FRIDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1892.

A BOLD THEFT.—On Saturday J. Jones rode a small buckskin mare marked 'H. C.' on the left hip, into town and hitched her about one o'clock by the Baptist church. At two o'clock he went to untie and start for home but found no horse to ride.

SEEN FROM THE HEIGHTS.—Last week's Portland Chronicle says: On Monday last it was the pleasure of the Chronicle representative to be on the heights back of Oregon City.

MARRIED ON CHRISTMAS.—On Sunday Rev. G. W. Giboney united in the holy bonds of matrimony, J. K. Morris and Miss Flora Mautz.

QUARTZ FROM BLUE RIVER.—The Eugene Register says Geo. A. Dyson and W. S. Powell came down from the mines in the Blue River country the first of the week with a lot of quartz and about eighty pounds of it was shipped to San Francisco for an assay.

SANTA AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH.—The capacity of the Baptist church was taxed to its utmost on Monday night at the entertainment for the little folks. The rostrum was tastily arranged as an old-fashioned dining room with Uncle and Auntie sitting around a real fire place which 'John' had neglected to supply with wood.

NO LIGHTS FOR THE RIVER.—Representative Hermann has for a long time been working at the request of the board of trade of this city to secure an appropriation to erect and maintain beacon lights and buoys on the Willamette river between here and Portland.

A NEW STORE.—The firm of Hamilton & Allen of Clackamas have decided that Oregon City offers a better field for their business than the place where they now are.

THE WEST SIDE SCHOOLS.—The Oregon City west side school will open February 12 for the spring term of five months.

AWNINGS VS PLATE GLASS.—Friday night the awning in front of W. A. Huntley's book store became overweighted with snow and ice and fell with a crash to the walk below striking a small bulletin board it fell.

MARRIED AND SETTLED.—On Sunday Rev. G. W. Parker married Miss Lottie Baird and Mr. A. S. Dresser at the home of the bride's mother in Portland.

DELAYED MAILS.—A small installment of eastern letters arrived on Monday morning and at night another lot and a few sacks of papers showed up.

RESIGNED HER POSITION.—The Oswego Iron Worker says of an Oregon City lady: It is with great regret that this paper announces the resignation of Miss Wetherill as teacher of the intermediate department in our public school.

POSITIVELY LAST CALL.—Parties indebted to Charman & Son must call and settle their accounts without delay or the delinquency will be reported to the Mercantile Agency.

At Huntley's Book Store.

Questions for the Council.

Ms. Editor: I would like to inquire to what purpose do we support the expensive machinery of city government?

I supposed that the humblest citizen might, with confidence, approach the fraternal authorities and present a petition, expecting at least the scant courtesy of being referred to a committee.

Here is a body of women, the wives, sisters and friends of our most honored citizens, presenting a petition to the Hon. Mayor and Common Council, begging them in the interest of good morals to suppress indecent pictures upon our bill boards and to prohibit lead exhibitions, which debauch the morals of the young.

I believe the common council has a committee on Health and Police, why at least could it not have been referred to that committee?

Is there anything in the subject improper for our virtuous lawmakers to consider, or have these women who form the only organization in the city pledged to protect the home and the youth of our city, and who constitute the best working members of all of our churches, as the pastors will testify, have these citizens no weight nor influence in the community that their petition should be treated with such utter contempt?

When the city attorney arises in a public meeting and plausibly charges upon the women the responsibility for the neglect to bring to account the violators of the Sunday law. Is it not in order to inquire for what purpose he draws his salary? When these lawmakers and public officials wink at crime and turn a cold shoulder to the pleadings of these mothers who have no weapon of defence, save their tears and their prayers, is it any wonder that our children are becoming familiar with crime and licentiousness, and are apt students in evading as well as breaking the law even before they leave our public schools.

"Corruption is a tree, whose branches are Of an unmeasurable length; they spread Everywhere; and the dew that drops from thence, Hath infected some chairs and stools of authority."

—A CITY MOTHER.
