An Epoch in Journalism. On Sunday, March 12, the Sunday Press (New York) started a feature that will mark an epoch in American journalism. It consists of an Art Cover, in which the paper when folded to the quarter size, is encased, and it has created an unprecedented demand for the Sunday Press among all classes of people.

Another Electrical Strike.

A test of Professor Elisha Gray's latest telegraphic electrical invention, the autograph, seems to confirm all the inventor claims for it. The system consists of two instruments, a transmitter and a receiver, connected by a telegraph wire, no matter how long. To the receiver is attached by two silk cords an ordinary lead pencil. With this pencil the operator writes, makes figures or draws a picture, every line being reproduced at the other end by a fountain pen, moved by the electrical impulses coming over the wire.

Everyone should plant more largely of Millet, as we know of nothing that will yield as much and so rich food per acre. Japanese—the best—we have a large stock and can sell it very close. Our new field corn that will ripen here—it is acclimated. Enormous yields and unlike other peas the bugs never get in them. A. I. Root's latest improved. We buy in car lots and can make close figures. Tells all the rest. Send for it. (English or German) Special prices on "first orders" from new localities. Portland, Oregon.
