to Rev. G. W. Gibboey's house, carrying with them a handsome easy chair for the pastor's use. The evening was spent at the paragon in a very pleasant manner.

On Sunday, Judge T. W. Fouts went up the Abernethy to the residence of A. Leek where he united in marriage Mr. A. B. Linn and Miss Jennie Leek. After the ceremony the company partook of a sumptuous dinner. They will reside at Linn's mill where the groom is head sawyer.

Wednesday was set as the time and 8 o'clock as the hour for R. L. Holman to join the benedictine ranks by taking to himself a wife in the person of Miss Jessie Hixson. That's all right Ross we are saying all our old shoes against your return.

Instead of a Christmas tree the Congregational church saved the money, $50 for the Sunday school library and gave a concert instead. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the evening a full house greeted the little folks and the greatest good humor prevailed.
